THE REBELLION.

Rebel accounts show that the bombardment of Charleston still continues.

Expeditions from the U. S. gunboat Tahoma have destroyed the rebel government salt work at St. Marks, Fla. They were very extensive. Similar works ten miles distant shared the same fate. The property destroyed is estimated at $200,000.

A recent rumor is that Fremont will be assigned to the command of the Department of South Carolina,—Gen. Gilmore to have an active command in the field.

An officer of the army at Chattanooga writes that our army cannot remain long in its present position owing to the stench of the decaying carcasses of horses and mules, which strew the country around Chattanooga for miles.

☞ Counterfeit 100's on the Pawtuxet Bank, Providence, have been put in circulation. They are on a general plate, the same as those issued a year or two since on the Newton, Prescott, Waltham and Leighton Banks. Vignette, spread eagle, locomotive and train of cars, and two canal boats; 100 on each upper corner, men on the lower left and female on the lower right.

A Washington dispatch says the new call for troops is in accordance with Gen. Grant's plans; he asks for large armies if the country expects him to close the war during the present year.

THE LATE CHARLES MARCH. — We find in the National Intelligencer the subjoined official dispatch, communicating to the Department of State the sad intelligence of the decease of Mr. March, whose appointment as vice consul of the United States at Cairo had recently been approved by the department:—

U. S. CONSULATE GENERAL,
ALEXANDRIA, February 4, 1864.

SIR:—I have to report the painful tidings of the death of Mr. Charles March, of New York, who has recently been acting as the Vice Consul of the United States at Cairo.

This sad event took place very suddenly at the consular residence in Alexandria on the evening of Sunday, the 24th of January last. Mr. March, while on a visit here, was confined to his bed a few days by typhoid fever of so mild a type that neither himself nor his physicians apprehended any serious result, although such attacks are more trying to men of his vigorous physique and sanguine temperament than to others. On Sunday, the 24th, he for the first time expressed himself as feeling seriously unwell, and at 4 P. M. a rush of blood to the head rendered him insensible. In this condition he remained until his death, seven hours later. He was assiduously attended by three of the most skilful European physicians in the Viceroy's service.

On the afternoon of the 26th ult. the funeral ceremonies were solemnized at the Consulate and in the Church of St. Catherine: they were attended by the chief functionaries of the local government, and the consular representatives of the different nations in uniform, beside a very large concourse of European residents, many of whom, notwithstanding the shortness of his stay, had known the deceased well enough to feel a personal loss in his death. Among the pall-bearers were consular officers of England, Russia, Italy and Holland. The remains were placed in the Catholic cemetery of Alexandria.

At the time of his decease Mr. March had hardly attained the prime of life, and up to the last illness seemed the embodiment of vigorous health. No requisite of happiness and prosperous fortune was wanting to him. His eminent social qualities, his generosity and talent, had gained for him an unusually large circle of friends in America and Europe. He had been the trusted associate of Mr. Webster and others of our leading statesmen, but as a rule had declined to accept official preferment for himself. Only once, I believe, he consented to represent his native city (Portsmouth) in the New Hampshire House of Representatives, where he was nominated by one of the two great parties for the Speakership. He was a graduate of Harvard College, and his published volumes of Reminiscences of Mr. Webster, and of Travels in Madeira and Spain, as well as his various contributions to magazines and journals, had given him a creditable place in American literature.

It was but November last that Mr. March accompanied me from Paris to this country in the fulness of health and pleasant expectations. Few indeed of his many friends will be prepared for the affliction which thus befalls them.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
WILLIAM S. THAYER.

Hon. Wm. H. Seward, Sec. of State.

☞ Perley telegraphs the following items:

Senator Sumner is drawing up a report showing that justice demands the adjustment and payment of the French spoliation claims.

Senator Wilson will offer a bill disfranchising deserters who have escaped into Canada, but promising pardon to all who will return and enter the service.

Gov. Bramlette of Kentucky will not be permitted to resist the enrollment of either white or black men subject to draft, and that State will have to furnish its quota.

Senator Hale has been called home by the death of a relative.

— Archbishop Hughes is to be sent from New York to look after the Italian frigate Re Galantuomo, which is supposed to be lost.

BOSTON CORRESPONDENCE.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

BOSTON, March 14, 1864.

Editor Chronicle:—The party of New Hampshire men who spent last Monday night at the Rail Road House, New Market Junction, will not be likely to forget the last New Hampshire election. Arriving at the Junction too late for the Portsmouth train, efforts were made to charter a hand-car or a team with which to proceed to P., failing in which we settled down for the night as best we could. Some of the party succeeded in securing lodgings with nine feet Chesley, while others tried the soft side of a board in the station. Early on Tuesday morning a first-class train of two baggage cars arrived from Portsmouth. The conductor of the train in no very accommodating spirit declined to return to P. until about 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon, by which time our patience was about exhausted, and one of the party remarked that all that prevented him from swearing was a doubt of his ability to "do justice to the case." However we reached old Strawberry Bank about noon, only 19 hours from Boston.

Reading of a grand concert at New Orleans a short time since under the leadership of P. S. Gilmore, suggested the idea that there was something in a name. Gilmore's Band has always been an institution in this part of the country, under the direction of its skillful and gentlemanly leader; down in South Carolina we have another "Gilmore's Band," with any number of pieces, the music of which, however, does not seem to please our Charleston friends; and lastly we have got the impression down this way, since last Tuesday, that there is a "Gilmore's band" in New Hampshire, and that the favorite music is "National airs."

Last Saturday, according to announcement, Count Joannes appeared at the Boston Theatre as Hamlet, and his wife as Ophelia. The city press have as little to say about the matter as possible, but from curiosity and kindred causes the house was filled. Many went prepared to give the Count a warm reception with various missiles, but the presence of 75 policemen made discretion the better part of valor.

Lieut. Orrin M. Dearborn, of Hampton, has been commissioned Captain of Co. A, 3d N. H. Regt. Capt. Dearborn was always a great favorite with Co. D, (from Hampton and Portsmouth) and his many friends in and out of the regiment will rejoice at his promotion. He has been on detached service since June, 1862, as Ordnance officer in the 9th Army Corps.—Capt. Nathaniel Shackford, 12th N. H., of Portsmouth, returns to the army to night by way of Worcester. Capt. S. has received five wounds during the war, three of them at Gettysburg, and has hardly recovered from a severe wound in the shoulder, but will try it again; being an old Mexican soldier he may well be called a veteran. Capt. Samuel F. Langley, of the 12th, has been commissioned Major: he was formerly 1st Lieut. in the 3d. Quartermaster Sergeant Varnum H. Hill, 3d N. H., of Manchester, has been commissioned Assistant Quartermaster of Volunteers with rank of Captain. He is a courteous and obliging young man, and will do credit to his new position.

The Handel and Haydn Society will give a grand organ concert on Sunday evening, 27th inst. There will a be rehearsal at Music Hall with the organ the Saturday previous. The entire programme is not yet arranged, but it will be a grand affair.

Your correspondent has no objection to the Boston Gazette and Journal taking items from his letters, as they did last week, provided they will credit him therefor, which they did not. MANNING.

March 16.—The annual ball of the National Lancers at Andrews Hall last night, was a brilliant affair. The hall was handsomely decorated for the occasion. The Germania Band discoursed their usual excellent music, and all present enjoyed themselves highly: a good time being always guaranteed at any party originated by the members of this gallant corps. Many of the lady guests appeared in splendid dresses, which your correspondent dare not undertake to describe. Their scarlet opera cloaks mingled with the bright uniforms of the Lancers most harmoniously. A large company was present, the army and navy being well represented. Foremost among the military guests was Gen. Robert Cowdin, in full uniform. In conversation with your correspondent he remarked that he considered the 2d N. H. Regt. second to no regiment in the army except the 1st Mass. (his own regiment.) Maj. Gen. Samuel Andrews, M. V. M., and two members of his staff, were present in full uniform. Mayor Lincoln, and several of the Aldermen and Council, were also guests of the evening. New Hampshire was well represented by Mr. Robinson of Concord and Capt. Gilman of Nashua, members of the Governor's Horse Guards. John L. Stevenson, Esq., Past Master of Mount Lebanon Lodge of Masons, Boston, ably represented Rockingham County. The festivities were kept up till a late hour in the morning, and when next the Lancers give a ball, Mr. Editor, may you be there to see. MANNING.

— The U. S. steam cutter Miami has been ordered to proceed to Halifax at once, to convoy the steamer Chesapeake to Portland.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——The Patriot states that in Barnstead, Mr. Samuel Caswell, aged 105 years, went three miles to the polls and voted the Democratic ticket. He was old enough to know better.

—— The 14th Regiment, Col. Wilson, (of Keene,) left Concord on Wednesday morning for New York. From thence they go to New Orleans. The regiment is eight hundred strong.

—— A house and barn in Hampton, owned by Mr. James Lane, were burned on Tuesday afternoon, caused by children playing with matches. There was insurance for $850 on the buildings and furniture. The furniture of the house was saved. The contents of the barn and sheds, consisting of hay, two wagons, and farming utensils generally, were destroyed. A cow was also burnt in the barn.

—— Josiah S. Knowlton, a private in the First Company of Heavy Artillery, at Fort Constitution, was afraid that he should not reach Manchester in season to vote, trains being irregular on account of the washing away of the road; he accordingly footed it ten miles, run a hand car eight, rode six, and after a final walk of five miles reached Manchester and added his vote to the fifty six hundred majority for Joseph A. Gilmore.

—— A grand complimentary dinner to Gen. Hinks was given at the Phenix Hotel, in Concord, on Tuesday evening, by the officers connected with his department, as a testimonial of their respect and personal esteem for him and an acknowledgment of the efficient, courteous and impartial manner in which he has for the past eight months discharged his responsible duties.—Gen. Hinks leaves in a few days to resume active duties in the field in Gen. Butler's department.

—— The Concord Patriot publishes returns from the whole State, except Goffstown, where no vote for Governor was legally cast, and Cambridge and Wentworth's Location, which gave last year 11 votes for Eastman and 2 for Harriman. These returns foot up as follows; Gilmore, 37,053; Harrington 31,304; scattering 77. Gilmore's majority over all 5672. Increase of Republican vote, 3585; Decrease of Democratic vote, 1619; Aggregate vote of the State, 68,434; Increase of vote over last year, 1966. In the fifth councillor district, composed of the counties of Grafton and Coos, the vote is very close and the result is doubtful. The Senate will contain nine Union men and three Democrats. The House so far as heard from, stands 208 Union men to 118 Democrats. Seven towns not yet heard from, have probably elected six Democrats and one Union. If so, the House will stand 124 Democrats and 209 Union; giving the latter 85 majority.

In order to supply the force required to be drafted for the Navy, and to provide an adequate reserve force for all contingencies, in addition to the 500,000 men called for Feb. 1, 1864, the call is hereby made and draft ordered for 200,000 men for the military service of the Army, Navy and Marine corps of the United States. The proportional quotas for the different districts, or counties, will be made known through the Provost Marshal General's Bureau, and account will be taken of the credits and deficiencies of former quotas. The 15th day of April 1864, is designated as the time up to which the numbers required from each ward of a city, town, &c., may be raised by voluntary enlistment, and drafts will be made in each ward of a city, town, &c., which shall not have filled the quota assigned to it within the time designated for the number required to fill said quotas.—The drafts will be commenced as soon after the 15th of April as practicable. The government bounties as now paid continue until Apr. 1, 1864, at which time the additional bounties cease. On and after that date $100 bounty only will be paid, as provided by the act approved July 22, 1864.

☞ The Army Committee of the Boston Young Men's Christian Association acknowledges, among others, the following additional contributions in aid of our soldiers: North Parish Soldiers' Relief Society, Portsmouth, $15; Soldiers' Aid Society, Greenland, $100; Congregational Society, Eliot, $26; Congregational Church, Exeter, $2.

☞ The American Literary Gazette and Publisher's Circular is really a literary companion, and within its pages the student, librarian and man of literary taste will each find something to suit him. Published by Geo. W. Childs, Philadelphia.

— To-day, Mar. 17th, is St. Patrick's Day.

— London is contributing largely to the New York Sanitary Fair.

— The Fire Wardens of Saco recommend the purchase of a steam fire engine.

— The Fenian Brotherhood is giving the British Government some trouble, and the police are kept constantly on the alert.

— Mr. E. Merriam, the meterecological sage of Brooklyn Heights, is said to be seriously ill.

— Tammany Hall has issued a political manifesto in favor of the war and its vigorous prosecution; against the re-election of Lincoln.

☞ Geo. B. Moore, Esq., aged 40, died at Portland, Me., on Tuesday morning, of dropsy, while sitting in his easy chair, where he had passed the night. He was for some time before his death an editor of the Portland Advertiser; and was a man of talents and experience as a newspaper writer.

☞ The Rhode Island Union State Convention on Monday re-nominated Jas. Y. Smith, of Providence, for Governor by acclamation. The other present State officers were re-nominated, except the Attorney General,—Col. Horatio Rogers, jr., formerly of the 2d R. I. Regiment, being nominated for that office. Delegates to the National Convention at Baltimore were chosen.

☞ T. Morris, well and favorably known to the members of the House of Representatives for the last eighteen years, died on Tuesday of pneumonia. Mr. Morris was for fifty years attached to the office of the Speaker and was always near that officer when the House was in session. In view of the fact of his intimate acquaintance with parliamentary law, his knowledge and judgment often aided in the decision of important questions.

☞ Peace has been ratified with the North Carolina Cherokees. Those recently captured say they were induced to take up arms under the belief that they were fighting for the U. S. Government. Two were permitted to go in search of the band, and represent the facts to their Chief. 30 of the tribe have since come in and accepted the amnesty. Since the return of the Indians to loyalty, the rebels have committed numerous outrages upon them; 20 have been thrown into prison, and the rest are concealed in the mountains.

Administrator's Sale
—OF—
Valuable Real Estate,
ON RICHARDS AVENUE.

Under a license from the Hon. Judge of Probate, I shall sell at public auction, on the premises,
On SATURDAY, the 26th day of March next, at 12 o'clock, noon,

The Real Estate of the late JOSEPH GREEN, situate on the westerly side of Richards Avenue, (formerly Auburn street,) being the homestead occupied by the deceased in his lifetime. The lot is a frontage of thirty feet on the Avenue, and a depth of eighty feet, extending back as far as the estate of Dr. Wm. H. Preston. It has upon it a convenient house, two stories high, and large woodshed. The garden has many excellent fruit trees in good bearing order. The fine situation of this estate, with its extensive prospect, the excellence of the neighborhood, and its accessible location, render this a rare opportunity for purchase, either for investment or occupancy.

Terms of sale—Cash. The purchaser will have no difficulty in obtaining any reasonable sum upon a mortgage of the premises, if desired.

Local.

THE PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE.—Any one visiting Capt. Wiggin's headquarters on Daniel street, at the present writing, having been conversant with the business of the office during the continuance of the draft and the volunteering system, will at once notice a great contrast. Then, the building was not only filled with persons eager and anxious to serve the country as substitutes, (while their principals were equally anxious to have them) but the streets in the vicinity were during the daytime densely packed with those who desired to "come in out of the draft." Substitute brokers, greenback venders, speculators, et id omne genus—all seeming in a fevered excitement—each one trying to excel the other in promptitude, by being the "first on the docket."

Now, the Board of Enrollment are calmly engaged in correcting the late enrollment, and re-classifying the persons subject to a draft under the amendment to the Conscription Act as passed in Congress last month; while the several clerks are each equally as quietly engaged in their respective duties, making up statistics, furnishing reports, attending to the correspondence, which is very voluminous, filing papers, etc., etc.

The office, which before, by reason of the hundreds, aye, thousands of persons interested in the draft, appeared more like the office of a Metropolitan Hotel just before dinner, all eager to be served, is now as quiet as a bank during business hours—How long "everything quiet on the Piscataqua" remains, is to be proved.

Capt. Nathaniel Wiggin, the Provost Marshal, (the successor of Capt. Godfrey, who was promoted and ordered to Point Lookout as Post Quartermaster) is a resident of Dover, and has for the last twenty years been a very prominent business and public man in that city,—having received from the citizens of Strafford county all the offices of honor and trust in their bestowal, and not having been overlooked by the State authorities. He is at present one of the Directors of the Dover Bank, Trustee of the Savings Bank, President of the Cocheco Mutual Ins. Co. in Dover, &c. The Captain was by no means a stranger to our people, but by his gentlemanly demeanor and obliging manners, he has already added many to his long list of friends in Portsmouth.

To Surgeon Hall and Commissioner Tilton we have heretofore alluded. They are each the "right man in the right place."—Mr. Chesley still retains the position of Chief Clerk, and in fact he is so well versed in the modus operandi of the Provost Marshal's business, it would be hard to part with him. Of the old clerks in the office, Messrs. Dodge and Hall have been retained; also Messrs. Bailey and Kent, as special agents for the District. The rest of the former clerks (the force necessarily being diminished) have, as a general thing, received corresponding positions in other government employ.

☞ The public announcement that Miss Susannah Evans, the youthful oratress from Wales, would address the citizens of Portsmouth upon the subject of Temperance, at the Temple, drew together on Sabbath evening last a very large and appreciating audience. The room was literally packed, and hundreds were unable to gain admittance who desired to do so. For more than an hour she held the undivided attention of her listeners, which clearly indicated how deeply they were interested in the simple yet eloquent and earnest appeals of the artless young speaker. Truly wonderful she is. We were filled with amazement at the mental power manifested in the conception, arrangement and delivery of her lecture, which was directed especially to young men. Most earnestly she pleaded with them not to destroy themselves, blotting out all the nobleness of manhood by the use of intoxicating drinks.

Her voice is pleasant and clear, her manner easy and graceful, and as her tones fall upon one's ears difficult indeed is it for him to realize the fact that he is listening to a youthful girl but just turned 16 years.

At the close of her lecture the committee of arrangements offered for sale her photographs and the sum of $36.25 was realized from the sales, which goes towards making up the sum of $1000 which she has engaged to donate to the Sanitary Commission for the benefit of our brave and suffering soldiers. May Heaven's richest blessings rest on her efforts to save and bless her race.

E. Lee with coal, at Halifax. He waived the reading of the charge and recognized for his appearance at the April term of the U. S. Court.

FACTS FOR SOLDIERS.—Throughout the Indian and Crimean campaigns, the only medicines which proved themselves able to cure the worst cases of dysentery, scurvy and fever, were Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Therefore let every volunteer see that he is supplied with them. Only 30 cents per pot or box. 228

SALVE AND SALVATION.—That "little pot of ointment" might have meant Grace's Salve, which cures everything on the skin in the shape of eruptions. It cures boils also, and felons, and sore breast. In short there is such an excellence about it that the ladies use it as a cosmetic. Only 25 cents.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

Constitution Life Syrup,

COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y. formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigation of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is sought out, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as heinous as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Scrofula.

Strumo, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

(Arthritic), Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, The Dolorous.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fadless more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depression and Nervousness.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen; and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indigestion, Exercise, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Sorehodings, Horror of Insanity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Languidness of the Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Cutaneous Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MORE FATALITIES upon the female sex, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an inflamed or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES: It is the safest and most efficacious medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enlishes the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

WAIT.

Wait! for the day is breaking,
Though the dull night be long;
Wait! God is not forsaking
Thy heart. Be strong—be strong!

Wait! and the clouds of sorrow
Shall melt in gentle showers,
And bees from heaven shall borrow,
As they fill and store the flowers.

Wait: to the key to pleasure
And to the plan of God;
O, tarry thou life leisure,
Thy soul shall hear no load.

Wait! for the time is hasting
When life shall be made clear,
And all who know heart wasting
Shall feel that God is dear.

Soldiers of the Potomac army complain of the immense size of the stockings furnished by patriotic ladies.—Exchange.

The Ladies—God bless them—have large hearts; and when they undertake to do a good thing, there is no end to their benevolence. But the above reminds me of the story of the good old lady, whose minister came one evening to drink tea with her.—In the overflowing goodness of her heart, she poured out a cup half full of strong tea for him, and filling it up with molasses, was proceeding to stir up the fragrant compound with her finger, when the Elder remonstrated against being compelled to drink so much molasses. But the old lady paid no heed, and continued to stir the beverage with her finger, while she enthusiastically exclaimed, "Why, bless yer dear soul, Elder, 'twouldn't be a mite too good for ye, if 'twas all molasses." So the ladies think the stockings wouldn't be too good for the soldiers, if they were large enough for tents.—Portland Courier.

☞ The Government is about to establish a coal depot and repair shops for the Potomac Flotilla on Jones' Point, St. Mary's county, Maryland, which will materially add to the efficiency of the flotilla. The gunboats, after the establishment of this depot, will not then be required to go to Washington for coal or repairs. This place will probably be made the headquarters of the flotilla. The Engineer's shop, where will also be done boiler work, will be under the charge of the chief engineer of the flotilla.

☞ The Committee on Emancipation of the Virginia Constitutional Convention, now in session at Alexandria, report as a part of the proposed new constitution, that "Slavery or involuntary servitude, except for crime, is hereby abolished and prohibited in the State forever. Courts of competent jurisdiction may apprentice minors of African descent on like conditions provided by law for apprenticing white children. The General Assembly shall make no law establishing slavery or recognizing property in human beings."

THOMAS STARR KING—The Boston Transcript has received, from Rev. Dr. Bellows, the following dispatch, sent him from California, in reference to Mr. King's last hours:—

"His death was a wonderfully triumphant vindication of his character, his life, his religion. Resigned, trustful, and conscious to the last moment, he calmly made every preparation, and yielded his soul to God."

A dispatch from Mr. R. B. Swain, Superintendent of the Mint in San Francisco, to a friend in Boston, says:—

"Mr. King died triumphantly. The circumstances wonderfully vindicate his character and religion. Our entire population is paralyzed by this sudden and unexpected event."

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is universally recommended in these cases of Fever Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nostrum medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and laxative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fleur Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and diversionary, relieving all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and efficiency.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will send them, free of charge, by mail.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fire is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are lined with tin, and jackets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT Stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; convenient in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and comfort are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water. The fire is by warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks without any labor, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who now using them, are willing to testify and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

Portsmouth.

J. Woodman Moses, George Bilbrook, Charles Walker, Thomas Jones, Nathan Dane, Michael Walsh, Capt. Solomon Brooks, Alonzo Lane, Howard Curtis, Thomas J. Mervin, Capt. James Davidson, Capt. T. B. Oliver, Thomas J. Tarlton.

T H. Sawyer, Moses Morell.

Newcastle.

J. H. Robinson, Epping.
Isaac Joy, South Berwick.
Capt Ira Andrews, Biddeford, Me.

And the hosts of others who are using them.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of the valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine the truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat up the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on top of the house can be made to consume the gases or the coal, as they pass off with the large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and they may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of a good Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Meadum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to perform the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February on leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

"Found to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

"THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS."—This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme LAW of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.—Constitution U. S.

☞ When Lord Palmerston heard of the death of Mr. Thackeray, he immediately wrote a letter of condolence to his daughters,in which he offered to recommend them for pensions on the literary fund. The young ladies respectfully declined the offer, alleging, as one amongst other reasons for doing so, that their acceptance of it would not have been approved of by their father. Mr. Thackeray, when he lived, always exhorted his literary brethren to rely on themselves, and to discard any notion of State recognition or assistance. It is understood, however, that the Misses Thackeray, do not entail upon themselves any very great denial by their spirited resolution. Mr. Thackeray, though he may not exactly have died a rich man in the ordinary sense of the term, has left his family in very comfortable circumstances, while the income from the sale of his books, of which he retained the copyright, will always produce a nice annuity.

☞ A Western soldier returned after an absence of two years and found his wife living with another man, to whom she had been married two months, representing that she had never been married before, and to those who knew better, that her husband was dead. The first and second husbands calmly talked the matter over, and both finally agreed to abandon the false woman, which they at once proceeded to do.

☞ There are now living but twelve soldiers of the Revolution, to whom Congress passed a vote of thanks on the 4th inst., also adding $100 per annum to each of their pensions. Two of the number are on the Portland roll, viz: Amaziah Gardiner, born in Somersworth, Feb. 16, 1759, and William Hutchings, born in York, Me., in 1764.

THE RIGHT RING.—In his speech the other night at the Cooper Institute, New York, Gen. Fremont denounced the French invasion of Mexico as an outrage to the continent, and a mockery of republican institutions, which must be resented. That is a doctrine which has the true American ring to it; and its chief merit is, that it is uttered in a tone which no one can misunderstand.—Wilkes' Spirit.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,) 76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years, enables him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
Besides, he has the extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, or even usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy among of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of whom was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Warren has been appointed to the command of the Third Army Corps.

Maj Gen. Butterfield has addressed the following to Lieut. Gen. Grant or Gen. Halleck, under date of Cairo, 11th:—Gen. Sherman arrived yesterday at Memphis.—His command is all safe. Our total loss in killed, wounded and missing is 170 only.—The general result of his expedition, including Smith's and Yazoo River movement, are about as follows:—150 miles of railroad, 67 bridges, 7000 feet of trestle, 20 locomotives, 28 cars, 10,000 bales cotton, several steam mills, and over 2,000,000 bushels of corn were destroyed. The railroad destruction is complete and thorough. The captures of prisoners exceed all loss. Upwards of 8000 contrabands and refugees came in with the various columns.

An official dispatch from Nashville, Tenn., Mar. 16, states that after occupying Decatur, Gen. Dodge pushed west to Courtland, thence to Moulton, driving the enemy, capturing many, and stores, ammunition, salt and stock.

Advices from Vicksburg, to the 10th, say that the troops are preparing for another grand expedition. The troops are in excellent condition and spirits and eager for marching orders.

There was quite a battle at Yazoo City on the 5th, between the negro troops and a large force of rebels, who made an attack on the place. The rebels gained possession of a part of the city, but the gunboats coming up opened fire on them, encouraging the negroes, who charged and drove the rebels back. Our loss was small. The rebel loss is unknown.

It is rumored that Adm. Farragut is to withdraw his fleet from the attack on Mobile.

Our forces have occupied Pilatka, Fla. which is in the rear of the rebel force threatening Jacksonville.

The N. Y. Herald's New, Orleans letter states that Porter's entire fleet of iron-clads is at the mouth of the Red river. 30 transports with troops are also there. Adm. Porter has captured a strong rebel fort on the Washita river, with all its guns, including three 32-pounders. Gen. Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th inst., and operations would be immediately commenced.

The Herald's West Virginia dispatch states: there is a rumor that the whole of Ewell's corps is moving into Shenandoah valley, probably for subsistence.

Gov. Brown, in his message to the Georgia Legislature, severely comments upon the policy of the administration.

Jeff. Davis has appointed another Fast Day—April 8.

A rebel force, 1500 strong, is reported to be threatening Barbourville, Western Virginia. A strong Union force has been sent to intercept them.

Guerrillas destroyed a train of cars from Nashville, Ky., on the night of the 16th.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The ice went out of the Cocheco Mar. 7th,— about a month earlier than last year.

—— The Dover Cornet Band, J. Burleigh Pinkham, leader, is giving a series of Concerts in that city.

—— Gov. Gilmore received the following dispatch from the Secretary of War the day after the election: "Accept my thanks for your telegram, and my cordial congratulations to yourself and the patriotic people of the State for their great loyal victory."

—— Mr. James Lane of Hampton, by the burning of his buildings on Tuesday afternoon, lost one nice cow, 75 bushels of corn, 50 bushels of potatoes, lot of hay, one carriage, and all his farming implements. Loss estimated at $2000. Insured for $850 in Rockingham Farmer Co., Exeter.

— The Wheeler & Wilson Co. manufacture 80,000 sewing machines annually, and keep 500 men constantly employed. They have over $1,000,000 invested in their business.

— The gunboat Marblehead, built in Newburyport, by Hon. Geo. W. Jackman, Jr., has been in constant service and been ashore no less than 38 times, but has not leaked or needed repairs.

— The small pox is spreading itself with fearful rapidity over the country. In Cincinnati it is worse than ever before known; in Cleveland, Ohio, it is said there are upwards of 1200 cases; and in Columbus and other places it is very bad.

— The Auburn papers complain of the continual robbery of soldiers on the N. Y. Central Railroad, while on their way home from the army. The Advertiser says that gangs of pickpockets travel regularly on the trains, and plunder returning soldiers of their pay.

THE TOWN QUOTAS.

We have received from Brig. Gen. Hinks, Provost Marshal General and Superintendent of Vol. Recruiting Service, for this State, an exhibit of the number of men enrolled and subject to a draft in each subdistrict within the State; of the quota of 500,000 men called for by the President, in his order dated Feb. 1st, 1864, with all previously existing deficiencies; of the number of men held to service under the draft in 1863; and of the number of volunteers enlisted within the State since the draft and prior to Mar. 1, 1864; showing the deficiency of each sub-district that had not filled its quota on the 1st of March, 1864. We publish the figures for the 1st District, and also the recapitulation for the three Districts into which the State is divided.

The foregoing "exhibit" does not include any veteran volunteers re-enlisted in the field, and re-mustered-in for particular towns or sub districts, as no such re-musters-in have been returned to this office.

The authorities of towns are earnestly recommended to avail themselves of the government bounties, which will be paid until April 1st, and put forth every effort to enlist men to keep the N. H. regiments now in the field up to the maximum, and to complete the organization of the cavalry regiment now being raised. Continued exertion to fill up their quotas will be necessary in those towns now deficient to avoid a draft, as each sub-district must furnish the full number of men required of it. And the authorities of towns whose quotas are now full, are assured that any surplus of men furnished, will be placed to their credit upon the next or any future demand for troops. Now, while recruits are allowed choice of regiment, and large bounties are offered by the General Government, an opportunity is offered for towns to secure a surplus, and avoid any future draft, by inducements which will not be continued.

— Ohio has filled her quota, and is, therefore, out of the draft, in company with Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Iowa.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

EXTRACTS FROM PRIVATE LETTERS.

A peculiarity of Malaga is the number of consecutive days of bright sunlight, without a solitary cloud in the sky. The monotony becomes at last decidedly irksome, and one longs to see a few fleecy clouds. On one or two days only had such been vouchsafed to us, until within the last week. There has been no considerable rain for over eight months, and the farmers were in great distress, having already sown grain several times without any result. It seemed as if the country would be ruined, and so the church took the matter in hand, and on Tuesday last had a procession, at the head of which was carried in great state the identical Holy Virgin that was borne at the head of the armies during the wars of Ferdinand and Isabella against the Moors.—She is usually maintained in state in the convent La Victoria, and only brought out on great occasions. After the ceremony she was carried to the Cathedral, where she is daily visited by crowds of the faithful to acknowledge the results of her interposition, for, sure enough, after this long drought, we had first a violent wind, and then two days of copious rain. Some of the skeptical foreigners now here suggested that the barometer had been rapidly falling for some days previous to the procession, and that the rain was only in the ordinary course of events, but that is only sub rosa. Such heresy proclaimed openly might result disagreeably, if not fatally.

"Malaga (says Ford) is more renowned for wine and fruit than for literature and fine arts." We used to say, at home,—Malaga raisins are very good raisins, but Malaga wine is very much better; but if one should judge of either by the specimens he finds on the hotel tables, he would pronounce the saying false. The best of both are sent to England and America, and only third or fourth rate reserved for home consumption.

Thus far, with the exception of the climate, I have been disappointed in everything in Spain. I have seen neither beautiful women nor brave men. At Barcelona, Valencia, Cadiz, Seville and Malaga, I have frequented the most popular promenades, and can truly say I have not met the first person whom I should, on the score of personal beauty, ever care to see again. It may be said that the fault is in myself, and that I have outlived my enthusiasm, but as I find a daily beauty in nature and art, and in other countries I find also models of beauty which might rival the finest of the Antiques, I shall dissent from that conclusion.

A famous rope-dancer proposes an exhibition on the Alameda, directly opposite our hotel,—and waiting her appearance all the Malaga world, with their mantillas and fans, are on the promenade, and I have been sitting for an hour, hoping to see a Spanish beauty. Some there are with graceful figures and movements, and they wear jauntily their mantillas, and handle their fans as no other women can,—and some with sparkling eyes that seem as if they would penetrate the inmost recesses of your soul, yet in regard to their beauty, I have seen no woman handsome enough to change the opinion already expressed.

The Spaniards are seemingly more devoted to their religion than the Italians, though "if ancient tales say true, nor wrong these holy men," the priests are no better than they should be. I am very slow to join in the general crusade against Catholicism, but from all that I have seen and heard from authentic sources, growing out of the personal experience of the narrator, I must believe that among the priests there is a marvelous amount of licentiousness.

— Rev. Dr. Bellows, of New York, having received an earnest and urgent invitation to supply the pulpit made vacant by the death of Rev. T. S. Local.

☞ There is quite a brisk demand in various places for mechanics of different branches of business, insomuch that many are leaving the Portsmouth Navy Yard for more lucrative positions outside. Machinists, whose pay at the Yard is $2.50 per day, (first class) can readily command $3 outside, and consequently are leaving.—Carpenters also are paid $2.50 at the Yard, while throughout the ship-building districts of Maine, $3 and upwards is paid to first class workmen. So of other departments; and therefore a movement is being made for an increase of wages at the Portsmouth Navy Yard. The pay of painters and coopers has already been advanced 25 cents per diem—the former now receiving $2.50, (first class) and the latter $2.25 per day. Good workmen—and such only are wanted for what are styled first class mechanics—can always demand and receive the highest wages; and it is reasonable to presume that if they can obtain more elsewhere they will generally leave to do so.—And we opine that the Government needs first class mechanics, and can afford to pay them as much as Mr. A., B., or C. outside; hence it is not wise for the authorities of the Government to suffer their best men to leave, and fill their places with those who are incompetent and lazy. There are many, however, who would not ask for a discharge, were they not actually compelled so to do, in order, as the saying is, to "make both ends meet." For example, a mechanic or laborer having a large family of children depending on him for support, requires more than $1.50 or $2 per day, to enable him to live under the pressure of the high rents and fabulous prices of food and clothing of to-day. We do not refer to that class of persons who grub along, and care not whether their clothes are tidy or torn, or whether they eat with their fingers for forks and knives, or from chairs for tables. (There are many in our land obliged to adopt this method of living;—God pity them;—there are many others who choose it.) Neither do we allude to a class of people who are fond of making a show—pretentious and extravagant—wearing the best of broadcloth, and indulging in all the luxuries of the market:—but we mean those who desire to attend church with their families, and wish to make a respectable appearance in public and private; who are economical in the purchase of food, and prudent in the matter of dress. This class need more than the present rate of wages to enable them to meet their bills of rent, food, clothing, physician, (if unfortunate enough to need one) and the thousand and one little demands upon the purse. We trust that the government, corporations, or individuals having men or women in their employ, will remember that, when almost everything we eat, drink, or wear has advanced one hundred per cent, there must be a relative increase in the price of labor.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15th, 1864.

To Brig. Gen. E. W. Hinks:—The President of the United States has made a call for 200,000 men, additional to the call of Feb. 1st, 1864, for 500,000 men.

The quota will be two-fifths of the quota of 500,000, subject to additions and deductions for excess and deficiencies on that quota.

As soon as possible you will be informed of the number required from each district of your State. Notify the Governor immediately. JAMES B. FRY,

ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN THE MORNING. Yesterday was the anniversary of the Patron Saint of Ireland—the one by whom Christianity was introduced into that Island, some 1400 years ago. The place where he was born is not definitely known, but it must be a great grief to the Irish that he was not an Irishman; and very few of them will believe that he was an Englishman, though England, with Scotland, Wales and France, puts in claims on that head. When he was a boy he was captured by pirates; then sold a slave into Ireland, where he was a shepherd; afterwards being a fugitive from slavery, he was educated and ordained a priest at Rome; and finally returned to redeem the land from heathen superstition. He must have been a man of great power, or his name would not have descended to us. Yesterday was remembered by the sons of Erin all over the world, and his nativity celebrated in the Churches.

☞ A friend in Boston, who is beyond question a most efficient and trustworthy collection agent,—solicits business of this sort from us. Now we should be most happy to patronize him, if anybody, in this way; but of late years we do not have any accounts out of town to be settled—our terms are always and exclusively cash in advance, for all work from abroad; and, thanks to the promptness of most of our patrons, it amounts to about the same thing here at home, too. "Short settlements make long accounts," all round. "Indemnity for the past, pay up; security for the future, pay down."

☞ Owing to the serious breaking down of our press on Monday, while printing the first side of our weekly edition,—we are obliged to substitute the Daily Chronicle for the Gazette in several instances this week. And but for the prompt courtesy and great accommodation of Messrs. Trafton Brothers, blacksmiths, and Mr. Jas. W. Teague, master machinist at the Portsmouth Steam Factory, and other workers on iron there,—who very kindly laid aside their own hurried business to attend to our necessities in the case, even at unseasonable hours, we should have been obliged to suspend issuing the Chronicle for a day or two, or print elsewhere—at the cost of no end of trouble to ourselves and others.

POLICE COURT, Thursday—Odell, J.—Anthony Meredith, charged with abducting a minor from his father, and taking him to Massachusetts for the purpose of enlisting him, was discharged.

Patrick Sullivan, for an assault on Lucy B. Lolley, was fined $1 and costs, $3.09.

Lucy B. Lolley, accused of an assault on Patrick Sullivan, was discharged.

Samuel Lolley, for an assault on Ellen Sullivan, was fined $1, and costs, $3.26.

☞ The U. S. side-wheel double-ender Agawam dropped down into lower harbor from the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Thursday afternoon. She is to go to New York to fill up her crew.

☞ We learn that James P. Bartlett, Esq., of this city, gave a lecture before the Lyceum at New Castle, on Thursday evening. The last lecture was by Rev. A. J. Patterson. Subject—The Union.

☞ The afternoon train for Boston now leaves this city at half-past 5 o'clock. The train for Portland leaves at 5 o'clock, as heretofore.

We are pleased to learn that the youthful temperance lecturer, Miss Susannah Evans, is again to address the citizens of Portsmouth on Tuesday evening next, Mar. 22. Her lecture on Sabbath evening last was a perfect success. Let all who wish to hear her purchase their tickets early, for this is the last opportunity they will have to see and listen to her. She is worthy your patronage; and the cause she advocates is worthy the encouragement of every citizen of Portsmouth. Go and hear her, and you will be well paid for your trouble and expense. ONE WHO KNOWS.

☞ Gov. Bramlette has issued an address to the people of Ken ucky, urging submission to the laws, and an appeal to them for redress under any wrong act of the U. S. officers.

VALUABLE MEDICINAL

Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!
What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.
Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by their physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.
During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as heroic as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of cure.
Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:
In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But, when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is required is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,
A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all Hereditary DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.
Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.
It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dropsy.
Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stom'h, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Jaundice, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.
Strumo, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.
This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.
Arthritis, Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.
If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism, and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced—cases, redundo or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.
Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.
Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.
Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.
Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup
Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like
ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.
And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Cures all Swellings of the Glands,
Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their becoming and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to a Discharge from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few bottles of the Life Syrup.
All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is excreted through the salivary glands, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.
Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound,) Dropsy of the Heart, Case and all the Diseases of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.
Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Want in the Back, Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Horror, Calamity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Language of the Secretory Organs, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.
For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.
MEASURES upon Female Diseases, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct that derangement and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.
In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dullness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be secured by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.
Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.
THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.
PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.
TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES.
It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Morning Chronicle.

George Thompson, of London, is now engaged in the delivery of public lectures in the United States, he having recently arrived from England for that purpose. A few evenings since he delivered a lecture at Portland, upon the last few years of the history of the United States, and of the changes which thirty years have wrought in our public sentiment. There is one incident connected with the visit of Mr. Thompson, himself, to this country, which we will briefly recall, as an illustration of the change of sentiment to which he referred.

About thirty years since, when the whole North was appealed to by the South to stop the agitation of slavery discussion and allow the then existing status of slavery to remain a finality, Mr. Thompson was then lecturing in favor of emancipation, and at the close of one of his lectures in a town in Massachusetts, Andover, if we remember rightly, a man of mark arose in the assembly, and asked if he understood the speaker correctly that he was in favor of emancipating all the slaves in the United States to-morrow? The question was deemed at that time a complete crusher, as the people were holding public meetings in all the cities at the North for the purpose of shutting down the gates of all discussion, in fear that the slaves would rise and "eat the throats of their masters."

Mr. Thompson rose calmly, to answer the question, and said: "The gentleman asks if I advocate the emancipation of all slaves to-morrow. No, sir," and then rising to his fully extended height, he thundered in his explosive voice, as though he would have the entire world hear him, "I am for doing it now!" The effect was truly electrical. Mr. Thompson was mobbed in those times; now all ears are open to catch his words.—Kennebec Journal.

☞ The London Times quotes from an American paper that it is rather singular that the name of God should be spelled with four letters in almost every language, viz: In Latin, Deus; French, Dieu; Greek, Theos, (the Greek represents th by one symbol); German, Gott; Scandinavian, Odin; Swedish, Godd; Hebrew, Aden; Syrian, Adad; Persian, Syra; Tartarian, Idga; Spanish, Dios; East Indian, Egi or Zeni; Turkish, Addi; Egyptian, Amm or Zent; Japanese, Zain; Peruvian, Lian; Wallachian, Zene; Etrurian, Chur; Irish, Dieh; Arabian, Alfa; and others still with four letters.

LUNT, DRY GOODS 19 MARKET STREET, PORTSMOUTH.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS,

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are lined with tin, and jacketed are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either size, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is especially well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife, for it does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and comfort are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED MAGEE COOK STOVE, as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. Made from plates now covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would invite those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated to so give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert Rich, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, impotency, gleet, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Bumors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and lasting results of these evil habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr Dow has for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

THE FURY IN RICHMOND.

The following remarks are copied from the New York Sunday Post by request of one of our quiet conservative citizens, as far removed as possible from fanaticism:

The language in which the Richmond journals speak of the recent dash of General Kilpatrick illustrates strikingly the evil effects of slavery upon the manners and morals of the masters. The insolence of their tone, the malignant cruelty of their suggestions, the satisfaction they express at the outrages perpetrated upon the bodies of Col. Dahlgren and others, dead or living, bôt alike defenceless: all these show how the nature of these men has been warped by their contract with slavery. The same passions which are excited in their minds by intercourse with their servile dependants, and which can be gratified without fear of punishment upon their helpless bodies, these same vile and devilish passions flame forth under other circumstances; they cannot help speaking to their equals as they do to their slaves, and using the same cruelties in war which they practise on the plantation. "This day's sun should not go down before every scoundrel taken in this assassin's work is blown to atoms from the mouths of cannon, and every means should be employed to get the names of as many as possible of those who have escaped, so that, if taken hereafter, they may be treated in the same way," says the Richmond Whig; and again: "If our authorities were prepared to act as the interests of the cause and the dignity of the country imperatively demand, it would make no difference if there were disguised officers among the privates, since an indiscriminate execution would reach all." The Dispatch adds: "There is no way to meet this kind of warfare but by the most summary punishment of every man caught in the act of its prosecution.—Every commander under whose authority such deeds are committed should be put to death immediately he is caught and his criminality clearly established."

Colonel Dahlgren's dead and mutilated body was buried, but dug up again, so the Richmond papers report, by the orders of the authorities, and shamefully misused.—The prisoners captured have been ill-used and threatened, and it is urged that they shall be killed.

Such blind fury and cruelty prove the barbarizing influences of slavery; they show that if this system had endured for fifty years longer, it might have dragged this whole continent back into savagery; for all who come within the reach of this extirpator of humane sentiments are turned by its companionship into brutes. Slavery has made these slaveholders treacherous—as is shown by their conspiracy against the Union, the government of which they were at the time carrying on; it has made them liars—as when Beauregard charged General McClellan with issuing a "beauty and booty" proclamation, and as now in Richmond they have forged a paper of instructions and report it to have been found upon Colonel Dahlgren. Slavery has made them cruel—they hunt escaped prisoners and loyal citizens with bloodhounds; it has made them inordinately vain—they charge cowardice upon their opponents, and believe themselves to be the only brave, pure and high-minded people in the world. Slavery has infested them with the vices—cunning, treachery, blind conceit, ignorance, a furious and suspicious temper, childish petulance, unscrupulous mendacity—which distinguished a semi-civilized or barbarous community. In this war they have exhibited all these vices.

On a certain occasion, a noted infidel borrowed a sum of money from the late Dr. Lathrop, of West Springfield, Mass. When he came to pay it, he thought to pose the Doctor by argument from the Bible. "You ought not to take interest for this money, for the Jews were forbidden to take usury!" "O no," said the Doctor, "you forget; the Jews were indeed forbidden to take usury from their own people, but they were allowed to take usury from the heathen." The application was too direct to be mistaken, and the man was quite willing to drop the argument and pay the money.

EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, even rest—for it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she received no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. SWETT'S in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1861
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No 1 High street, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Grant formally assumed command of the armies of the United States on Thursday. His order states that in pursuance of the order of the President, he "assumes command of the armies of the United States. Headquarters will be in the field, and until further orders will be with the Army of the Potomac. There will be an office headquarters in Washington, D. C., to which all official communications will be sent, except those from the army where the headquarters are at the date of this address." He will repair to the front immediately on his arrival at Washington. His staff is composed of the officers formerly with him in the military division of the Mississippi.

Stuart, with 5000 cavalry, is reported to have crossed the Rappahannock near Fredericksburg; and, again, the report is denied

There is a new rumor of a conspiracy, embracing several counties and cities of Kentucky, having for its object the annexation of Kentucky to the Confederacy. It is said that the leaders had their headquarters at Monticello, and were corresponding with Longstreet in Tennessee, and the Kentucky delegation in Richmond. Letters from the latter to some of the leaders were seized in the post office, and the conspiracy discovered.

Gen. Gilmore's chief of staff states that the lower part of Charleston is destroyed, and the upper part is now occupied by troops.

The rebels are said to have a large force in North Carolina, stationed along the railroads.

Vicksburg dates of the 8th state that 20 steamers were at the wharf loading with troops for an expedition, which, it is presumed, will unite with Gen. Banks' command, and go up Red river. Report gives W. J. Smith the command of the expedition.

☞ If we may trust the N. Y. Times' Paris correspondence, Minister Dayton served a written notification upon the French Emperor, that if the rebel cruiser Rappahannock, now at Calais, is allowed to proceed to sea, the French Government will be held responsible for all the damage she may do to American commerce. The French government has issued more stringent regulations concerning the cruisers of the belligerents. The builders of the six Confederate vessels at Bordeaux and Nantes, have given their word to the French Government that these vessels shall not pass into the hands of the Confederates.

— The Secretary of War has rescinded the authority to Governors to appoint Commandants for rendezvous for drafted men.

— The Swedish Government has granted permission to Swedish officers to take service with the Danes during the war.

— There is a letter in the Portland Post Office directed "To the most romantic lady in Portland." Another is directed to "Guess who."

— Darius Forbes, of Maine, Examiner of Invalid Pension Claims in the Pension office, has been removed "for meddlesome and unwarrantable interference with the affairs of the Department."

— A Chicago woman was detected stealing a box of cigars, and was followed home, where several thousand dollars' worth of goods was found. Her son was just going into business on the fruits of his mother's pilfering.

— The New York Evening Post hears from private sources that it is intended by loyal men to appeal to the President, and if necessary, from him to Congress, to annul the Louisiana election, on the ground that it was not a free election.

— On Wednesday evening the dead body of an unknown man, apparently about 50 years of age, was taken from the Merrimac river at Groveland. The skull was stove in on the forehead, and appearances indicated that the person came to his death by violence.

— The Russian, French and English naval authorities on the north coast of the United States have severally ordered vessels off to the location of the disaster to the Italian frigate reported to have been seen in distress by the steamer Star of the West. Our government have sent out two ships to the same place.

— Deputy Sheriff Thomas Smith, of Oldtown, Me., was killed near Presque Isle, a day or two since, by a desperado named John C. Gove, whom he was trying to arrest, and who has been an outlaw in that region a year or more. Gove was shot, but not killed, by Mr. Smith's assistants. He was then captured.

— Another missionary vessel has been built on the Pacific coast, named the Evening Star. She was dispatched from San Francisco to join the Morning Star, which was built some years ago at Boston.—Both vessels were built and fitted out by the Sunday School children in the Atlantic States and California.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By Uncle Tony.

Shirley, Wentworth and Pepperell, in 1745.—The careful reader will see, by our extracts from Belknap to-day, that there were jealousies, intrigues and wire pullings, in Portsmouth and Boston, 120 years ago.

In Portsmouth, in 1745 the house of representatives passed a vote for an emission of ten thousand pounds toward defraying the charge of the expedition and farther carrying on the war, and the support of government; to be drawn in by taxes in the annual payments, to begin in 1755. The council objected and said, that the grant should be wholly appropriated to the expedition and the payments should begin in 1751. The house adhered to their vote. The governor interposed, and an altercation took place, which continued several days. The governor adjourned the assembly till he could again ask Shirley's advice and receive his answer. At length, the house altered their vote, and appointed the year 1751 for drawing in the money; augmenting the sum to thirteen thousand pounds, and at the governor's express desire, they publicly assured him, that they could not find out any other way to carry on the expedition, or in any degree shorten the period for bringing in the money. This was done to serve as an apology for the governor's consenting to the bill, notwithstanding he had no liberty to recede from his instructions; and thus, the matter being compromised, he gave his consent.

During this tedious interval, a report was spread, that the house had refused to raise men and money for the expedition; and the author of the report was sought out and called to account by the house for his misbehaviour. The next day, they altered their terms of enlistment, conformably to those offered in Massachusetts, and by the 17th of February, two hundred and fifty men were enlisted for the service.

The person appointed to command the expedition was William Pepperell, Esq., of Kittery, colonel of a regiment of militia; a merchant of unblemished reputation and engaging manners, extensively known both in Massachusetts and New-Hampshire, and very popular. These qualities were absolutely necessary in the command of an army of volunteers, his own countrymen, who were to quit their domestic connexions and employments, and engage in a hazardous enterprise, which none of them, from the highest to the lowest, knew how to conduct. Professional skill and experience were entirely out of the question; had these qualities been necessary, the expedition must have been laid aside; for there was no person in New-England, in these respects qualified for the command. Fidelity, resolution and popularity must supply the place of military talents; and Pepperrell was possessed of them. It was necessary that the men should know and love their general, or they would not enlist under him.

The following private note was sent from Boston to Pepperell, while at Louisburg, and found among his papers.

"You was made general, being a popular man, most likely to raise soldiers soonest.—The expedition was calculated to establish Sh——, and make his creature W. governor of Cape-Breton, which is to be a place of refuge to him from his creditors. Beware of snakes in the grass, and mark their hissing."

After this appointment was made, and while it was uncertain whether the assembly of Massachusetts would agree with the governor in raising money for the expedition, Shirley proposed to Wentworth, the raising of men in New-Hampshire, to be in the pay of Massachusetts, and in the letter which he wrote on that occasion paid him the following compliment. "It would have been an infinite satisfaction to me, and done great honor to the expedition, if your limbs would have permitted you to take the chief command." Wentworth was charmed with the idea, and forgetting his gout, made an offer of his personal service; but not till after the assembly had agreed to his terms and the money bill was passed. Shirley was then obliged to answer him thus:—"Upon communicating your offer to two or three gentlemen, in whose prudence and judgment I most confide, I found them clearly of opinion, that any alteration of the present command would be attended with great risk, both with respect to the assembly and the soldiers being entirely disgusted."

A Perilous Feat.—The New Haven Palladium says that while the excursion train was conveying the Congressional Naval Committee over the Shore Line Railroad, on Sunday, just after passing Westbrook station the brakeman, Mr. Thomas Cahill, observed that one of the rear journal boxes of the locomotive tender had become hot, and was blazing. He notified the engineer, Mr. Stebbins, who promptly ran over the tender, jumped down between it and the baggage car, and, standing upon the connecting bar between the rear brakes, while the brakeman supported him with a tight clutch of his coat collar, he rectified the trouble and oiled up the heated journal without slackening the speed of the train. That portion of the road is among the most favorable sections of the whole line for fast running, and while the train went flying through the village of Clinton, making better time than a mile a minute, this firm-nerved engineer was actually down between and underneath the engine and baggage-car, coolly at work repairing damages.—The train made an average of 43 miles an hour on the whole trip.

— Connected with one of the school-houses in Holden, Mass., is half an acre of play ground which the pupils have set out with apple trees, and they have agreed that, instead of eating the fruit themselves, they will dispose of it for the purpose of procuring a fund which will keep the school-house in repair. Their trees are just getting old enough to bear.

—— Under the last call for 200,000 men, the quota of this State will be a little over 2000 men. The surplus on hand February 1st, the re-enlistment of veterans, and the cavalry regiment now filling will probably make our quota full. The number re-enlisted from our old regiments is not yet known here, in full, but must be large. Four hundred and eighteen re-enlisted in the 4th regiment.

—— The Peace Democracy in Gilford ordered a baker to furnish on election day a bushel of beans, well baked, with a sufficient quantity of pork and bread. But when the result was announced — 119 Union majority—the discomfited men lost their appetite and the beans were left untouched. The next day the baker sought for his pay and was directed to sell the beans for what he could get. So the beans were sold at auction, and the proceeds handed over to the Sanitary Commission.

—— We learn from the Independent Democrat that the Board of Commissioners appointed by the Governor to take measures for the establishment of an Agricultural College, in this State, met in Concord on Tuesday, March 15th, and organized by the choice of Hon. Horton D. Walker of Portsmouth as Chairman, and Geo. W. Burleigh, Esq., of Somersworth, as Secretary. But little business except the organization was transacted. A liberal offer was made by one of the board, Gen. David Culver of Lyme. He offers to give several hundred acres of land in one body, with four sets of buildings thereon, valued at $20,000, and $30,000 in money. The land is situated in Lyme.

— More particularity is heresfter to be observed in granting leaves of absence or permission for any officer to visit Washington. They are now required to address for this purpose Gen. Halleck, and must state the business for which they desire the permission.

☞ In the city of New York, the official vote on the soldiers' voting amendment shows thus: For, 16,388; Against, 6,880. Total vote, 23,218. There were only three Wards which gave a majority against—the First, Yeas 144, Nays 168; the Bloody Sixth, or Five Points, Yeas 221, Nays 368, and the Fourteenth, Yeas 270, Nays, 359. Could anything be plainer? The Banner Ward of riot, robbery, rebellion and murder is also the Banner Ward of opposition to the soldiers' vote.

☞ A dispatch from Boston to the New York papers says that Mr. Wendell Phillips has just completed a letter of congratulation to the general committee of Tammany Hall, which will appear in a few days. It is highly complimentary to Tammany, and looks to the advocacy of some such man as Gen. Fremont or Gen. Butler for the Presidency.

Gas is in all the rooms, and an iron grate in every study room. There are three entrances on the front. A petition from the Lamplighters for increase of pay was referred to the Committee on Gas Lights.

A petition from School Committee of District No. 2, for an appropriation for deficiency for the year 1863, was referred to the finance committee.

It was voted that the Mayor and Ald. Adams be a committee to whom should be referred the whole subject of the enlistment of seamen in the Navy and their allowance on the quota of this city.

The ordinance sent up from the Common Council, providing for a bounty to Volunteers, was read and referred to Ald. Adams, Shannon and Hadley,—to report at a special meeting on Friday evening.

In executive session the following persons were appointed watchmen:—Samuel A. Spinney, William Woodman, Oliver Dennett, Daniel D. Cate, Walter B. Laskey, George E. Barsanted, Alexander Leach, Franklin C. Hoyt, James D. Ranson, Daniel F. Smith, George H. Ham and John T. Gray; and George W. Frost, John A. Brown, and William Cate were appointed supernumerary watchmen.

On Friday evening the Bounty bill passed both Boards. It gives $300 to re-enlisted Veterans from Portsmouth, and $200 to all other volunteers towards this city's quota under the last call.

☞ The U. S. steamer Agawam, in her passage from the Navy Yard to Lower Harbor on Thursday afternoon, ran against the rocks off Sullivan's Island shore, injuring the vessel considerably. Her port paddle-boxes are badly stove, and she leaks to some extent. She will probably have to be docked for repairs. There appears at first sight to have been some gross mismanagement in the matter, but it is said that vessels of the above kind are exceedingly awkward to manage.

☞ We learn that a warrant and call for a town meeting in Eliot, Me., extends an invitation to the citizens of that staid old town to meet at 10 o'clock P. M., on Monday, the 21st of March inst., for the choice of officers of the said town for the ensuing year. It was undoubtedly an oversight on the part of the constable or some other officer upon whom such business devolves. Nevertheless the inhabitants of old Eliot will be on hand to proceed to business or to adjourn over to a more seasonable hour.

☞ The Eastern road has procured another new Smoking Car, and it was run over the road for the first time on Friday morning. It is a splendid car, superbly fitted up,—and the rare comfort afforded by it will be appreciated by the smokers, who are proverbially fond of their ease.

☞ Lafayette Laighton sells a "tip top" article of Sand Soap, at his grocery.—Good for all who are poor enough or smart enough really to appreciate "the dignity of labor."

☞ Clocks' Hair Restorative has been tried in this city, and is pronounced a first rate article. See the advertisement of Mr. Marston, agent in Portsmouth.

☞ A London correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, who had an interview with John Bright, says Mr. B. is very warm in his desire for Mr. Lincoln's re-election—thinks it would produce a grand effect in England, by convincing the people of the solid purpose of the American people, and quoted the words of a distinguished friend of the Southrons, a member of the House of Commons, that such re-election would be the heaviest blow that the North could inflict on the South. He does not care much for the criticisms on Mr. Lincoln's slowness, though he admits that a change of Cabinet should be demanded; for the rest, he says, "Mr. Lincoln is like a waiter in a large eating-house, where all the bells are ringing at once; he cannot serve all at once, and so some grumblers are to be expected."

PUTNAM'S REBELLION RECORD.—Part 41, of this treasury of the facts of the rebellion, contains portraits of Com. John Rogers and Gen. James G. Blunt; also the official documents and narratives of the battle of Chickamauga, and other contests, together with poetry, rumors, incidents, &c.

— According to statistics the use of sugar must have largely diminished in the United States since the rebellion. Heretofore no nation in the world has used so much sugar in proportion to its population as ours. In France and many other countries of Europe, it is an unknown article to half the inhabitants.

— A woman died the other day in California, and the expenses of her attendance while sick, and her burial were footed by the county. A lady who took some care of her charged $80, which was allowed, and the deceased woman's husband presented his bill also. It was not allowed.

— The reason an old maid is generally so devoted to her cat is, that, not having a husband, she naturally takes to the next most treacherous animal.

It is pleasant to know that the people of Portsmouth duly appreciate the talents of Miss Evans. The lecture last Sabbath evening was very interesting, and we learn from those who have heard her in Boston that the lecture "Muzzle the Dog," is far superior to that. It is both amusing and instructive. No one should fail to hear this lecture next Tuesday evening.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Owing to the exigences of the times, the Dentists of Portsmouth will advance their price to 50 cents for each tooth extracted, on and after Monday, March 21st. When artificial teeth are to be inserted, one-half the price paid for extraction will be deducted from their cost.

FACTS FOR SOLDIERS.—Throughout the Indian and Crimean campaigns, the only medicines which proved themselves able to cure the worst cases of dysentery, scurvy and fever, were Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Therefore let every volunteer see that he is supplied with them. Only 30 cents per pot or box. 228

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; it is saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. TRUTH will triumph over falsehood, from whatever source it may spring, or however much it may appear on the surface. In the Mayor's report it is stated that no other lot could be had on which to erect an engine house, without paying an exorbitant price. This statement is not true, and the Mayor knows there were several lots offered at low prices—so low, the writer offered to give bonds to take either of the three following lots at the price it was offered at, at any time, should the city wish to give it up. All of them are sufficiently large for the purpose required. One on Washington street, just back of Dr. Burroughs' garden, price $400 or $500; one offered by Mr. Marsh, on Hanover street, price $1000; one offered by Mr. Cotton, on Hanover street, at $1200, much larger than required for the building. All of the above lots were tendered to the city during the two or three days allowed by the Mayor for that purpose. In the meantime, the Mayor put on an extra gang of hands and nearly completed the foundation of the building, with stone laid in lime water, where it now stands. At the same time a petition was got up and signed by about one hundred of the heaviest tax-payers, remonstrating against taking so valuable a lot as the one taken; and no one seemed in favor of it, to my knowledge. I disapprove of the above facts, that the disgrace may fall where it belongs, on the Mayor alone—purely to gratify his mulish will in opposition to those who used the remonstrance, in opposition to the good sense of most of the inhabitants of the city.

Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y. formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scrutinize to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored in those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians are

Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as heroic as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and in all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stomach, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Strumo, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

[Arthritis], Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Chronic, simple or virulent, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Our Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the mercury Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, such as

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, as they are growing their parents into producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of Life Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy of the limbs or abdomen, Leucorrhœa in the female, Gravel or Urinary and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly tedious and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart; Cases of all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions.

Suffering from Indisposition to Exercise, Aches in the Back, Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Horror of Calamity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Lassitude of the Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

NOTHING will so speedily remove the bile, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, loss of appetite, weak stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most effectual remedy ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents distress attendant upon childbirth.

CAPTURE OF BRITISH STEAMER DON.

BEAUFORT, N. C. March 6, 1864.

I have the pleasure of announcing to you th capture on the 4th inst., by the United States steamer Pequot, of the British blockade runner double screw, iron steamer Don, Capt. Fred Cory, five days out from Nassau, N. P. for Wilmington, N. C., with a cargo of army blanket dry goods, &c. At forty minutes after nine black smoke was sighted from the masthead, and the Pequot was at once headed for it.

Two armed boats were sent in charge of Actin Ensigns George Lamb and Wm. F. Chase, to boar and take possession of her. Her papers had been thrown overboard, and her captain acknowledged her to be a blockade runner. The Don is the sister ship to the Dee, lately run on the beach and destroyed. She is a fine vessel, built at London last June, 244 tons British register, has four engines of 120 horse power each, driving two screw propellers. The vessel was built expressly fo blockade running purposes, and is thought to have cost about £28,000, equal at present rate to $185,000. Her captain, officers and crew are all, or nearly all, Englishmen, and a fine looking set of men.

The Pequot logged twelve knots while towing hauling her, and with the ordinary head of steam. We all feel proud of the vessel, for she has proved herself to be a splendid craft. She has made over fourteen knots with steam and sail. Captain Quackenbush has shown his excellent seamanship and tact in handling this vessel while chasing and hauling. I should have said that he completed the capture at eleven A. M.—in just one hour and twenty minutes after sighting the smoke on the horizon. Acting Ensign Geo. Lamb goes home in charge of the prize. The Don's officers are guests of the ward room mess. The crew is at present on board the Pequot.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION AT SPRINGFIELD—SEVERA PERSONS KILLED.—At half past two Wednesda afternoon a terrific explosion occurred in C. D Lest & Co.'s Cartridge Factory, on Market street.

The scene was heart-rending in the extreme Several girls were in the third story, which, al though not in the place of the explosion, seems to be enveloped in flames. Their shrieks, with dragging forth of bleeding and disfigured bodies the shouts and intense excitement of the crowd which speedily gathered, appalled the stoutest hearts.

The firemen were on hand at once, and conducted themselves in the most fearless and heroic manner, and as we go to press the flames are entirely subdued.

The explosion is said to have first occurred on the "fastening in" table.

There were sixteen persons injured, of whom three are dead, and others are not likely to recover.

Lieut. Oscar F. Eaton of company F, 10th regiment, was passing the shop at the time of the explosion, and immediately went in to render what assistance was in his power.

Charles M. Atwood, formerly of Belchertown, was assisting him at the time. He was a former employee at the establishment, having left only a few weeks since from fear of accidents. He knew where some of the powder was stored, and in the nobleness of his object risked his own life to endeavor to throw it out of the building, and save, if possible, another catastrophe. After they had successfully passed four kegs of powder out of doors the fifth exploded in their hands.

Young Atwood was burned upon his face and hands, but both he and Lieut. Eaton escaped instant death as by miracle, and will doubtless recover.

Hon. Henry F. French of Cambridge, formerly of Exeter, has been elected, by the Legislature, one of the Board of Trustees of the Agricultural College of Mass.

The harbingers of Spring have come—the merry blue birds and beautiful robins; and the bass are taken from the river.

Morning Chronicle.

A NORWEGIAN DANCE—Round the musician the young men and maidens formed a ring and began to dance. There was little talking, and that little was in an undertone. They went to work with the utmost gravity and decorum. Scarcely a laugh was heard—nothing approaching to a shout during the whole night—nevertheless, they enjoyed themselves thoroughly; I have no doubt whatever of that. The nature of their dances was somewhat incomprehensible. It seemed as if the chief object of the young men was to exhibit their agility by every species of impromptu bound and fling of which the human frame is capable, including the rather desperate feat of dashing themselves flat upon the ground. The principle care of the girls seemed to be to keep out of the way of the men and avoid being killed by a frantic kick or felled by a random blow. But the desperate features in each dance did not appear at first. Every man began by seizing his partner's hand, and dragging her round violently with one arm, and catching her round the waist with the other in order—as it appeared to me—to save her from an untimely end.

To this treatment the fair damsels submitted with pleased though bashful looks.—But soon the men flung them off, and went at it entirely on their own account; yet they kept up a sort of revolving course round their partners, like satellites round their separate suns. Presently the satellites assumed some of the characteristics of of the comet. They rushed about the circle in wild, erratic courses; they leaped into the air, and while in that position, slapped the soles of their feet with both hands.—Should any one deem this an easy feat, let him try it. Then they became a little more sane, and a waltz, or something like it, was got up. It was really pretty, and some of the movements were graceful; but the wild spirit of the glens re-entered the men rather suddenly. The females were expelled from the ring altogether, and the youths braced themselves for a little really heavy work; they flung and hurled themselves about like maniacs, stood on their heads and walked on their hands—in short became a company of acrobats, yet always got up a sympathetic feeling for time with themselves.—Good Words.

THE French Press is particularly hard on England. With regard to Lord Russell's explanations to the British Parliament, the Parisian Journals say it is evident that it was quite out of the power of the noble lord to remove the first impression produced on the English as well as the French public—that the English government had yielded to pressure, and that the attitude of America in the affair was a much more dignified one. La Presse says of English politics at this time that that they are in a most deplorable state. "It is evident that the present English government is afraid of both Federals and Confederates—afraid of Russia and of France—of Austria and of Prussia, neither able to maintain peace nor declare war." This is a mere specimen of the style in which Britannia is dealt with at this time by her Gallic neighbors.

George Augustus Sala writes to the London Telegraph that Americans beat the world in hospitality, and says:

"In France, you know, you get little but sugar and water out of your friends, in Germany nothing but smoke, and in Italy there are some grand houses where you can only obtained supper by paying for it. In Spain you can procure nothing to eat, because beyond eggs and chocolate, and garlic, there is nothing to eat. But in the United States you may ruin your digestive organs for nothing by a fortnight. If the oysters and the canvass back ducks don't give you dyspepsia, the eternal ice creams and candied sweetmeats will; and when you fall sick you will find plenty of kind friends to press Hostetter's and Drake's Plantation Bitters as curatives on your acceptance. All this is done in sheer, bounteous generosity and kindness of heart."

— A curious trick of rifle-shooting was lately performed at Paris. A Swiss gentleman backed himself to take aim with his carbine, then support it with his right arm, then with his left hand put his hat over the muzzle, and hit the centre of the target. This he did three times, and "landed" his money.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

CHEROKEE REMEDY
AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is positively recommended in these cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females, where all the old numerous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and diminishing, relieving all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any agent in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS,

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fire is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are lined with tin, and jackets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a perfect stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and dispatch are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large upper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

Portsmouth.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air is allowed to come in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The object aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases are lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE'S FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off in large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Obstruction of the Bladder, Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of the spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has had more, and had greater experience in the cure of diseases of females and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
☞ Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS."—This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the SUPREME LAW of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.
The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.—Constitution U. S.

To hear these slaveloids, one would think they never recommended such "raids" as Kilpatrick's, as their favorite mode of warfare. To listen to their angry threats, we should forget—as they appear to have forgotten—the marches and exploits of Stuart, and Morgan, and Wheeler, Mosby, Quantrell and Forrest. Kilpatrick is only worthy of an ignominious death, but John Morgan, who in half a dozen expeditions devastated Kentucky, receives all honor and glory. It is a crime against humanity to make a dash at Richmond, but when Quantrell burned Lawrence and massacred in cold blood the unresisting inhabitants, the rebels called his exploit a great victory and him a gallant soldier, a terror to Yankees. These very people who now cry out so furiously were the inventors of these raids; they magnified for two years the heroism and splendid achievements of their cavalry generals, whose sole business was to make such incursions. And now that they are no longer successful in this their favorite branch of war, now that Quantrell, Jackson and others can no longer ravage Missouri and burn towns in Kansas—districts entirely beyond the legitimate field of war; that Morgan and Forrest can no more get into Kentucky to tear up railroads, destroy and carry off cattle and horses, and burn mills and stores—these people cry out with childish and disgraceful petulance, "unfair"—as some half-grown boy begins to whimper and sneak out of the game which he has begun when he is unexpectedly beaten at it.

It would seem that Kilpatrick's expedition damaged the rebels seriously, even though unsuccessful in its main objects—to release our prisoners, and destroy the rebel gun foundries and depots in Richmond. The Whig complained that clerks and workmen were taken from their work, and precious time has been lost, which will delay or interfere with the rebel operations. We hope the government will encourage Averill and Kilpatrick to another attempt. To harass the enemy is the duty of a good general; and the recent expeditions against Richmond have shown us that that is one of his vulnerable points, at which we ought to strike continually.

☞ A writer in the Portland Advertiser, who has made a flying trip down East, thus narrates an incident which occurred in the train to Bangor.:—

A nicely got-up young man, with a stunning mustache, discovered a blooming damsel in an adjacent seat, and placing himself beside her was rapidly cultivating her acquaintance. His glib tongue and splendid "make up" were evidently creating a favorable impression, when, oh, horror! an unromantic sneeze intervened, which displaced one of his beautiful false labial appendages. Stooping quickly he gobbled it up with his handkerchief, and clapped the latter over his mouth. His companion, who had not seen his mishap, asked him "what was the matter?" He replied that he had a severe toothache, which excited the young lady's sincere compassion, and she expressed much sympathy for his suffering. As soon as he thought he had properly secured the beautiful ornament to his lip, he removed the handkerchief. A shout of laughter greeted him from his fellow passengers, "How are you, Spaulding's Glue?" The mustache had been put on up side down! A glance showed the young lady the state of affairs, and she bolted from the seat, leaving her gay cavalier the laughing-stock of the crowd, and the fun-loving part of the passengers meant that he should not forget it for the rest of the journey.

THE SABBATH.—Some people disregard the Sabbath on the ground, ostensibly, that "all days are alike holy." But a travelling correspondent of the Christian Inquirer, writing from a town in New Hampshire, where he finds the Lord's day very generally desecrated, well remarks that "Regarding all days unto the Lord, when it begins with disregarding the Lord's day, it generally results in disregarding the Lord on all days."

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1857.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond competition, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDM'D BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MARCH 21, 1864.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

The issue of an order by the President of the United States for an "additional draft of 200,000 men," on the 15th day of April, calls for a statement from the Executive Department of this State in regard to the demands of the General Government for men from New-Hampshire.

The call of the President for 500,000 men, issued on the first of February, was intended to cover all existing deficiences. Under that call the proportion of New-Hampshire was 6,573 men. Up to the first of March, as appears by a circular issued by Brigadier General Hinks, our State was credited with 6,854 men, being an excess over all demands upon us of 291. Gen. Hinks explicitly states that his circular "does not include any veteran volunteers re-enlisted in the field," taking account only of recruits mustered within the State. Hence, not only our excess of 291, as reported by Gen. Hinks, but the number of re-enlisted veterans are to be credited under the President's recent call for 200,000 men.

Our quota, under this call, is	2836
Excess of volunteers	291
Re-enlistments in Second Regiment	120
" Third "	264
" Fourth "	160
" Fifth "	50
" Sixth "	155
" Seventh "	175
" Eighth "	265
" Battery	61
" Sharpshooters	43
" Cavalry	142
	1967
Deficiency under present call	869

In this statement of re-enlistments we give for the 3d, 4th and 7th regiments the estimates of Colonel Stevens, the State agent for re-enlisting veterans in the Department of the South. In regard to other regiments the statements are official, but later returns would be even more favorable. The facts which are given above show, most conclusively, that New-Hampshire's deficiency under the present call is very slight. This deficiency we must meet by volunteering before the 1st of April. On that day the munificent government bounties of $400 to veterans and $300 to fresh recruits will cease to be paid. Let us fill to the maximum, before that day, the ranks of our noble First New-Hampshire Cavalry, which now numbers 457 men, and New-Hampshire is again in excess of all demands upon her. But I would appeal to the patriotic citizens of our State to give to their government no stinted or niggardly support. Let each sub-district see that their quota is full, beyond all question, by April 1. Let us unite in reiterating the statement that "There shall never be another draft in the Old Granite State."

JOSEPH A. GILMORE.

March 17, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

A Washington dispatch states that all officers of the Army of the Potomac now absent must return before Gen. Grant commences its reorganization.

It is again rumored that Lee intends to invade Maryland, or to make a dash for Washington or the rear of the Army of the Potomac. It is said that the military authorities are giving renewed attention to the defences of Washington.

The telegraphed story of a conspiracy in Kentucky is discredited at Washington.

Advices from Cairo, 18th, state that an expedition composed of three brigades had started from Vicksburg. The 16th army corps has left for the South—destination unknown.

The Newbern Times again urges the sending of 50,000 troops to North Carolina. Newbern is strong enough, but the troops are needed to penetrate to the interior.—The Henderson (N. C.) Times states that nine-tenths of the people of that county have signed a petition to Gov. Vance, asking him to call a State Convention.

Col. Duncan Cooper, a daring, reckless guerrilla chief, has just been captured by our forces in Tennessee. He has long been a terror to Union citizens.

A Knoxville dispatch of the 15th says all the regiments around the city have gone to the front.

Mobile papers of the 9th of March say the Yankee forces attempted to land on Dauphin Island, thinking it unoccupied, but happening to catch sight of the Confederate soldiers, concealed and waiting to receive them, they hastely retired, afterwards furiously shelling the woods. They also say the Yankee picket boats reconnoitre with impunity to the foot of Fort Gaines wharf.

Partial election returns from eleven counties in Arkansas give more votes than the whole number required by the President to replace Arkansas in the Union.—The other counties will give full 5000 more. The new State Constitution was almost unanimously ratified. Arkansas is thus declared a free State in the Union, and the whole free State ticket is elected.

Price is again in command of the Arkansas troops. Hindman has resigned, and Hood succeeds him. Breckinridge commands in South Western Virginia.

The rebels are reported in large force in front of Chattanooga, but make no demonstrations.

The Union men are said to be concentrating in Texas.

— A singular law exists in Utah Territory granting to criminals under capital sentence a choice of deaths. They may elect to be hanged, to be shot, or to be beheaded.

BIG FIGURES.—There used to be an old saw, when Uncle Toby was a boy, something like this: "figures don't lie." No doubt it is as true now as it was then: yet people often make mistakes in figuring.—The boys used to say, "A mistake is not a haystack." Very likely: but some mistakes are almost as big as said stack.

The Concord Patriot of March 16 says, "the Republican majority is even larger than we estimated it last week—over Harrington 5749—over all 5672."

To rub out the moral effect of this great majority, the Patriot gets up a great addition table of "soldiers and other persons brought home to vote, without which (says the P.) the Republicans would have been defeated."

The table begins with an estimate of various regiments, amounting to 2900 in all; and then adds hospitals 700; invalids 300; camp followers! 500; clerks and employees! 500; outsiders, deserters, &c. !1500.

It is possible that there may be some readers of the Patriot sufficiently stupid to think this table amounts to something.—Its editor evidently does not think so;—but in a waggish way throws out these figures to gull the flats.

To look at the matter carefully, we would ask, how it can happen that these 700 men from the hospitals and the 300 invalids are all Republicans? We were told, again and again, that the great body of the soldiers were Democrats, while the Abolitionists did not go to the war in great numbers.

Have the soldiers changed? Was the story a lie? Or does it happen that the rebels in "battle shoot only their political opponents, and spare the Copperheads? Or above all, do Republicans only grow sick in camp, while Democrats retain their health? We must believe all this, or most of it, if we think that Gov. Gilmore got 1000 votes from that quarter.

Camp followers 500, are not soldiers, surely; neither are clerks and employees 500; why they might not or ought not to come home does not appear; and it might puzzle the Patriot to tell why, or how it can be known that they all voted one way.

Lastly but not least, the Patriot gives us in a lump 1500 outsiders, deserters, and so forth. How large a proportion belongs to so forth, after the outsiders are counted, is not stated; and the Patriot wisely smooths over the whole table with the word about. But it is remarkable that outsiders have anything to do with the soldiers' vote, and questionable who the outsiders are.

That deserters should all happen to vote the Republican ticket is strange indeed.—We heard of no such case here. But we did hear of one deserter from the 2d N. H. regiment who voted on the other side last year, who was taken from his bed where he lay with delirium tremens, carried to the polls, furnished with a pint of whiskey, and carried back to his bed again.

Says the Patriot, "a large number of those who voted our ticket last year, have since joined the army; and other hundreds were bought up either to vote for Gilmore or stay away."—Very strange that such patriots could be bought.

The Patriot's grand complaint is, of "the shameful outrage, both upon the people at home and the Democrats left behind, of bringing home thousands of soldiers pledged to vote for Gilmore."

Such outrage would have been impossible, if the democrats in our last Legislature had only voted unanimously to get the votes of all our soldiers! They got behind a quibble about the constitution, we know. But a unanimous vote would have removed the whole block. Such a vote should be carried through, this year, unanimously or otherwise. There is no great difficulty in the way—and the cries of outrage from such a quarter are only ludicrous. U. T.

☞ The Bangor Whig gives particulars of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Smith near Fort Kent, an announcement of which was given by telegraph. Gove, the murderer, was found in a barn concealed beneath the hay. He had a rifle by his side, a pistol in one hand and a dirk knife in the other—having left a small opening in the hay through which he could observe any one who might approach. Mr. Smith discovered him in the hay, and with characteristic bravery dashed at him, seizing the pistol in his hand and turning it aside before it was discharged. It seems, however, by the wounds on the body of Mr. Smith, that Gove then stabbed him two or three times on the inside of one of his thighs with the dirk, inflicting terrible wounds, from which Mr. S. soon died to death. The desperado then seized his rifle, and presenting it, threatened to shoot the persons who followed Mr. Smith, but he was anticipated by a shot from a pistol which entered near one of his shoulders, breaking his shoulder blade, and he was then captured. After Gove was shot he still resisted, and in the struggle was thrown from the scaffold, breaking his arm. He is in jail at Houlton.

"The gallant Second Regiment—Patient in toil; cheerful in hardship; fearless and undaunted in battle. Their deeds of valor amid the untried scenes of war; their unflinching steadfastness in the perils of the Peninsula; their bravery at Williamsburg and Gettysburg, will grace the pages of history, and coming years will crown their names with unfading laurels." Gray's Patent Molded Collars

Have now been before the public for nearly a year. They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant.

The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars.

The cravat causes no puckers on the inside of the turn-down collar—they are AS SMOOTH INSIDE AS OUTSIDE—and therefore perfectly free and easy to the neck.

The Garotte Collar has a smooth and evenly finished edge on novel plan.

These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO FIT THE NECK.

They are made in "Novelty" (or turn-down) style, in every half size from 12 to 17 inches, and in "Eureka" (Garotte) from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "solid state" in neat blue cartons, containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of 20 each, the latter a very handy package for Travellers, Army and Navy Officers.

DR. TEBBETTS' PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR

—AND—

UNIVERSAL HAIR RESTORER.

ITS MODUS OPERANDI.

Immediately beneath the scalp there are very small glands, or sacs, numerous enough to fill the Hair. It is from these Glands that every hair of the head is formed and secreted. As long as the scalp is free from disease, these bodies also remain healthy, and the hair keeps its natural appearance and color. But when humors and other diseases affect the scalp, these glands become involved in the same disease, and the hair gradually turns gray, dry and brittle. Sooner or later the hair begins to fall off, and in many cases, if not arrested, will produce a complete baldness of the scalp.

To remedy this pathological condition of the glands and create a new and healthy action, the Physiological Hair Regenerator has proved a perfect success—inasmuch as it is the only preparation yet known that can boast of such wonderful results.

Unlike thousands of other articles in the market, containing Silver, Lime, Lead, Litharge, Jannin, Sulphur, &c., and producing only a sort of yellow or flax color, it will, if properly applied restore the hair to its former appearance and beauty.

The Physiological Hair Regenerator is warranted in all cases to produce the following results:

1. It is not a Dye and will not stain a single particle. It contains no coloring matter whatever, and is not the least injurious in its application.

2. It will certainly RESTORE the hair from a gray to a beautiful Black, Brown, Auburn, or whatever might have been its original color.

3. It will effectually prevent the hair from falling off, remove all Heat, Inflammation and Dandruff from the scalp, keeping the head clean and cool, and the hair soft, glossy and of a silky appearance.

4. It will PROMOTE a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, if the extreme cases of old age and where the glands have become disorganized.

5. It will cure the most inveterate itching and neuralgia of the scalp, and being highly perfumed, it affords a most delightful article for the toilet.

We have a great abundance of testimony to prove beyond a doubt all the proclaim for the Regenerator; and it is positively certain that in a very short time it will have a world wide reputation.

HOME TESTIMONY.

DUBLIN, N. H., Dec. 17, 1863.

Messrs. Tebbetts Brothers—The preparation you induced me to try on my hair, about six weeks ago, has had a wonderful effect. My hair was then almost white and very thin almost bald. My daughter has also tried it on her hair, which was fast falling off on account of a severe attack of the diphteria, it stopped it immediately on its application. My wife has also been trying it for baldness on top of her head, and finds that a new growth of hair is rapidly starting. We have only used one bottle, and I think one more will fix our heads up in good shape. J. C. CUTLER.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 20, 1863.

Gents—Unless I am very much mistaken, your Hair Regenerator is destined, ere long, to work a complete revolution with all other Hair Preparations. It not only restores the hair to its natural color and keeps the head free from Dandruff, but it is the most elegant dressing that can be prepared. My hair, without any apparent cause, began to turn gray when about thirteen years of age, and has been gradually increasing for more than ten years, when about two months ago I began the use of your Regenerator, and it has completely astonished all my friends to see my hair brought back to its natural color, which is almost a complete black. It is the only thing, unless it was a regular Hair Dye, that I ever knew would produce such effect. It also keeps the head so clean and free from scurf, that it makes a very nice dressing. JACOB J. On SATURDAY, the 26th day of March next, at 12 o'clock, noon,

The Real Estate of the late JOSEPH GREEN, situate on the westerly side of Richards Avenue, (formerly Auburn street,) being the homestead occupied by the deceased in his lifetime. The lot has a frontage of thirty feet on the Avenue, and a depth of eighty feet, extending back as far as the estate of Dr. Wm. R. Preston. It has upon it a convenient house, two stories high, and large woodshed. The garden has many excellent fruit trees in good bearing order. The fine situation of this estate, with its extensive prospect, the excellence of the neighborhood, and its accessible location, render this a rare opportunity for purchase, either for investment or occupancy.

Terms of sale—Cash. The purchaser will have no difficulty in obtaining any reasonable sum upon a mortgage of the premises, if desired.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion required. mh31—lmdaw

One of Hunnewell's Great Remedies.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—The basis of this truly wonderful preparation, now of such well-earned celebrity, is a freedom from every component calculated to debilitate, and by such to allow the greatest freedom of use, day or night, as the only true theory by which THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS can be efficiently cured. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, when local causes make almost all such complaints different in effect, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, WHOOPING COUGH, all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION. Testimonials from Physicians of the highest respectability, and from invalids, can be seen at my office by all interested.

He has a full stock of all kinds of concave and convex spectacles.

U. S. SERVICE MAGAZINE.—This is a monthly publication, issued by C. B. Richardson, 596 Broadway, New York. It is "devoted to the interests, descriptive of the progress, and illustrative of the honorable services, of the U. S. Army and Navy, regular and volunteer." The March number, (the 3d) is the only one which we have seen. It is under the editorial control of Prof. Henry Coppee of the University of Pennsylvania; and contains able articles covering the entire scope of War Topics; while the columns of official intelligence are full and accurate, the Departments at Washington affording every facility for the accomplishment of this object. It is moreover beautifully printed, on paper that is a joy in these days when paper of good quality is so seldom seen. Price $5. per year; single copies, 50 cents.

☞ It is stated that there is no truth in the dispatch from Patterson, N. J., that Col. McCallum had notified the locomotive builders of that place, that unless they would furnish immediately a large number of locomotives to the Government, he would seize their shops and run them on Government account. The reopening of roads in the West and Southwest makes it necessary that about one hundred and twenty locomotives shall be ready for transportation thither at the earliest practicable moment, and Col. McCallum visited the shops alluded to in Patterson, as also similar works elsewhere, for the purpose of securing such engines as are near completion. The builders acquiesced in the request of the agent of the government, and Western roads will be supplied, although necessarily to the inconvenience of the corporations for whose use the engines were originally ordered.

☞ Col. Taylor, Chief of Staff of the Headquarters of the Department of Washington, has addressed a letter to Corporal Traynor, of the First Michigan cavalry, saying: "The Major General of the Department desires me to thank you for the gallant and soldierly conduct by which you liberated yourself and comrade, while disarmed in the hands of armed guerrillas.—The same manly spirit and action shown by you, if manifested by your comrades, would rid the department of the predatory bands calling themselves Confederate soldiers."—This refers to an occurrence which took place on Wednesday. Traynor and a companion were captured near Munson's Hill, by four guerrillas, and taken into the woods. Watching their opportunity, they seized the guns of the two guards, shot both, and escaped. One of the slain was a rebel lieutenant.

☞ Senator Pomeroy repels the charge made in the Washington despatches, that he had failed to account for the Colonization funds placed in his hands. The whole amount was only $25,000, as reported. $14,000 of this, Mr. Pomeroy says, was paid over by him on Mr. Lincoln's order in favor of the Chiriqui land contract. Over $8000 were paid into the United States Treasury. Less than $3000 were left in his hands to be expended in outfits for the colonists and their incidental expenses. To these two last purposes the balance was devoted.

The Chattanooga Gazette states that between the point of Lookout Mountain and Bridgeport, down the Valley of the Tennessee, lie twenty-five miles of dead mules, in one continuous string,—the head of the first carcass lying on the "quarter deck" of the one beyond him, and so on throughout the entire distance. The Gazette says—"Just imagine a convulsion of nature, of sufficient magnitude to bury these remains as they now lie, and phaocy the phelinx of a future Agassiz, who, in his geological researches strikes either of the termini, and attempts to exhume the entire 'snake.'"

— The New York Board of Supervisors has appropriated $2,000,000 for bounties for volunteers under the last call for troops.

☞ The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of "GRAY'S PATENT MOLDED COLLAR," in another column of this paper. This collar, we are assured, is vastly superior to anything else ever designed to supersede the linen collar and is considered by those who have worn them to be much more comfortable and easy to the neck than the linen collar. It is an article destined to have a liberal sale wherever introduced.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Owing to the exigences of the times, the Dentists of Portsmouth will advance their price to 50 cents for each tooth extracted, on and after Monday, March 21st. When artificial teeth are to be inserted, one-half the price paid for extraction will be deducted from their cost.

☞ The Japan correspondent of the New York World says that, some months ago, the Japanese Government took occasion to inquire of the United States Minister whether another embassy would be favorably received in America and Europe. They propose this time to come in an unostentatious manner, and to pay their own expenses. They hope to procure a modification of the Japanese treaty.

— Gov. Buckingham, of Connecticut, not having drawn his salary for the past eighteen months, ordered the Treasurer, on Tuesday, to credit the whole sum, amounting to sixteen hundred and fifty dollars, to the State Fund for the benefit of sick and wounded soldiers.

FACTS FOR SOLDIERS.—Throughout the Indian and Crimean campaigns, the only medicines which proved themselves able to cure the worst cases of dysentery, scurvy and fever, were Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Therefore let every volunteer see that he is supplied with them. Only 30 cents per pot or box. 228

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. ty.

Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y., formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as baneful as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and, think that diseases can only be cured by the slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

If health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT to CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stom'h, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Strume, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

[Arthritis], Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The severest cases are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel are sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome, and disfiguring Scars which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the Knife or operations of any kind.

Diseases of the Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indisposition to Exertion, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Sleeplessness, Horror of Insanity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Languishing of the Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Jaundice, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, and an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES.

It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food.—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured.—It is Universal in its effects

Morning Chronicle.

LOVE WILL FIND A WAY.—A couple carried on their courtship in rather a novel manner. A young man had fallen in love with the daughter of his employer, but from certain ideas of wealth, a match was opposed by the father. The consequence was that the young man was forbidden to visit his employer's house. The old gentleman was in the habit of wearing a cloak, and the young couple made him the innocent bearer of their correspondence. The lady pinned a letter inside the lining of the old man's cloak every day, and when the father went into the counting-house and threw off his cloak, the lover took out the lady's epistle, read it; and sent the reply back in the same manner. Love and ingenuity were finally successful.

A TOUGH STORY.—The Loyal Sunrise, a paper published way down East, has an editor who gets up early enough in the morning to be able to perpetrate such a tough story as the following, before sunset. The precocious youth evidently thought it was earlier in the year, when he "prophesied" concerning "this winter"—

We are informed that a baby was recently born in St. John, having the gift of speech, and said that this winter and the next would be unusually warm, and that in three years the St. John river would be turned into blood, and then immediately died. What a pity it is that such babies do not live, as they would be wonderful men and women.

A HUGE PORKER.—Mr. Benham, of McLane Co., New York, raised a pig of the Berkshire and Byfield stock, which is thus described: "This beast looked more, when living, like a Polar bear than a pig. his live weight being 1355 pounds, and his age four years. His back was waist high to an ordinary man, and his length nearly six feet. His ham would not go into a barrel."

There is a stuffed pig-skin in New York which is said to have contained a porker of sixteen hundred pounds (1600 lbs.) weight.

A son of the Emerald Isle, once riding to market with a sack of potatoes before him, discovered that the horse was getting tired, whereupon he dismounted, put the potatoes on his shoulders and again mounted, saying, "It was better that he should carry the praties; he was fresher than the poor baste."

MARKET STREET,

PORTSMOUTH.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS,

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

By fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into use at pleasure), all the heat from the fire is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are lined with tin, and jackets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, providing warm water, and preventing much heat escaping into the room. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In cost, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a perfect Stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and Comfort are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large water Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for filling the stove and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The air is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as its popularity in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and use of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce pneumonia so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from the least amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for such a result is obvious, the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed, this occurrence, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hall, Charles H. Moulton,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 30th day of February, of leap year, perpetually, and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them to good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment and those not in need of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

BYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for sarsaparilla Syrups, &c., but all failed to afford her relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S ECZEMA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dyspepsia at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CARSLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rise quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CARSLEY.
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High Street, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1864.

FAST DAY PROCLAMATION.—From the establishment of our State Government to the present time, it has been the custom to set apart one day in each year for public confession of our individual and national sins, and prayer for divine favor.

Never has the fitness of this time-honored custom been more apparent than now.—God is chastening us for our complicity with the sins of the nation, and forcing us to realize that unexpiated guilt cannot go unpunished. I do, therefore, with an especial sense of our dependence on God, in this terrible crisis of our national affairs, set apart THURSDAY, the Seventh day of April next, as a day of public fasting, humiliation and prayer.

And I appeal to the people of New Hampshire to meet in their accustomed places of worship, realizing that the sins of the nation are but the aggregate of our individual sinfulness, and implore pardon and peace through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Given at the Council Chamber, in Concord, on the seventeenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-eighth.

JOSEPH A. GILMORE.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Sherman's official report of his recent expedition speaks in the highest terms of the 15th Army Corps.

The Louisville Journal thinks there may be something in the rumor of a conspiracy in Kentucky to turn the State over to the control of the rebels.

According to official records, our effective military force is 200,000 stronger than last year at this time.

Capt. Ferguson, who was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the frauds at Alexandria, has already refunded $70,000.

Contrabands from near Charleston report that our shells reach no farther than Broad street, and that many inhabitants are returning to the city, confident that the Yankees can never take it. 7 deserters have reached our lines. They were the repairers of the telegraph lines in Charleston harbor. They say Adm. Farragut has captured Fort Gaines with a garrison of 1100 men, and that he is now banging away at Mobile. [These reports are doubtful.]

Prisoners from Richmond assert their belief that the rebels have secretly executed officers attached to colored regiments. Several have disappeared mysteriously from the Libby Prison.

It is now stated that Gen. Grant will take command in person of the Army of the Potomac.

The rebels made a raid into Bath, West Virginia, on the 19th inst., and succeeded in capturing Senator Bechtal and Representative Wheat of the West Virginia Legislature. Gen. Sigel sent a force of cavalry in pursuit, who succeeded in taking some of them prisoners.

Hughes, Ferguson and Short are on the North side of the Cumberland with 5000 rebels.

— A six-fingered lady pianist has lately appeared in Holland.

— Capt. Dana succeeds Brig. Gen. E. W. Hinks at Concord, as Superintendent of military affairs in this State.

— All the slaves in the Border States are being enrolled for drafting under the new enrollment law. Of course this puts a quietus on slavery in those States forever.

— Peterson's Ladies' Magazine, for April, contains an engraving—"the Pets," various other illustrations, and the usual quantity of reading matter.

— A little boy, named Henry Rand, died of fright from the roar of the cannon at the Hahn inaugural concert in New Orleans, March 4th.

— The Portland Shovel Company turn out eighty-five dozen of shovels and spades per day. The Portland Desiccating Company use 2500 bushels of potatoes per week.

— The pirate Captain Coxetter and crew were not drowned at the time of the destruction of the Fannie and Jessie by the American gunboat.

— A case of starvation in the streets of London is called by a high toned English paper death "from a morbid antipathy to the workhouse."

— A citizen of New York State, who is extensively engaged in the telegraph enterprise, received on the 1st of January an annual dividend on his investment of $470,000.

— The Salem Register announces the death in that city on the 15th inst., of Capt. Wm. Story, elder brother of the late Judge Story. He was the oldest citizen of Salem, having reached the great age of ninety years.

— The Richmond Examiner says: In view of the scarcity of small bills, and the high price of nails, Smith suggests that tenpenny nails be used for dimes. This would relieve the business community, and give us a currency of solid basis. By this suggestion Smith protests that he does not desire to revive old political issues.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Governor and Council will be in session most of this week.

—— Arnold Wyman, of Manchester, has been appointed Major of the First Regiment of N. H. Cavalry.

—— Daniel E. Colby, Esq., late Adjutant General, goes to New York, into business with a brother in-law.

—— Capts. Jos. Durgin and Granville Mason, 7th N. H., have just been dismissed the service, for absence without leave.

—— The Manchester Mirror pronounces the pickerel unusually nice this year,—of a superior flavor and richness. Dr. Clarke knows.

—— The 3d and 7th N. H. regiments, in Florida, are being furnished with horses, and will hereafter be known as mounted infantry.

—— Two soldiers had an altercation in Manchester on Friday, growing out of political differences, and it resulted in one of them being shot through the fleshy part of the thigh,—not seriously injuring him.

—— The Exeter News-Letter learns that the body of an unknown man was found in some pine bushes at Epping Corner, on Sunday, 13th inst. It had apparently been there some time, and the face and part of the neck had been eaten by animals.

—— John S. Hutchins came from Athens, Ohio, to his home in Lisbon, to vote at the recent election, over one thousand miles, losing his valuable time and paying his own expenses, although he is dependent upon his monthly earnings for a living. An aged patriot, named John Shipman, whose voting commenced during the first term of the administration of Geo. Washington, came from Springfield, Vt., unattended. Both voted the Union ticket.

—— The Mirror states that Varnum H. Hill, of Manchester, enlisted for the war as a private in the Third Regiment. His education was good, and he was immediately detailed as clerk of the Quartermaster, one year, and afterwards appointed Quartermaster Sergeant. Lately he has been appointed Brigade Quartermaster with the rank of Captain, and his appointment has been confirmed by the Senate. For a man so young as he is to rise so rapidly on his merits and ability to conduct a large business systematically, is highly commendable to him. Capt. Hill has won his position by faithful performance of duty.

☞ During Gen. Sherman's expedition a wounded Federal officer crawled into the yard of a secesh planter, when the latter took an axe, and with a fiendishness scarcely credible, struck him on the head, killing him instantly. A small party of Federal soldiers coming up shortly after, the negroes told them of it, when they immediately shot the planter and placed him in the house, which they burned to the ground.

☞ William Cornell Jewett publishes in the Philadelphia Press a long account of a visit to James Buchanan at Wheatland.—Buchanan declares himself a Union man. He vindicates his administration, and is opposed to foreign intervention, but believes we can never conquer the South. He expressed an earnest desire to see the Democratic party return to power, and said the way to peace was not yet visible.

☞ The Times' dispatch says one of the officers from the Libby Prison presented Gen. Spinner of the United States Treasury with a $5 note, manufactured by officers, in imitation of "Greenbacks." It was so well executed that even Spinner was at first deceived. It was done with a pen.—Its manufacture was resorted to to obtain the necessaries of life. $170 were exchanged for rebel currency at the rate of 1500 per cent.

— A young man employed in a factory at Granby, Mass., attempted a few days since to kiss one of the girls employed there, when she suddenly raised her foot in contact with one of his knees, dislocating the joint. It is rumored that the young lady, having footed the patient, resolved to foot the surgeon's bill.

— The new five forty bonds will be issued by the first of April. The interest is payable semi-annually in coin at five per cent., and the principal is also redeemable in coin after five years and not more than twenty-five years, at the option of the Government. So says a correspondent of the Boston Herald.

— A flood at Windsor, Canada, last Friday night, caused great havoc. Buildings were swept away, cattle drowned, flour made into paste, salt made into brine, sugar dissolved, an iron bridge badly twisted, and a great many virtuous inhabitants nearly frightened out of their wits at such "goings-on" in the middle of the night.

— The New York papers mention that a committee was sent to Albany a few weeks since with $15,000, raised by the retail dealers of New York, for the purpose of defeating a certain bill, and that the committee finally decided to pocket the money themselves, rather than to corrupt the legislators.

WHY HAVE YOU NOT INSURED YOUR LIFE?

Is a question which may be asked of all those who have a family dependent upon them for support. Do you reflect upon the fate of your wife and children in case you should be suddenly snatched away? Have you no thought for the trials, privations, misery that your loss would entail upon them? Can you calmly view the possibility of their being left destitute on the cold charity of the world, dependent upon strangers for a miserable pittance, or sunk through want and despair to the lowest stage of human wretchedness, or more fearful still, vice and crime? Can you contemplate this, and not make it the one sole object of your life to place them beyond the reach of such unhappy possibilities? Will you not cheerfully debar yourself from some trifling gratification? Nay, will you not even make large sacrifices rather than have such a picture constantly before you? If you are not thoroughly selfish and uncaring for those around you, you will at once effect an Assurance to provide for them; and then you will feel the delight experienced by every honest man when he has fulfilled a duty. You will lie down on your pillow with a proud feeling that you have done your best for your family, and, in the event of illness, your mind will not be tormented by anxiety as to their fate, but will be cheered by the thought that they will not be left wholly destitute.

Alas! we do not seriously apply these things to ourselves, or there would be no delay in Assuring. We see daily our fellow men carried to their last resting places; we are absent for a time, from some friends and acquaintances, and on inquiring for them are told, perhaps, that they are dead; this information, coming at a time when we expect to see them alive and well, naturally startles us; we experience a sad, choking sensation, by death being brought so near to us, and we can hardly understand the bereavement; we pause, perhaps, for a moment, to think of the uncertainties of human life, but we do not include ourselves as coming within their range. We cannot, in our health and strength, believe that death can be otherwise than afar off; for, whilst we acknowledge the power he has over others, we are slow to admit he has the same power over ourselves.

Why is this? are we not mortal? Is not our thread of life as brittle as their's whose death we have seen recorded? Why then go on with our senses deadened to the truth? Why reject the evidence daily offered to us, that, whilst boasting in our strength of the morrow, a few short hours may see that strength departed from us? Pause, then, ere it be too late; whilst you have health and strength do not neglect a duty that you cannot perform should you be stretched on a bed of sickness—you can not assure then, therefore do it at once.

Can a worse picture be conceived than that of a man stricken down by a lingering illness, feeling the cold hand of death approaching him by gradual yet certain steps, and his last sands of life embittered by the thought that he is leaving a wife and children to poverty? As the wife and mother tends his couch with that anxious loving care which only women can bestow, each glance of her pale face and tearful eye causes him anguish and regret; each cause of his children is as it were a reproach to him; and that love and affection, which would otherwise brighten and cheer him perhaps to recovery, only hastens his end. Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, says, "Still, still, the victim of affliction. Alas! I began to feel the worst, Burns' poor widow and half a dozen of his dear little ones helpless orphans; there I am as weak as a woman's tear—enough of this, 'tis half my disease."

Contrast this mental anxiety in the midst of bodily suffering with the serenity and peace of mind of him who, having effected a Life Assurance, has on his bed of sickness no anxiety for the welfare of his family; the presence of his wife and little ones in his sick-room brings with it no reproach, and the peace of mind thus induced has often served to mitigate the poignancy of his suffering and assist the power of medicine. On the other hand, should death be the result of his illness, no agonizing thoughts of the future of his dear ones distract his mind, keeping it as it were hovering between earth and heaven. With the certainty of their being provided for, he can more fully give his mind to those consolations that will enable him to pass away in hopes of a better state.

Wives and mothers should use their influence to induce their husbands to assure; to them the question is all-important. Some women have been known to persuade their husbands not to assure, believing that if they did so it would tend to shorten life; were they to be told that Life Assurance, on the contrary, tends to prolong it, they might treat the assertion as absurd, and yet nothing is more reasonable; experience has proved it to be true; the mind at ease exercises, there is no doubt, the greatest influence upon the health of the body, and this may be proved by the statistics relating to annuitants and those who have a sure provision for the remainder of their days.

The influence of women is powerful, and it is a duty she owes to her husband, her children, and herself, to use that influence on behalf of Life Assurance. Mothers, in your love for your little ones, (and what can equal a mother's love?) in your anxiety to provide against any harm that may befall them do you ever think of the dangers and trials to which they may be exposed, should they be deprived of him who, had he been spared, would have provided for their support during their tender youth? If you do, then urge your husbands to assure, and do not rest until you see your children's future made safe.

There are many who say, they will assure, but they would rather wait a few months first. How baneful are the effects of procrastination! When we know not what a day or an hour may bring forth, shall we jeopardize the welfare of those around us by our willful delay? shall we continually say to-morrow, and to morrow, until it never comes?—N. Y. Independent.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is always an EVIDENCE OF PRUDENT FORETHOUGHT; no man with a dependent family is FREE FROM REPROACH if not insured."—LORD LYNDHURST, late Lord Chancellor of England.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is the CHEAPEST AND SAFEST mode of making a CERTAIN PROVISION FOR ONE'S FAMILY. Many a widow and orphan have had great reason to be grateful that the advantage of LIFE ASSURANCE was understood and embraced by the husband and father."—REV. FRANKLIN, 1799

☞ The Portland Press states that Rev. Horatio Stebbins, who for ten years past has been pastor of the First Parish Church in that city, is about to leave them, although he has recently declined several calls, one within a few weeks to go to Springfield, Mass. After preaching one more Sabbath in Portland, he will leave for New York, where for a time he will supply the pulpit of Dr. Bellows, who has gone to California on business connected with the Sanitary Commission. In a few months Mr. Stebbins will follow him, and in all probability will take charge of the church and society of the late lamented Rev. T. Starr King. The Press adds:

The loss of Mr. Stebbins will be felt not only by his own parish, but by all our citizens of every denomination. Connected as he has been with all the benevolent movements in our city, active and energetic in the great cause of Liberty and the Union, and devoting time, talents and money, to every thing that would relieve the suffering of our soldiers in the field, he will be missed from among us, and his place cannot easily be filled.

☞ A company of capitalists in Boston are now erecting buildings in South Boston for the extensive manufacture of plate, window and other glass on a plan new here, and the buildings are nearly completed. They have made engagements with nearly four hundred workmen in England, who are expected to arrive here in a few days. The sand to be used in the manufacture of the glass is to be brought from Berkshire county. It is said to be the best in the world, and fully equal to the production of plate glass rivalling the French.

A HINT TO FARMERS.—There are three things easily raised and harvested, for which the farmers may depend upon it there will be an enormous demand and high prices paid during the war. We refer to potatoes, beans and onions. The farmers could not do a better thing for themselves and their country than to plant these vegetables very extensively. If it appears, as the spring advances, that the wheat crop is likely to be short, and that fruit will be scarce, onions, potatoes and beans must be had to fill the vacuum.

DR. TEBBETTS'
PHYSIOLOGICAL
HAIR REGENERATOR
—AND—
UNIVERSAL HAIR RESTORER.
ITS MODUS OPERANDI.
Immediately beneath the scalp there are very small glands, or, more commonly Roots of the hair. It is from these Glands that every hair of the head is formed and secreted. As long as the scalp is free from disease, these bodies also remain healthy, and the hair keeps its natural appearance and color. But when humors and other diseases affect the scalp, these glands become involved in the disease, and the hair gradually turns gray, dry and brittle. Sooner or later the hair begins to fall off, and in many cases, if not arrested, will produce a complete baldness of the scalp.
To remedy this pathological condition of the glands and create a new and healthy action, the Physiological Hair Regenerator has proved a perfect success—inasmuch as it is the only preparation yet known that can boast of such wonderful results.
Unlike thousands of other articles in the market, containing Silver, Lime, Lead, Litharge, Iodine, Sulphur, &c., and producing only a sort of yellow or flax color, it will, if properly applied, restore the hair to its former appearance and beauty.
The Physiological Hair Regenerator is warranted in all cases to produce the following results:
1. It is not a Dye and will not stain a single particle. It contains no coloring matter whatever, and is not the least injurious in its application.
2. It will certainly RESTORE the hair from a gray to a beautiful Black, Brown, Auburn, or whatever might have been its original color.
3. It will effectually prevent the hair from falling off, remove all heat, inflammation and Dandruff from the scalp, keeping the head clean and cool, and the hair soft, glossy and of a silky appearance.
4. It will PROMOTE a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, except in extreme cases of old age and where the glands have become disorganized.
5. It will cure the most inveterate itching and neuralgia of the scalp, and being highly perfumed, it affords a most delightful article for the toilet.
We have a great abundance of testimony to prove beyond a doubt all that we claim for the Regenerator; and it is positively certain that in a very short time it will have a world wide reputation.
HOME TESTIMONY.
BEDFORD, N. H., Dec. 17, 1863.
Messrs. Tebbetts Brothers—The information you induced me to try on my hair, about six weeks ago, has had a wonderful effect. My hair was then almost white and now it is almost black. My daughter has also tried it on her hair, which was fast falling off on account of a severe attack of the diphteria; it stopped it immediately on its application. My wife has also been trying it for baldness on top of her head, and finds that a new growth of hair is rapidly starting. We have only used one bottle, and I think one more will fix our heads up in good shape. J. C. CUTLER.
MANCHESTER, Dec. 20, 1863.
Gents—Unless I am very much mistaken, your Hair Regenerator is destined, ere long, to work a complete revolution with all other Hair Preparations. It not only restores the hair to its natural color and keeps the head free from Dandruff, but it is the most beautiful article that can be prepared. My hair, without any apparent cause, began to turn gray when about thirteen years of age, and had been gradually increasing for more than ten years, when about two months ago I began the use of your Regenerator, and it has completely astonished all my friends to see my hair brought back to its natural color, which is almost a complete black. It is the only thing, unless it was a regular Hair Dye, that I ever knew would produce such effect. It also keeps the head clean and free from scurf, that it makes a very nice dressing. JACOB J. ABBOTT

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies oft-n act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, for the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. mh21—lndaw

One of Hunnewell's Great Remedies.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—The basis of this truly wonderful preparation, now of such world-wide celebrity, is a freedom from every component calculated to debilitate, and by such to allow the greatest freedom of use, day or night, as the only free from all injurious and IRRITATING and LUNG COMPLAINTS can be effectually cured. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, when local causes usually almost all such complaints different in effect, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, WHOOPING COUGH, all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION. Testimonials from Physicians of the highest respectability, and from invalids, can be seen at my office by all interested.

BE TEMPERATE IN ALL THINGS.—This signifies, be temperate in the use of all things useful and harmless,—avoid entirely the use of intoxicating liquors. If you are subject to temptation in that fatal particular, flee the tempter. "Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it and pass away." Embrace every opportunity for strengthening your power of resistance. Don't sneer at temperance lectures and call them "stale." Go and hear from the lips of every apostle who bears the saving message. If the apostle be a young girl who has crossed wide seas to help your weakness, show your thankfulness by lending a ready ear and an open hand. We did not look for aid from that Island, but we are glad that any of her children see our slavery and will use their good endeavors to break the chains. A few days ago I saw in the house of Col. Jackson a slave gag. It was made of rough, cold iron. A heavy bar passed round the head, locking at the side. Welded to that was another piece of iron, so adjusted as to fit securely about the lips, cheeks and chin, while still another not very delicate piece was ingeniously contrived to enter the mouth and rest upon the tongue. To complete the torture, goads were attached to the sides, to pierce the neck and shoulders, if the wearer turned his head to the right or to the left. It made my blood leap—until I remembered that God and his angels are snapping these locks, and leaving such implements of torture to rust where they fall. There are white slaves all about us, wearing the yoke of an equally cruel monster—sold body and soul to inebriation. An angel of mercy will help you break these fetters of degrading habit, if you will avail yourselves of her kindly ministrations. Go and hear her at the Temple this evening, and see to it that she does not plead with you in vain. A. J. P.

☞ There was considerable disturbance near the foot of Daniel street between four and five o'clock on Sunday afternoon, occasioned, so far as we can ascertain, by an unprovoked and most unjustifiable attack by some Irishmen on a small party of Contrabands. The negroes were quietly walking down the street, to take their boat in order to cross the river, when they were met by some Irishmen, who began to pour forth a torrent of abuse and insults upon them. Instead of resenting it, the negroes turned off from the sidewalk, and walking around their assailants, continued on their way. The Irishmen then made an assault on them, with stones, etc., and the negroes naturally turned and defended themselves. They had by that time nearly reached the wharf at which their boat lay, and some of them provided themselves with boat-hooks, with which they made a raid on the Irishmen, the number of the latter having meanwhile greatly increased. The Irish soon found it disadvantageous and profitless thus to "carry the war into Africa," for the negroes held their own stoutly, and, probably, to rum should be awarded the entire credit of so mean an act. The appearance of the Police put an end to the fight.

POLICE COURT, Monday — Odell, J.—Two young men were arraigned for fast driving in the streets on Sunday night, were each fined $5 and half the costs, taxed at $5.74, which they paid.

☞ We learn that fifty re enlisted Veterans have already been accepted on the quota of this city under the last call. Portsmouth, with its Navy enlistments credited to it, will be pretty effectually out of the draft.

☞ Hon. Peter Sanborn, State Treasurer, was in town on Monday.

☞ The N. Y. Army and Navy Journal states that the orders of Acting Chief Engineer George T. Hebard, recently appointed and ordered to the U. S. iron-clad Agamenticus, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, have been revoked and he has been ordered to the Proteus.

Dr. Howard M. Randlett, of Stratham, has been appointed an Acting Assistant Surgeon, and ordered to the Ohio.

Editors of the Chronicle:—Will you please insert the following in your next edition:

A GOOD REPUBLICAN SHOT.—Last Wednesday morning a noted wild-fowl shooter, living in the town of Greenland, killed at two shots in Great Bay four wild geese, and on the following morning five more at one shot. This will be pretty hard for Durham or Newington to beat,—nine geese at three shots. X.

SOMETHING WORTH SEEING.—The celebrated ventriloquist, Harrington of Boston, is to appear before our citizens for the farewell time on Friday and Saturday evenings next. His reputation, extending over quarter of a century, is beyond cavil, and he is everywhere conceded to give a truly meritorious and acceptable entertainment. See advertisement.

THOMAS STARR KING.

The great work laid upon his two-score years
Is done, and well done. If we drop our tears
Who loved him as few men were ever loved,
We mourn no blighted hope nor broken plan
With him whose life stands rounded and approv'd
In the full growth and stature of a man.
Mingle, O bells, along the Western slope,
With your deep toll a sound of faith and hope!
Wave cheerily still, O banner, half-way down,
From thousand-masted bay and steepled town!
Let the strong organ with its loftiest swell
Lift the proud sorrow of the land, and tell
That the brave sower saw his ripened grain
O East and West, O morn and sunset twain
No more forever!—has he lived in vain
Who, priest of Freedom, made ye one, and told
Your bridal service from his lips of gold?
—[John G. Whittier.

A cute Yankee lawyer, pleading for a burglar against whom the case was clear, contended that as he had been caught before he had introduced no more of his person than the upper part into the house in question asked: "Can a man be said to enter a house, when only one half of his body was in and the other half out?" "I shall leave the whole matter to the jury. They must judge of the law and the facts as proved," replied the judge. The jury brought in a verdict of "guilty," as to one-half of the body from the waist up, and not guilty as to the other half. The judge sentenced the guilty half to two years imprisonment, leaving it to the prisoner's option to have the "not guilty" half cut off or take it along with him.

The first organ made in America, was constructed in Beacon street, Boston, by Edward Bromfield, Jr., the son of an affluent merchant. He evinced a genius for mechanics, and made for his amusement musical and optical instruments of great power. He was graduated at Harvard College in 1742, and died at the age of 23 years—1745. His contemporaries state that his organ had two banks of keys and several hundred pipes, and that its workmanship exceeded anything of the kind which had been imported from Europe. The first organ set up in a church in New England was sent out for the King's Chapel in Boston.

FACTS FOR SOLDIERS.—Throughout the Indian and Crimean campaigns, the only medicines which proved themselves able to care the worst cases of dysentery, scurvy and fever, were Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Constitution Life Syrup,

COMPOSED OF
IODIDE of POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y. formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospital, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as heroic as ever confronted any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating in an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Scrofula.

Struma, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

(Arthritis), Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or virulent, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains, which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup,

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both sexes, and render, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy of the stomach or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves—Fainting, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Lassitude of the Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Spine, no remedy has ever proved the equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very annoying to the young, wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food.—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured.—It is Universal in its effects

PUNISHMENT on board H. B. M. sloop-of-war Ariel, Joseph Oliver, Esq., Commander, July 1807,—from one who knows whereof he speaks.

At 11:30 A. M., all hands were called to witness punishment.

William Males, a little old man, Captain of the Waist, was brought to the gangway.

Capt. Oliver—"Males, your charge is neglect of duty and disobedience of orders.—Strip, sir."

Males—"Capt. Oliver, was you to know that I have been considered the best man in His Majesty's service, you would not punish me. I served in the Swiftsure at the Battle of the Nile, under Capt. Halowell, and on board the Colossus at the battle of Trafalgar, under Capt. Morris, and was considered the best man on board those ships."

Capt. Oliver—"To whom can you refer for this character?"

Males—"To Jack Penrose, sir, chief boatswain's mate." Jack Penrose was called.

Capt. Oliver—"Penrose, can you vouch for the character of Males?" "Sir," replied Penrose, "he had no character at all! He is not worth a d——n! All the duty he was ever called upon to perform be board the Swiftsure and Colossus was to take his station in the bow of the launch, when we went cutting out, to keep the shot off from good men. All the duty he did during the battle of Trafalgar, on board the Colossus, was to take care of the Captain's pigs after the pig sty was shot away."

Males—"Why, Jack Penrose, how can you give me such a character?"

"Now, Capt. Oliver," replied Males, "I will tell you why Jack Penrose has given me this character. Some few days since I had been hard at work cleaning out and whitewashing the pig sty, and was very much tired and fagged. At supper, who should call at my mess but Jack Penrose. He said—'Males, I want you to give me your grog to-night.' I said—'Penrose, I have been hard at work cleaning out the pig sty, and am very tired: I cannot part with my grog to-night.' Penrose replied—'Males, you are a doomed man; I will have you flogged in less than a week.' Now, Capt. Oliver, old Holmes, the Marine, is also an enemy of mine, and has threatened to get me flogged. We served together on board the Swiftsure at the battle of the Nile, and he was considered by Capt. Halowell, and all the officers, to be the greatest liar in his Majesty's service. On one occasion he was caught robbing No. 12 mess of their bread-bag. Jack Freeman saw him do it, and gave him such a dig in the eye as to black it out. Now, Capt. Oliver, old Holmes has got but one eye, and he says Capt. Halowell's switch picked it out, which is a lie. Jack Freeman knocked it out. Capt. Oliver, old Holmes is the greatest liar in his Majesty's service. Old Hughes was sentry at your cabin door when the pigs got into your cabin. He left the cabin door open for the pigs to go in, for no other purpose than to get me flogged.—Capt. Oliver, old Holmes is the greatest liar in his Majesty's service," rejoined Males.

Capt. Oliver—"Considering, Males, that you are the best man in his Majesty's service, I will let you off this time, but beware the pigs do not find their way into my cabin again."

"Thank you, Capt. Oliver," replied Males, "but old Holmes and Jack Penrose are the greatest liars in his Majesty's service."

The order was given to pipe down and pipe to dinner.

A 68-pounder gun recently burst at the breech, at its trial in the Woolwich arsenal in England, and was shattered to pieces. This was occasioned by a bar of wrought iron, apparently weighing about 8 or 10 pounds, which had fallen into the casting metal, and it was found embedded in one of the fragments.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites) in females where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diaphoretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as anally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in connection with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, pacifying and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and acid urine, intolerable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION, all diseases of the urinary organs are speedily cured, and at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and healthy action.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

LUNT,

MARKET STREET,

PORTSMOUTH.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK,

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS,

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single load of wood, or coal or wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an open on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes.

The doors are lined with iron, and jacket are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted.

A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT Stove, and we think it surpasses all others in Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and dispatch are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meat is prevented from ascending into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm and moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, go out into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 25 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

The Chronicle.

Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
To world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Free truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Let th's right, though every law fall.!"

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party. Party, it is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS"—This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme LAW of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.—Constitution U. S.

☞ The New York Times, in an article on "Hotels versus Homes," says the growing preference for hotel life, for the mere purpose of "avoiding trouble," or, in other words, of shirking every duty in life but that of eating and drinking, and wearing fine clothes, is one of the curses of New York, and is doing a serious injury to the whole community. There can be nothing worse for women than an idle life in a hotel, without a single serious object for their thoughts, and without a single duty to perform that affords the slightest amount of exercise for either mind or body. There can be nothing worse for children than to grow up without the knowledge of what a home is, without any of its influences or associations, and without any more endearing and elevating remembrances of boyhood or girlhood, than those of hotel "feeds," and the noise and glare, and heat, and dirt of hotel corridors and parlors, and the folly and frivolity, and vulgarity of the promiscuous crowd that throng them.

☞ A curious fact has just been discovered in connection with the most celebrated of French writers. When Voltaire died, his remains, with the exception of his heart, were buried in the Pantheon, and his heart he left by will to the Villette family, by whom it was deposited in their chateau.—Recently the Marquis de Villette, wishing to sell his estate, offered the relic to the Emperor. His Majesty received it, but was at a loss to know what to do with it.—The Pantheon had become since Voltaire's time a Christian church, and it was scarcely to be expected that the Archbishop of Paris would consent to the burial of any portion of the remains of the most bitter opponent of Christianity since the days of Celsus and Porphyry. However, there was no harm in asking, and so the Archbishop was consulted. He replied that there was a common belief that Voltaire's tomb was empty, and that it would be well to ascertain if this were so before taking any further steps. An examination was made, and the tomb was discovered to be empty, and no one knows what has become of the prophet of the Revolution.

A NEW BUSINESS.—The Portland Argus says there are parties in Maine looking up pitch pine stumps. No matter if the trees were cut 25 years ago, they will take up and remove the stumps for them. We do not believe many of our readers can guess what use they make of them. They have a process for extracting the turpentine—getting from a cord of stumps 25 gallons of the spirits of turpentine, which at present high prices pays well. This is practically running inventive genius into the ground. Parties are now in the State visiting pine plains and selecting places for operating. With patent machines they readily take up the stumps.

☞ A soldier in a communication to the Washington Chronicle, says:—"My heart is often pained to see to what a fearful extent whiskey predominates among our officers and men. Many hundreds, yea thousands of our young men who were temperate at home, have been reduced by the monster, rum, which is furnished freely to them by sutlers and purveyors, despite the restriction placed upon them by the War Department. How will the parents, the loved ones of those fallen their sons and brothers return to them with their constitution, once robust and healthy, now undermined—not by the hardships and privations of camp life, but by the accursed evil of rum drinking."

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patents Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,) 76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by return of the ONE Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unexcelled by, any by which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE THAN THE AGENCY; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can, of employing a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted; and that is now pending, such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Magruder has found the discipline in his rebel army to be so lax that he has issued an order urging upon his officers and men the imperative necessity of taking care of their bayonets, and also calling upon the officers to use their weapons at all hazards against those who attempt to desert, and any who excite mutiny.

Gen. Grant, it is said, will review the Army of the Potomac on Thursday, and the President, Secretary of War, and Gen. Halleck will be present.

The N. Y. World's dispatch states that Gen. Grant has directed that recruiting for cavalry regiments shall cease, and that an order will shortly be issued to mount infantry to supply the deficiency in the army, he considering that branch of the service more efficient than cavalry organizations.

The N. Y. Herald says Lee is daily receiving accessions to his forces, and is preparing for an early movement. His cavalry is smaller than last year, but as efficient as then, having received fresh horses.

The rebels are repairing the damage in Mississippi, done by the recent expeditions.

It is stated that Adm. Farragut has asked for more vessels, and that the Brooklyn, the double turreted Monitor Onandaga, and the Canonicus, Tecumseh and Sassacus are to be sent to him immediately.

Adm. Porter left Vicksburg on the 12th with a large number of transports and gunboats.

A military movement from Cairo is contemplated, it is said.

A New Orleans letter says Gen. Banks took the field Mar. 8. The force is said to be 13,000 cavalry and 24 light guns under Gen. Lee. They would sweep across the country, and thence into Texas.

Advices from Arkansas say there is a steady return of citizens to their allegiance; and that the rebel Gen. Albert Pike has made overtures for an amnesty,—slightly cool in that erratic individual it is, too.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— It is intimated that Ex-President is not so much of a candidate for the U. S. Senate from this State as he was.

—— Maj Gen. John G. Foster, the last survivor of six brothers and sisters, is visiting his mother and old friends in Nashua, where he quietly arrived on the 19th instant.

—— The covered railroad bridge, 70 feet long, over Pennichuck river, in Nashua, was burnt on Monday afternoon. Travel was not materially impeded.

—— Dr. William A. Tracy, formerly Surgeon of the 6th N. H. regiment for sixteen months, until March, 1863, (when he resigned on account of ill health, which finally terminated in consumption,) although he again received an appointment as Surgeon of Volunteers from the President last December, died very suddenly from hemorrhage of the lungs, at his residence in Nashua, 15th instant, aged thirty-eight years. The Boston Journal says that he enjoyed an enviable reputation in the army and at home, as a courteous gentleman and skillful, faithful physician.

THE BURDEN OF THE WAR.—The President spoke at the Sanitary Fair in Washington a few nights ago, and among other things uttered the following: "This war falls heavily upon all classes of the people, but the most so upon the soldiers. 'All that a man hath will he give for his life,' and though all have contributed of their substance, yet the soldier perils and often yields up his life for his country's cause."

Abraham Lincoln must be beaten at all hazards, totally, overwhelmingly beaten.—Gen. McClellan was our first choice. We were determined to exercise the influence of our paper in favor of Gen. McClellan, but, in order to beat Abraham Lincoln, McClellan is not strong enough in the West. Influential leaders of the Democratic party argue: If Fremont shall stand up against Lincoln, we shall, perhaps, be able, by cutting through between both, to effect the election of a Democrat of our color, who will recognize the South. Abraham Lincoln must be beaten at all hazards. This is the leading thought to the steps we have taken to-day.

COTTON SPECULATORS.—It is currently reported in New Orleans that the military operations now going on in Louisiana will result in the shipment of large quantities of cotton to New Orleans, and so sanguine were the cotton speculators that an offer of $2500 was made for the privilege of leaving New Orleans as an authorized correspondent of a Northern paper.

A housemaid the other evening slipped from a chair upon which she was temporarily standing, and fell head foremost into a barrel of flour. To show the effects of mental agony, we will state that her hair became white in a single night.—Bangor Whig.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?—The Dover Gazette, edited by a gentleman whose membership in the Democratic party is unquestioned, speaking of the defeat in the late election, gives this advice to the party:—

If, by the rash and untenable position of a few, desiring to be leaders in the democratic party, we have been held up to the people in a false light, as unwilling to suppress the rebellion from sympathy with secession, let us, at once, dissipate such erroneous notions, by sending to the rear such misguided friends, and place in the front truer and wiser soldiers. There is no mistaking the sentiments of the Democracy among civilians, or in the army. They are resolutely bent upon suppressing armed rebellion, as the only and earliest method of securing peace, and restoring the Government to its former condition and power.

The reader will please to observe that "the Democracy" is one thing, and the "Democratic party" quite another thing,—very different. The democracy, in the army and elsewhere, resolutely aim to suppress rebellion, as the only road to peace, while the few [copperhead] members and would-be "leaders of the democratic party" in New Hampshire, have held them up in the false light of sympathy with secession! Remember the Dover Gazette says this.

Yet its editor has seen it stated, and never denied, that Charleston was illuminated for joy when Seymour was chosen Governor of New York;—and Richmond might have had a thanksgiving instead of a fast if New Hampshire had elected Mr. Harrington.

Leaving this, we copy a few lines more of the advice to the democratic party of New Hampshire.

"Let us learn (says the Dover Gazette) to be clear and explicit in the enunciation of our principles, not only as laid down in our platform, but let us be sure that we have no men to address us who advocate the doctrine of the right of secession, and are in sympathy with the principles upon which the rebels base their cause. * * * * There were among the able and true men who addressed the people during the last canvass, a few who if they did not so openly proclaim it in their speeches, were well known advocates at home of secession, and were in favor of peace on any terms—peace even at the expense of the Union, the Constitution and a common country."

This, coming from that quarter, is very plain talk: and among this few, were nearly all the would-be leaders of that party here. Their organ has held this copperhead ground all the time, and now clamors for all the party to come upon it, with these leaders, as the only ground of safety or success.

The Dover Gazette says, on the other hand, by way of improvement:—

The Democracy anxiously and earnestly desire peace, but not upon such terms.

If this be true, then the loyal or union democracy must cut loose from the copperhead leaders. Otherwise, if they stay among their followers, all must be counted together, and share the same fate. They may, probably, separate. U. T.

☞ Mr. E. Merriam, the well known meteorologist, died on Saturday evening, at his residence in Brooklyn, N. Y., of dropsy of the heart. Mr. Merriam was born in Concord, Mass., and was in the 80th year of his age at the time of his death. From his earliest childhood, it is said he had exhibited a taste for scientific pursuits, and devoted his attention more particularly to meteorological researches, and the collection of facts relating thereto. His records of the latter branch of his studies are very full, and extend even to the day of his death. He originated the idea, founded upon his own private observations, of cycles of atmospherical phenomena. He was a very amiable, charitable man and whatever private fortune he may have possessed at any time was somewhat lavishly expended with the object of assisting those in distress. And consequently after a long life of benevolence to others, he leaves to his family little else than a good name.

☞ The Portland Courier, in speaking of Rev. Mr. Stebbins' early departure for California, as successor of Rev. T. Starr King, says:

Messrs Stebbins and King were intimate and fast friends, and when the latter went to California, the former agreed to supply his place whenever it should be vacated.—It was Mr. King's urgent request that Mr. Stebbins should do so, and now he feels it to be an imperative duty to comply with it. We believe no man could be sent to supply Mr. King's place, better qualified than Mr. Stebbins. His age, health, address, eloquence, culture, impulses—all admirably fit him for the work, and he will enter upon it with a spirit of great activity and perseverance, which has always characterized his work in our city. The field of his labors will be enlarged and his means of doing good increased. Since his residence in our city he has been constantly gaining in intellectual strength, and no doubt he will continue to grow in knowledge and power for many years on the golden sands of the Pacific shore. We hope it will be so, and that a voice will come from that distant and enterprising land, assuring us of his great popularity and usefulness among our brothers on the other side of the continent.

—Mrs. Hill, wife of Rev. Dr. Thomas Hill, President of Harvard College, died at Cambridge on Saturday. She was the daughter of the late Josiah Bellows, of Walpole, N. H.

THE SASSACUS.—A correspondent of the Portland Press, writing under date of Norfolk, Va., Mar. 9, from the U. S. steamer Sassacus, gives the following account of the speed, &c., attained by that steamer, which, it will be remembered, was built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard:—

I infer that many of your readers have noticed the recent discussions upon the efficiency of the Navy, raised by Mr. Dickenson of N. Y., and responded to by Secretary Welles, in his challenge to run the U. S. steamer Eutaw "against the field," and that a few facts relating to the successful operations of this vessel, similar in all respects to the one quoted, may serve to disabuse the minds of such as have been prejudiced by the repeated attacks upon the Department and its vessels. That we have had many vessels of inferior speed, is undoubtedly true, and it ought to surprise no one acquainted with the condition of the Navy at the outbreak of the rebellion. It was found necessary to enlarge our naval force, almost instantaneously, to an unthought of extent. * * * * Our first batch of screw gunboats were all that we expected; too small to carry the machinery necessary for great speed, they have proved well fitted to the service for which they were built and have borne gallant testimony to their efficiency in nearly all the inland waters of the country.

The twelve sidewheel steamers soon after put afloat, were also constructed under all the disadvantages of haste, and a constant demand for this immediate service, and it is not surprising that the first efforts of some of them should have fallen short of the anticipations of the Department. They were an entirely new class of vessels, adapted expressly for use in shoal water and in narrow rivers and lagoons, depending more upon their facility of manœuvering, and their ability to steam forward or backward at will, than upon their speed.—Still many of them could make thirteen to fourteen knots per hour, and at least one of them, to which I was for a time attached, even more than that, which is certainly very good steaming for vessels not built wholly with a view to speed.

The twenty-seven new double-ended side wheel steamers, of which the Sassacus was the first put in commission, were built upon the same principle, though increased considerably in size, and furnished with much more powerful engines than their predecessors, and it was confidently expected by the Department that they would be able to cope with the fastest vessels afloat. Much interest was accordingly felt when our vessel was first subjected to a practical test, by sending us to sea on the 5th October last for a trial trip. Our machinery being entirely new, demanded the most watchful care during this experimental cruise, it being at that time in charge of the workmen who constructed it, and one of them who was intrusted with the care of oiling the parts most exposed to friction, being overcome by sea-sickness, neglected his duty and allowed the crank pin to become very much heated, which with incidental difficulties, prevented a fair trial of the maximum powers of the ship. We were enabled, however, to fully test her qualities as a "sea boat" during a severe S E gale, and found her all we had hoped; being very dry, and steaming against wind and sea with ease.

On our return we anchored near Boston Light in the evening of the 9th, and on the following morning on our trip up the harbor, we attained, notwithstanding the trouble with our engine, a speed averaging from 15.2 to 15.7 miles to the hour, which for a new vessel just returned from a severe trial of her powers of endurance was highly satisfactory to all concerned. Being soon after ordered to New York, and thence to Washington, we steamed up the Potomac river on the 19th Nov., and by actual observation, from point to point on the land, proved that we were travelling at a rate exceeding 16 2-3 miles an hour, with neither tide or current in our favor, which, though not so large a figure as it is customary to claim in newspaper reports, will bear a favorable comparison, I think, with the actual performance of the fastest sea-going steamers afloat.

On the 25th January last, we left Fortress Monroe for a station where our qualifications both as a "sea boat" and a "chaser" would be subjected to a thorough test. Cruising off shore, on an exposed portion of the coast, we had ample opportunity to try her staunchness and general behavior at sea, which during the worst weather was all that could be desired. At 9.5 A. M., on the 21st, we started in chase of a large side wheel steamer, about 9 miles distant, standing to the northward, and continued to gain on her in spite of a heavy sea and a strong gale from N E which gave a great advantage to the other vessel, she being a large sea-going steamer built expressly for ocean cruising. At 4:30 P. M., it being then quite foggy, we had closed up within a mile and a half, and ascertained by signal that we had been chasing U. S. steamer Keystone, one of the fastest vessels purchased by the Government, having gained on her all but a mile and a half, proving us capable to overhaul her with ease, under circumstances all against us.

This, in connection with the capture and destruction of the "Wild Dayrell" two days later, gave us the most implicit confidence in the capabilities of our Steamer, and when on the morn of February 4th at 7:45, we sighted a steamer burning the suspicious "black smoke," so grateful to the eyes of a Blockader, we started in the full expectation of capturing the stranger. She was about 12 miles distant, when we headed for her, running from us at full speed in a Northerly direction. At 1 15 P. M. we were within a mile of her, when she ran on shore, fired and abandoned by her crew in such haste that one of the boats was capsized, and the greater part of her crew were drowned. On boarding the steamer, she proved to be the Nutfield of London, new and built expressly for the trade, this being her first attempt at forcing the blockade.—She was reported one of the fastest vessels in the business, and the rapidity with which we gained on her would have resulted in her capture at last with half an hour more of sea room, totally exploding the idea that our Men of War can capture these fast vessels only by stratagem or surprise, for in this case it was a fair open trial of speed against speed, and everything possible was done by the crew of the Nutfield to increase the distance between us, by throwing over cargo, and burning oil, and other substances to obtain increased steam. We were too much for her, proving not only our superiority in speed, but also in endurance; for while we could have kept up to the same rate all day, her engines bore conclusive evidence of the extraordinary strain to which they had been subjected, and which could not possibly have been continued for any length of time. Her battered hulk now lies on the break of North Carolina, one of the many similar monuments, which bear a silence but convincing testimony to the vigilance and efficiency of the Blockade.

Our people have, I think, generally underrated the capabilities of our Navy, and have been loth to give Secretary Welles the credit his immense labors so richly deserve. It has become almost a custom to complain of him and the service as decidedly slow, but I am confident that any one who will carefully examine the subject will find that he has made as great a mistake in his estimate of the man, as have the world at large, in respect to his ships. The facts I have given concerning one vessel, which will soon have 26 sisters with her on the ocean, may prove of some interest to those disposed to judge impartially, and perhaps have some slight influence in increasing their confidence in the efficiency and fleetness of our vessels of War. I am sir very truly yours, H.

WHY HAVE YOU NOT INSURED YOUR LIFE?

Is a question which may be asked of all those who have a family dependent upon them for support. Do you reflect upon the fate of your wife and children in case you should be suddenly snatched away? Have you no thought for the trials, privations, misery that your loss would entail upon them? Can you calmly view the possibility of their being left destitute on the cold charity of the world, dependent upon strangers for a miserable pittance, or sunk through want and despair to the lowest stage of human wretchedness, or more fearful still, vice and crime? Can you contemplate this, and not make it the one sole object of your life to place them beyond the reach of such unhappy possibilities? Will you not cheerfully debar yourself from some trifling gratification? Nay, will you not even make large sacrifices rather than have such a picture constantly before you? If you are not thoroughly selfish and uncaring for those around you, you will at once effect an Assurance to provide for them; and then you will feel the delight experienced by every honest man when he has fulfilled a duty. You will lie down on your pillow with a proud feeling that you have done your best for your family, and, in the event of illness, your mind will not be tormented by anxiety as to their fate, but will be cheered by the thought that they will not be left wholly destitute.

Alas! we do not seriously apply these things to ourselves, or there would be no delay in Assuring. We see daily our fellow men carried to their last resting places; we are absent for a time, from some friends and acquaintances, and on inquiring for them are told, perhaps, that they are dead; this information, coming at a time when we expect to see them alive and well, naturally startles us; we experience a sad, choking sensation, by death being brought so near to us, and we can hardly understand the bereavement; we pause, perhaps, for a moment, to think of the uncertainties of human life, but we do not include ourselves as coming within their range. We cannot, in our health and strength, believe that death can be otherwise than afar off; for, whilst we acknowledge the power he has over others, we are slow to admit he has the same power over ourselves.

Why is this? are we not mortal? Is not our thread of life as brittle as theirs whose death we have seen recorded? Why then go on with our senses deadened to the truth? Why reject the evidence daily offered to us, that, whilst boasting in our strength of the morrow, a few short hours may see that strength departed from us? Pause, then, ere it be too late; whilst you have health and strength do not neglect a duty that you cannot perform should you be stretched on a bed of sickness—you cannot assure then, therefore do it at once.

Can a worse picture be conceived than that of a man stricken down by a lingering illness, feeling the cold hand of death approaching him by gradual yet certain steps, and his last sands of life embittered by the thought that he is leaving a wife and children to poverty? As the wife and mother tends his couch with that anxious loving care which only women can bestow, each glance of her pale face and tearful eye causes him anguish and regret; each caress of his children is as it were a reproach to him; and that love and affection, which would otherwise brighten and cheer him perhaps to recovery, only hastens his end. Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, says, "Still, still, the victim of affliction. Alas! I began to feel the worst, Burns' poor widow and half a dozen of his dear little ones helpless orphans; there I am as weak as a woman's tear—enough of this, 'tis half my disease."

Contrast this mental anxiety in the midst of bodily suffering with the serenity and peace of mind of him who, having effected a Life Assurance, has on his bed of sickness no anxiety for the welfare of his family; the presence of his wife and little ones in his sick-room brings with it no reproach, and the peace of mind thus induced has often served to mitigate the poignancy of his suffering and assist the power of medicine. On the other hand, should death be the result of his illness, no agonizing thoughts of the future of his dear ones distract his mind, keeping it as it were hovering between earth and heaven. With the certainty of their being provided for, he can more fully give his mind to those consolations that will enable him to pass away in hopes of a better state.

Wives and mothers should use their influence to induce their husbands to assure; to them the question is all-important. Some women have been known to pursuade their husbands not to assure, believing that if they did so it would tend to shorten life; were they to be told that Life Assurance, on the contrary, tends to prolong it, they might treat the assertion as absurd, and yet nothing is more reasonable; experience has proved it to be true; the mind at ease exercises, there is no doubt, the greatest influence upon the health of the body, and this may be proved by the statistics relating to annuitants and those who have a sure provision for the remainder of their days.

The influence of women is powerful, and it is a duty she owes to her husband, her children, and herself, to use that influence on behalf of Life Assurance. Mothers, in your love for your little ones, (and what can equal a mother's love?) in your anxiety to provide against any harm that may befall them do you ever think of the dangers and trials to which they may be exposed, should they be deprived of him who, had he been spared, would have provided for their support during their tender youth? If you do, then urge your husbands to assure, and do not rest until you see your children's future made safe.

There are many who say, they will assure, but they would rather wait a few months first. How baneful are the effects of procrastination! When we know not what a day or an hour may bring forth, shall we jeopardize the welfare of those around us by our willful delay? shall we continually say to-morrow, and to morrow, until it never comes?—N. Y. Independent.

Under a license from the Hon. Judge of Probate, I shall sell at public auction, on the premises,
On SATURDAY, the 26th day of March next, at 12 o'clock, noon,

The Real Estate of the late JOSEPH GREEN, situate on the westerly side of Richards Avenue, (formerly Auburn street,) being the homestead occupied by the deceased in his lifetime. The lot has a frontage of about 60 feet on the Avenue, and a depth of about 150 feet, extending back as far as the estate of Dr. Wm. R. Preston. The house is a covement house, two stories high, and is in good condition. The garden has many excellent fruit trees in good bearing order. The nice situation of this estate, with its extensive prospect, the excellence of the neighborhood, and its accessible location, render this a rare opportunity for purchase, either for investment or occupancy.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies act not speedily if when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. TUBIO SINGERS and PUBLIC SPEAKERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken at occasion requires.

HO FOR THE SHOALS.—We are glad to learn that Messrs. Henry L. & John E. Townsend, and associates, are to immediately build a small but staunch propeller steamer, to run in our river and harbor, and to the Shoals, &c., the coming summer. She will be modelled and built by Mr. John E. Townsend, whose skill and success in such matters have been well proved; and will be commanded by Capt. H. L. Townsend. The keel will be laid forthwith, on one of the Water street wharves, for a craft of 100 feet length and to accommodate three hundred passengers, and it is designed to have her finished for the opening of the coming season. E. A. Straw, Esq., of Manchester, who is interested in the enterprise, will build the engine. We know of no small enterprise which promises more profit to the projectors or greater satisfaction to the public.

☞ Our old correspondent "P. J. A." sends a communication on the Gymnasium, which is all well enough, perhaps, though no new ideas are advanced; but like many others who talk about such matters, he loses sight of the important fact that all people, young or old, and especially the young, need entertainment, recreation, amusement, no less than useful employment and exercise — recreation being, in fact, neither more nor less than exercise for some of the faculties. And the fact of the happy combination of social exercise and amusement in the Gymnasium—particularly the New Gymnasium, renders this beyond question, one of the most beneficent institutions of the day—for an established institution, indeed, it has really become.

☞ Screw steamer Nipsic, 4, which was built at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, and joined the South Atlantic Blockading Squadron, has been constantly employed since and severely tested. On her trial trip she attained a speed of very nearly twelve knots, at her deep load draught, and has since steamed upwards of thirteen knots per hour on several occasions. She ranks with the fastest vessels in the navy.

— The Commander of the Miami has been ordered to take the steamer Chesapeake direct to New York.

— The Portlanders now call that "natural seaport" "the Gem of the Atlantic." Vide Press of Tuesday.

— The ice left the Saco River free for navigation on Thursday last—the earliest date for many years.

— The Maine Legislature has passed resolves providing for an amendment of the constitution so as to allow Maine soldiers in the field to vote.

— Gen. Neal Dow reached Portland on Tuesday noon, and was received with public rejoicings, and escorted to his residence by the authorities and a detachment of troops.

— A letter from Japan, in the Tribune, reports the burning of 300 houses and 250 warehouses in the city of Oasaca, with a loss of life of from 500 to 1000 persons.—The fire lasted three days.

— It is of importance to the ladies that it be known that at a public ball given by the wife of the Prefect of the Seine, at which three thousand persons were present, no crinoline was worn.

— Lott's wife (John Lott's, residing in Muhlenburg county, Kentucky) a few days since gave birth to four bouncing boys.—Less than 11 months ago she gave birth to twins.

— A gentleman in Boston on Monday fell from the fourth to the first story of a building, through three scuttles, and although considerably injured escaped without the breaking of any bones.

— At the celebration of the battle of Pea Ridge, in St. Louis, recently, Colonel Waugelin made a pithy reply to a toast in his honor. He said,—"As I gave my right arm to my country, I can only say to her, here is my left."

— The Government has a contract with John Minor Botts to furnish two corps of the Army of the Potomac with wood. The soldiers are cutting and hauling it themselves. He furnishes 2000 cords a month, at $4 a cord.

— The Paris Press says: "Grant is the American Massena, the beloved child of victory, who has never met with a reverse, but is as vigilant and indefatigable as if he had one to fear. Alone, he is able to resist the three armies of the Confederation."

— The St. John (N. B.) Globe of Thursday says: "The steamer this morning took away a great many passengers. It is enough to make the patriot mourn to see the number of young men—the bone and sinew of the country—who are going off to the States this spring. Can nothing be done to keep them at home?"

— The bills prepared by the Senate and the House Committees on Commerce, establishing lines of first class steamships between New York and several European ports, will provide that the steamships shall be furnished with necessary armament, not only to protect themselves, but to capture privateers.

— ITEMS FROM NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.—Among the contributions to the Brooklyn Fair were actually 18,000 sofa cushions, 12,000 tidies and vase mats, and 100 barrels of pin cushions.

An absent-minded passenger in a Brooklyn street car, being asked for his "fare," became enraged, and rushed out of the car exclaiming that he "hadn't heard anything but 'Fair!' 'Fair!' for the last six weeks."

The committee of the Metropolitan Fair, to open on the 28th inst., request ladies to attend without hoops! This is a better joke than the "raffling protest."

I notice your frequent complaints that the city authorities do not supply the much needed City Hall. We put a host of men into office here each year, and every one of them goes in for a city hall!

"N." says there is said to be a farmer in this State preparing to raise hens from egg plants, and geese from gooseberry bushes!

☞ General Sigel, who has command of the Department of West Virginia, had a narrow escape from capture a few days since. While at Martinsburg he rode outside of his lines, and just at that moment a force of two hundred Confederates rode between the General and his lines. Had they known of his presence he would have been captured.

FACTS FOR SOLDIERS.—Throughout the Indian and Crimean campaigns, the only medicines which proved themselves able to cure the worst cases of dysentery, scurvy and fever, were Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y. formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto confessed hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by ordinary physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as formidable as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What we require is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia; Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Scrofula.

Struma, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

Rheumatism.

Arthritis], Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

Where is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, yet it is producing and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced in a few days, and so virulent, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing her footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Pain in Bones, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their festering and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are persuaded to take for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be gradually reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart, Case and all the symptoms of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indigestion or Costiveness, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Horror of Insanity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Lassitude of the Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an undistributed or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most efficacious medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

JEWEL RAIN.

Little one, bring your scarlet shawl—
Your fur boots and mittens, all
Your gay soft wrappings, and come with me:
It is raining jewels from every tree!
Hear the sweet sounds, as to and fro
They tinkle and rest on the crusted snow.

Yonder, where the warm bright sun
Touches the edge of every one,
Opals and pearls and sapphires blaze,
And the regal diamond shoots its rays;
A fairer sight no queen can see,
Than is spread out here for you and me.

"Turn to water, and lose their shine!"
No matter for that, little princess mine;
They feel your warm heart—so the diamon do grieved
Well into tears in your little hand—
And their one pale ray of light supreme,
Requests to you is that parting beam.

Thus, little maiden, love jewels all
From the dear All-Father,—gather them all—
Self-sacrifice—purity—honor—truth,
A royal crown for your stainless youth;
And always through the misty years
They will bless with brightness, or soot n with tears.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

CURES FROM ONE TO THREE DAYS

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all disorders of the urinary organs, such as Inflammation of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose usually being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying the blood, and at the same time, giving tone to all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain it is experienced with nearly all other cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—the impaired nervous system, broken down and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise

THE MODEL COOK.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS,

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or less than half a cord, than with the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are lined With tin, and pockets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In all, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT Stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and cleanliness are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meat is prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, simplicity of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, most and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, with insanity to produce headaches so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some of them exhibiting ingenuity of no ordinary kind, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than air, pass off with the fuel by ordinary without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of hot air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Clemes, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

☞ There is always something amusing and interesting happening at masquerade balls, and the Boston Herald says one which was held in Boston last week proved no exception to the rule. There were present at that ball two partners in one of the largest business houses in the city, both noted for their liberality, public spirit and devotion to the fair sex. They appeared in costume, but unknown to each other. Singularly enough, in that large assembly, the attention of each was drawn to an easy and genteel young lady, who attracted much attention by her graceful movements. The partners were striving to see who should be the favored one of the accomplished damsel. She was monopolized by the two in all the dances, and, when supper was announced, our fair lady was seen marching along with a partner attached to each arm. The time for raising the masks had arrived, when, behold the astonishment of the parties—the young lady proved to be a boy employed in the store of the two attentive aids! and the parties looked cheaper than any goods they ever disposed of in their store. The senior suddenly discovered that his dress troubled him, and, in consequence, he was not seen at the supper table. The junior viewed the joke in a more philosophical light, and remarked that although he was "on t'other side of Jordan," yet if that boy wanted a vacation every Saturday afternoon he could have it without the asking. The senior, since the affair, has said that the sell was so good a one he intends promoting the boy and make him chief salesman in the concern.

LONESUM.—Mi dear boy, did you ever go out at night and lean on the fense for hours in spring time, when the frogs waz singing in the masby ground, and the spotted night hawks waz a glancing in the air, and the bats waz playing tag, and gaze up into the heavens at the grate round moon, and the winking stars, and sigh and want sumthin, and have yare ize filled with the juce of yure hart, and not think of enny-thing all the time, and couldn't tell wat ails yu? Did yu ever steal slyly out in a big woods just as the sun fell behind the hill, and set down agin a tree, and dream ov nothin till the twilight ghostess began to hurry past yu, and the warm air began tu thicken with the first dark ov the nite, and the owl awa ogh in the distance began tu kall out the toads, and the slippery snakes, and still set there till fear sez yu a thinking? Did yu ever draw yure cheer up before the old harthstone az the brands begin tu grow white with ashes, and the krikets had grown tired ov their songs an into their holes, and look stiddy at the dieing fire, waiting for yure thoughts tu come back from the weary distanze and put yu tu bed? Have yu did awl this and didn't know what ails yu? I can tell you, mi dear boy, what ailed yu—it was Lonesum! 'twas yure hart that was thinking! JOSH BILLINGS.

THE COPPERHEAD PLATFORM.—The following (says an exchange paper) are among the principal planks in the copperhead platform:

1. That the States have a right to secede.
2. That it is "unconstitutional" to suppress the rebellion.
3. That slavery is an incalculable blessing.
4. That soldiers in the army of the Union are not entitled to the right of suffrage.

Insanity is only a conventionalism. He who knows more than his fellows is as insane as he who knows less. The test of sanity is to agree with one's fellows, and sanity itself the average stupidity of mortals.

"A card" in a country paper returns thanks to a clergyman, and the friends and neighbors, "for so kindly assisting at the death and burial" of the father of the advertiser. This is probably more than they meant to say.

Please Look at This.
RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured one or more bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as the cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's on removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and, witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with diarrhea at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give me any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may25

THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

The recent raid of our forces toward Richmond caused the rebel Gen. Pickett to send several of his regiments from North Carolina to Virginia just as he was ready to commence operations in that direction. The regiments are returning, with a view of carrying out his original intention.

Governor Vance, in one of his recent speeches, says Gen. Lee depends on North Carolina for the support of his army. He dwells on keeping the railroads in N. C. in good order, as Lee could not remain in Virginia forty-eight hours after they should fail.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal speaking of the success of blockade runners in getting into that port, says: for the past year only one out of twenty have been captured. In rough weather the blockaders are obliged to go to sea, which, with the exception of dark nights is the most auspicious time for the blockade runners.

An experienced naval officer has remarked that, owing to the peculiar situation of the coast and its numerous channels—embracing an area of 30 miles—the entire navy of the United States could not make the blockade of Wilmington perfect.

A Court of Inquiry is called at Norfolk to investigate the circumstances of the loss of the Peterhoff.

Free schools for white children have been opened in Newbern, by order of the Provost Marshal.

Major Jones, of the 5th Rhode Island regiment, is raising a regiment of heavy artillery in North Carolina.

The Wilmington Journal says that 48 Federal deserters to the Confederate lines have been sent to Deep river to work in the coal mines, [very good place for them] and that Wilmington is full of Yankee spies.

A dispatch from Cumberland authorizes an emphatic denial of the statement that Gen. Sigel had a narrow escape from capture a few days since at Martinburg, by a body of 200 rebels who passed between the General and the pickets. There is not a word of truth in the story. No apprehension is felt at either Martinsburg or Harper's Ferry or any rebel demonstration.

It is said at Washington, that preparations for the expeditions of Gen. Burnside's and Gen. Hancock's corps will cease, and both will be placed in co-operation with the army of the Potomac.

The Richmond Examiner of the 17th says an engine has passed over the portion of railroad destroyed by Gen. Sherman.

A reconnoissance by Col. Bryan with the 108th Pennsylvania cavalry, from Brandy Station to Fredericksburg, and all over the region, has demonstrated the groundlessness of the stories of Stuart's cavalry having crossed the Rappahannock.

Stuart and staff were at Fredericksburg, but left some days since. Conscripts have been hurried to Lee's army from different portions of the South.

From Fortress Monroe an expedition under General Graham has gone to clear out a nest of guerrillas in Mathews and Gloucester counties. So far as heard from the expedition has met with the greatest success.

The Herald's Army of the the Potomac dispatch of the 22d reports the capture of thirteen of Mosby's guerrillas. A strong band of rebel cavalry is prowling around Fauquier county.

Twenty-five Union prisoners escaped while under guard thirty-six miles north of Raleigh, en route for Americus, Georgia.

The Savannah Republican of the 4th has a rumor that the Yankees were landing on the previous evening in considerable force at Darien, Ga.

Eighty-eight rebel prisoners were brought up to Cairo, on Sunday and forwarded to camp Chase.

On the night of the 17th, a large force of rebels approached Seabrook, S. C., in boats, captured a picket boat with 5 members of the 76th Pa. Regiment, and were subsequently driven off by the pickets of the same regiment.

The gunboat Huron has captured the steamer Sophia, from Nassau, off the mouth of the Atlamaha river, with a valuable cargo.

☞ Ex-President Buchanan was on Thursday visited at Wheatland by Mr. Wm. Cornell Jewett, the Embassador from Colorado to mankind in general, to enlist him (J. B.) in favor of Peace through international mediation. We are rather agreeably surprised to learn that the ex-President utterly declined any sympathy with those who would secure Peace through Disunion. He quoted as expressing his unchanged sentiments his letter of Sept. 28, 1861, wherein he said:—

"This is the moment for action—for prompt, energetic, united action—and not for discussions of Peace propositions. These we must know, would be rejected by the States that have seceded, unless we should offer to recognize their independence, which is entirely out of the question."

THE RIGHT OF SOLDIERS TO VOTE.—In the true intent and spirit of our State Constitution, the New Hampshire soldiers have the right to vote; and there is nothing in the letter of our constitution which forbids the exercise of this privilege, but, on the contrary, much in its favor, by a fair construction of the instrument, and by a fair application of its principles to our present condition.

In the Bill of Rights, Article 1 declares that—

"All men are born equally free and independent; therefore, all government of right originates from the people, is founded in consent and instituted for the general good."

And Article 11 of the same bill says:—

All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the State, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect and be elected into office.

If it had been intended to disfranchise the citizen soldier, our fathers would have added—"provided, nevertheless, that every citizen who goes beyond the State line in the militia or otherwise, to suppress insurrection or repel invasion, shall, for the time being, be disqualified as a voter, and shall neither vote in camp by proxy or otherwise, nor come home to vote." Our fathers did not see it, and did not do it.

We have already copied Article 30 of the form of Government, which provides that every qualified person shall be considered an inhabitant for the purposes of electing and being elected, in the place where he dwells, and has his home.

Our comments on that article need not be repeated in detail; their substance is, that our constitution meant to secure to every citizen the right of suffrage in his home, and as a part of the same plan, intended to prevent a fraudulent and unfair crowding of voters from one town or district upon those of another, so as to defeat their choice by overriding it.

Other provisions, in the same instrument, show the desire for the universal suffrage of all qualified voters, and express even more strongly their right to vote. Under the head of Senate, art. 28 provides that "every male inhabitant of each town and parish with town privileges, and places unincorporated, in this State, of twenty-one years of age and upwards, excepting paupers and persons excused from paying taxes at their own request, shall have a right at the annual or other meetings of the inhabitants of said towns and parishes, to be duly warned and holden annually forever in the month of March, to vote in the town or parish wherein he dwells, for the Senator in the district whereof he is a member."

This, for people who have homes in parishes and towns, seems ample: but there might be some who dwell in out-of-the-way places, neither towns nor parishes, and so the constitution cares for them, in Art. 31, as follows:—

And the inhabitants of plantations and places unincorporated, qualified as this constitution provides, who are or shall be required to assess taxes upon themselves towards the support of government, or shall be taxed therefor, shall have the same privilege of voting for senators in the plantations and places wherein they reside, as the inhabitants of the respective towns and parishes aforesaid have. And the meetings of such plantations and places for that purpose, shall be holden annually in the month of March, at such places respectively therein as the assessors thereof shall direct; which assessors shall have like authority for notifying the electors, collecting and returning the votes, as the selectmen and town clerks have in their several towns by this constitution.

Here we see these few scattered sheep in the wilderness, who could never be more than a few scores or hundreds, are secured in their right of voting, and having their votes count for Senators and State officers. Could the framers of our Constitution have foreseen the present state of affairs, they would undoubtedly have made similar provisions for the manner of soldiers' voting, and for the manner of returning their votes.

The Legislature have from time to time added such provisions by statute, as they deemed proper to carry out the intent of the Constitution, viz., that every qualified man should vote freely and fairly.

It now remains for them to do by law such justice in this matter to 10,000 soldiers as the existing items we have quoted do to a handful of settlers in obscure places.

There is no constitutional prohibition in the way; and no difficulty that cannot readily be avoided. We hope to see a law for soldiers' votes in camp, to be declared in open regiment—certified by Colonel, Adjutant and Chaplain, and allowed and counted at home. U. T.

LYNCHING.—The late emigrants to Idaho will find a curious condition of society, according to late papers from that section. A letter from East Bannock City, Idaho Territory, contains an account of a large band of robbers and murderers in that part of the country, who plundered and killed travelers on the route to the mines. About the beginning of the year the citizens took the matter in hand, somewhat after the fashion of a vigilance committee, caught a lot of the scoundrels, and, says the account in the Union Vidette, of Feb. 5:—

The result of the uprising of the patient and long-suffering people has been the summary hanging of about twenty of the robbers and murderers, and the people do not show any signs of letting up. It is probable from present appearances, that twenty or thirty more will be hung. There is no doubt in the minds of the people of the guilt of the parties hung, evidence having come to light of the most positive character in reference to sundry murders and robberies.

Of these, four were executed in Bannock City, three on one pole, and at Virginia City, five on one beam at the same time; and the Sheriff of the former place was hung upon a gallows which he himself had built. Beside those who were executed, a judge and a lawyer, who had acted as counselors to the band, were banished.

☞ Washington dispatches of March 22, give a statement exhibiting the quota of the several States under the President's call for 200,000 men, dated March 14, 1864, with all credits deducting from or deficiencies added thereto, excepting the enlistment of Veteran volunteers up to March 1st, 1864.

The following is the item for this State.

New Hampshire—Quota 2588, credit 160, deficiency none, balance 2429.

The veteran enlistments will go, of course, to diminish this balance.

☞ In Rhode Island the State Democratic Convention met on Tuesday, and nominated delegates to the Chicago convention,—which is to meet July 4. The committee on nominations presented a State ticket for Governor, &c.—but though the election is to take place April 6, some doubt was expressed whether it was politic to make a nomination at this time,—and it was voted to leave the question of making a nomination to the State Central Committee.

COAL AND FLOUR.—The Secretary of the Treasury has given positive orders prohibiting the shipment of American coal to Canada.

At Washington, on Tuesday, a large number of bidders were present to bid for furnishing flour to the Commissary Department. Offers were made for 96,000 barrels. 37,000 barrels were taken at prices ranging from $7 50 to $8 30. Only No. 2 flour was accepted.

—A gentleman in San Francisco writes: "We have daily morning and evening telegrams of all the war news up to the hour of going to press. The Evening Bulletin, issued at 5 P. M., contains news from your side up to 8 P. M., same day!"

— J. Ross Browne, in a letter to the New York Tribune, says he has travelled extensively over California and Washoe, but has not yet seen a country to compare with Arizona, in the richness of its mineral productions. He recommends the government to send out three thousand soldiers for the permanent protection of the miners.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies do not speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them official for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. mh31—lmdaw

☞ The snow storm prevailed in Boston all day Wednesday,—and extended South to Washington.

☞ Perley's special dispatch from Washington, March 23, says Gen. Grant arrived here during a heavy snow storm, at two o'clock this morning, and will leave for the front to-night or to-morrow.

☞ An exchange paper, in an article favoring Gen. Banks' policy in Louisiana, says:—

The English abolished slavery absolutely and unconditionally in some of their provinces and with a short apprentice system in others, and the result was the destruction of their industry.

Both parts of this statement need explanation. The English Parliament proposed a long apprenticeship, viz. 12 years;—but the emancipationists protested against it,—and it was changed to 6 years, with £20,000,000 paid by the crown to the masters. Each colony had liberty to adopt or reject the apprenticeship. Antigua and Bermuda rejected it, and prospered under immediate emancipation. The other colonies tried the apprenticeship: but it worked badly, and Parliament cut it short in four years, i. e. in 1838.

Their industry was not destroyed; only the people worked to raise food and buy clothing for themselves, their wives, and their children, instead of making rum and sugar to enrich their lordly masters at home, or the bloated owners in Great Britain.

— After a boy had called several times at a store in Bennington, Vt., the other day, for "Mr. Dowey," he was asked what he wanted of him, and coolly replied: "Oh, nothing; his house is on fire."

— There is more nutrition in one pound of cheese than in two pounds of flesh. With us, cheese is regarded rather as a luxury, while in England it is regarded as one of the substantial articles of food, and it is not uncommon for the workmen there to make a full meal on bread and cheese alone.

— It is a point of good breeding never to refuse a civil offer in such a manner as even to seem to reprove the one who offers it. This was neatly exemplified in the reply of Foote, the comedian, when a lady asked him to go to church. "No, thank you—I never go to church. However, I see no harm in it."

A NEW DEFINITION.—We should be willing to "live and learn." No day goes over our heads without some new lesson.—We have just seen it stated, for example, that treason and abolitionism are synonymous terms. If that be true, then Judge Jay, Benj. Franklin, and their associates, were traitors; Clarkson, Granville Sharp and Wilberforce in England, were traitors; and the most loyal men in the world for a century, have been those whom John Randolph called "soul drivers," on both sides of the water. The people of the United States, however, do not believe such stuff now;—for they see that the rebellion was made by the latter class, who are alike traitors to Government and to Liberty.

☞ Sir Walter Scott, who accomplished as much intellectual labor as any man we read of, said this in a letter to Terry:

Do instantly whatever is to be done, and take the hours of reflection or recreation after business, and never before it. When a regiment is under march, the rear is often thrown into confusion because the front do not move steadily without interruption. It is the same thing with business. If that which is first in hand is not instantly, steadily, and regularly dispatched, other things accumulate behind till affairs begin to press all at once, and no human brain can stand the confusion.

SNOW FLAKES.—One great law of crystallization controls the whole snow world. Every flake has a skeleton as distinct as the human skeleton, and yet the individual flake is as different from his neighbor as man is from his. The fundamental law of the snow is to crystallize in three, or some multiple of three. All its angles must be sixty, or one hundred and twenty. All its prisms and pyramids must be triangular or hexagonal; whether spicular, or pyramidal, or lamellar, it ever conforms to its own great law of order, and thus conveys delight to the eye, and most delight to him who, having pleasure in the works of God, searches them out.

— A correspondent of the Manchester Examiner complains of the prevalence of "sermon factories" in England; clergymen subscribe £5 a year, and are supplied weekly with sermons. How original they are may be judged of by the writer's statements, that his own published discourses have been copied and sent in manuscript to subscribers to the factory.

WE ASSERT IT BOLDLY.—There are no other medicines so reliable, effectual and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment, always ready for use. They are invaluable to the soldier exposed to wounds, sores, fevers and bowel complaints. They never fail. Only 30 cents per box or pot.

SKIN-DEEP BEAUTY.—It is sad to observe what damage ladies do to their skin by using the noxious and worse than useless compounds called cosmetics. If any wish to have a pure, smooth, healthy skin, with all its pores healthily open, let them use Grace's celebrated Salve, which not only cures the skin when diseased, but seasonably used prevents it from becoming diseased. It removes tan and freckles from the complexion, cures chafing, and rubbed on bald scalps induces a new growth of hair. It also cures wens, flesh wounds, burns, scalds, salt rheum, ulcers, and all eruptive diseases. 25 cents per box.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Salaratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 102 Liberty Street, New York.

WHY HAVE YOU NOT INSURED YOUR LIFE?

Is a question which may be asked of all those who have a family dependent upon them for support. Do you reflect upon the fate of your wife and children in case you should be suddenly snatched away? Have you no thought for the trials, privations, misery that your loss would entail upon them? Can you calmly view the possibility of their being left destitute on the cold charity of the world, dependent upon strangers for a miserable pittance, or sunk through want and despair to the lowest stage of human wretchedness, or more fearful still, vice and crime? Can you contemplate this, and not make it the one sole object of your life to place them beyond the reach of such unhappy possibilities? Will you not cheerfully debar yourself from some trifling gratification? Nay, will you not even make large sacrifices rather than have such a picture constantly before you? If you are not thoroughly selfish and uncaring for those around you, you will at once effect an Assurance to provide for them; and then you will feel the delight experienced by every honest man when he has fulfilled a duty. You will lie down on your pillow with a proud feeling that you have done your best for your family, and, in the event of illness, your mind will not be tormented by anxiety as to their fate, but will be cheered by the thought that they will not be left wholly destitute.

Alas! we do not seriously apply these things to ourselves, or there would be no delay in Assuring. We see daily our fellow men carried to their last resting places; we are absent for a time, from some friends and acquaintances, and on inquiring for them are told, perhaps, that they are dead; this information, coming at a time when we expect to see them alive and well, naturally startles us; we experience a sad, choking sensation, by death being brought so near to us, and we can hardly understand the bereavement; we pause, perhaps, for a moment, to think of the uncertainties of human life, but we do not include ourselves as coming within their range. We cannot, in our health and strength, believe that death can be otherwise than afar off; for, whilst we acknowledge the power he has over others, we are slow to admit he has the same power over ourselves.

Why is this? are we not mortal? Is not our thread of life as brittle as their's whose death we have seen recorded? Why then go on with our senses deadened to the truth? Why reject the evidence daily offered to us, that, whilst boasting in our strength of the morrow, a few short hours may see that strength departed from us? Pause, then, ere it be too late; whilst you have health and strength do not neglect a duty that you cannot perform should you be stretched on a bed of sickness—you cannot assure then, therefore do it at once.

Can a worse picture be conceived than that of a man stricken down by a lingering illness, feeling the cold hand of death approaching him by gradual yet certain steps, and his last sands of life embittered by the thought that he is leaving a wife and children to poverty? As the wife and mother tends his couch with that anxious loving care which only women can bestow, each glance of her pale face and tearful eye causes him anguish and regret; each caress of his children is as it were a reproach to him; and that love and affection, which would otherwise brighten and cheer him perhaps to recovery, only hastens his end. Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, says, "Still, still, the victim of affliction. Alas! I began to feel the worst. Burns' poor widow and half a dozen of his dear little ones helpless orphans; there I am as weak as a woman's tear—enough of this, 'tis half my disease."

Contrast this mental anxiety in the midst of bodily suffering with the serenity and peace of mind of him who, having effected a Life Assurance, has on his bed of sickness no anxiety for the welfare of his family; the presence of his wife and little ones in his sick-room brings with it no reproach, and the peace of mind thus induced has often served to mitigate the poignancy of his suffering and assist the power of medicine. On the other hand, should death be the result of his illness, no agonizing thoughts of the future of his dear ones distract his mind, keeping it as it were hovering between earth and heaven. With the certainty of their being provided for, he can more fully give his mind to those consolations that will enable him to pass away in hopes of a better state.

Wives and mothers should use their influence to induce their husbands to assure; to them the question is all-important. Some women have been known to persuade their husbands not to assure, believing that if they did so it would tend to shorten life; were they to be told that Life Assurance, on the contrary, tends to prolong it, they might treat the assertion as absurd, and yet nothing is more reasonable; experience has proved it to be true; the mind at ease exercises, there is no doubt, the greatest influence upon the health of the body, and this may be proved by the statistics relating to annuitants and those who have a sure provision for the remainder of their days.

The influence of women is powerful, and it is a duty she owes to her husband, her children, and herself, to use that influence on behalf of Life Assurance. Mothers, in your love for your little ones, (and what can equal a mother's love?) in your anxiety to provide against any harm that may befall them do you ever think of the dangers and trials to which they may be exposed, should they be deprived of him who, had he been spared, would have provided for their support during their tender youth? If you do, then urge your husbands to assure, and do not rest until you see your children's future made safe.

There are many who say, they will assure, but they would rather wait a few months first. How baneful are the effects of procrastination! When we know not what a day or an hour may bring forth, shall we jeopardize the welfare of those around us by our willful delay? shall we continually say to-morrow, and to morrow, until it never comes?—N. Y. Independent.

Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y.
Formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigation of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as unexhaustible as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow and comparative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, with obstacles and overcome opposition as heaviness as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow and comparative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, with obstacles and equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stomach, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Strumæ, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

The taint (hereditary or acquired) filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies

Rheumatism.

[Arthritic], Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thought, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to the weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome discharging Sores, which prevail to so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Enlargements from the Glands, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Coliks or Spasms of the Stomach, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart, Palpitation, Fluttering of the Heart (resembling a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indisposition to Exercise, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Loss of Confidence, Timidity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Face and Countenance and Disease of the Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either in the Nose, Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face, depend upon a diseased action of the liver, and are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, disinclination, weak stomach, costiveness, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food.—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured.—It is Universal in its effects

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Nashville correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says that the recent vote polled in that county was a trifle under a thousand ballots, all of which the Union candidates received, except some seventy-five. The party who have triumphed are radicals, as they adopt for their motto:—"Emancipation, Confiscation and Extermination." The result might have been the other way but for the "Johnson oath," as it is called, which kept the disloyally minded away from the polls.

He who during a revolution like the present seeks safety in neutrality, is like a grist of corn seeking safety between two mill-stones. He will be ground exceeding small in the process, and both parties will bolt him. After all his trouble, his cake will be dough.

"COUNTERFEIT PRESENTMENTS."—A photographer in Australia has added a droll, though not entirely original or honest, mode of "raising the wind." He persuaded a pretty girl, the daughter of a woman who kept a fashionable hotel, to "stand" for her portrait, to be passed off as a likeness of the Princess Alexandra. Many hundreds of these counterfeits had been sold, and the young lady was often reminded by strangers of her resemblance to the Princess Royal. This did not displease her, though she confessed the cheat, and said she had consented "for the fun of the thing."

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot!"

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Dysmenorrhea, and is especially recommended in the cure of Fluor Albus or Whites (a fem ale) where all the old nostrums of medicine have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and invigorating; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, thus obviating the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges will stop, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail (free) to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

LAST AND BEST.
THE MODEL COOK,
AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or ranges used in less time also.

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either size, when needed.

In use, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT STOVE, we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family or boarding house; and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves
FOR WOOD OR COAL.
E. A. STEVENS'S
House Furnishing Establishment,
NO. 46 MARKET STREET

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the cast-iron baking heater, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are cored with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & Air-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine the truly valuable

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air ever comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the headaches and drowsiness so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objection aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than air, rush off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Gray's Patent Molded Collars

Have now been before the public for nearly a year. They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant.

The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the wrinkles noticed in all other collars.

The crayat causes no puckers on the inside of the turn-down collars—they are AS SMOOTH INSIDE AS OUTSIDE—and therefore perfectly fine and easy to the neck.

The Gerotte Collar has a smooth and evenly finished edge on BOTH SIDES.

These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO FIT THE NECK.

They are made in "Novelty" (or turn-down) style, in every half size from 12 to 17 inches, and in "Eureka" (Gerotte), from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "model boxes" in neat blue cartons, containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of 50 each, the latter a very handy package for Travellers, Army and Navy officers.

☞ EVERY COLLAR is stamped
"Gray's Patent Molded Collar."

Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Here truth, do good, be just and fair with all;

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of a popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS"—This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the SUPREME LAW of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.—Constitution U. S.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

A letter to the Portland Press, from a writer who was in the battle at Oulestee, Florida, contains some interesting statements, which we copy:—

Much has been written of the battle of Olustee, fought on the 20th of last month. Writers may "write" up or "write" down officers, or "write" of the gallantry of regiments, or the disgrace of them, and yet the true version of our defeat may not be known. The truth is, the army was advancing at a forced march in the enemy's country, with all their blankets, knapsacks, eighty rounds of ammunition and four days' rations, and had marched seventeen miles at day, and had nothing to eat since early dawn, except now and then, a mouthful of hard tack. These forced marches were made so that we should get as near Lake City as possible, that the troops might rest over night and attack the enemy and take City on Sunday. Our arms were not called, we had no skirmishers thrown out, and our pickets were but a little distance in advance. We were advancing in a thicket of pine trees, and nearly parallel with the railroad and but a short distance from it; Col. Henries with the 40th Mass mounted infantry in advance, covering Hamilton's battery, supported on the right by the 47th N. Y., on the right by the 8th U. S. colored regiment, commanded by Col. Fridley. All at once they received the fire of the rebel's artillery from behind the railroad embankment and the rifle corps from their rests behind trees and from tree tops. Our forces were caught in a trap. They at once deployed into battle order, or as near so as circumstances would permit, loaded and opened fire, but yet with all his bravery of a Jackson and the coolness of veterans, they were more or less confused and thrown into disorder, yet they unflinchingly stood and fought for three hours, and drew off in good order, and so crippled the enemy that they did not follow.

Aside from the great and unpardonable blunder in moving forward as they did and being trapped, no fault can be found with men or officers. Gen. Lymaq was ever there duty called amidst a perfect storm of shot and shell, and all award him the bravery of a lion. Col. Henries was most gallant and brave. Col. Borden, who commanded the brigade, fought like a tiger and had two horses shot under him. Col. Montgomery, who commanded a colored brigade and who was probably been under fire more times than any officer in the Union, brought in the reserve at the right time and in the right place, and saved a break on our left centre and showed his accustomed skill and bravery. Perhaps there never was a more determined fight. Both armies were handled with skill; both fought gallantly and with tiger-like ferocity. Now, when it is certainly known that the rebels had at least fifteen thousand while we had less than five thousand, that we were caught in a trap with our pieces unloaded and bayonets in their sheaths, with our soldiers tired, hungry and in heavy marching order, all must concede that we were brave and fought with skill to hold our ground for three hours, until our powder failed, and then to have drawn off in good order. Our soldiers, hungry and tired, marched seventeen miles back that night, making a fight of three hours, the most desperate on record, and a march of thirty four miles in a little more than thirty hours.

Much has been said of the colored and white troops, but all this is jealousy. The white troops fought bravely and perhaps had better execution than some of the colored troops, yet the colored troops were as brave as the bravest, and when they have had much practice with the rifle as they have with the shovel they will do their whole duty. Our loss in killed was about two hundred; wounded about thirteen hundred, and the rebels took about two hundred prisoners. But it is not strange that our troops be caught in traps, for excepting Col. Montgomery we have no officers who have any experience as commanders in the field. They are all good officers and good men, but they are not veterans. This department wants a Burnside to lead.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, for ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of decisions and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full records of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDM. ND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected application SIXTEEN NEW CLAIMS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

A Cairo dispatch says an engagement took place on the 16th, two miles east of Fort Pillow, between 600 Federals and 600 rebels, in which the enemy were routed, with a loss of 50 killed and wounded.

The 26 and 16th Iowa, 68th Ohio, and 45th Illinois veteran regiments, have arrived at Vicksburg on a re-enlistment furlough.

The 12th Michigan infantry and 5th Iowa cavalry, (veteran regiments,) passed through Cairo for the front, with their ranks materially strengthened.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch of March 24, says:

Information from the front states that deserters continue to come in daily from Louisiana regiments. One lieutenant and four men came in yesterday. They say Lee has ordered all wagons to be ready for use by April 1.

The Committee on Indian Affairs recommend an appropriation of $1,000,000 to indemnify the people of Minnesota for losses during the Sioux war.

The World's dispatch says operations in Virginia will commence much sooner than many suppose.

Hilton Head advices state that the rebels have mounted six rifled guns in the casemates of Fort Sumter, bearing on the channel, to prevent the advance of the Union gunboats.

The World's Hilton Head letter refutes a base slander lately made upon the character of the lady teachers of contraband in that department, which has been circulated through all the copperhead papers of this part of the country.

The Charleston Courier of the 11th says:

Eighty deserters from the Confederate army are encamped on the coast of Florida, who are supplying the Yankees with cattle. A number of salt works on the gulf coast of Florida have been destroyed by soldiers who have deserted from the Confederate army. The Thomas County Works, valued at $15,000, were among the sufferers.

On the 10th a new rebel iron-clad was launched successfully at Charleston. She is called the Ashley. This increases the iron-clad fleet in Charleston harbor to 7 vessels. She is described as a formidable vessel, with many improvements.

The Charleston Mercury of the 15th inst. says:

The enemy ceased firing upon the city Tuesday evening. On Wednesday morning Battery Gregg opened fire on Battery Simkins. The latter replied, and being joined by the Sullivan's Island batteries, a brisk artillery duel was kept up for several hours. Some ten shells were fired at Fort Sumter Tuesday night, eight of which struck the fort.

A dispatch from Cairo gives good news from the Red River expedition. Gen. A. J. Smith landed his forces a few miles below Fort De Russey. The rebel Gen. Dick Taylor attacked him in his rear. Gen. Smith, instead of attempting to keep up communication with the river, proceeded towards the fort. Taylor saw the trick and started for the same point; but Gen. Smith succeed in reaching it first, capturing the fort, 11 guns and 300 prisoners. This gives him a strong foothold in the country, and will enable Adm. Porter to proceed to Alexandria without opposition.

— Hon. Owen Lovejoy, of Illinois, is reported hopelessly ill at Brooklyn.

— Bricks that were formerly $5,50 per thousand are now worth $11 per thousand.

— A key that fits everybody's trunk—Turkey.

— A. C. Brown of Minneapolis, Minn. has seven sons and four grandsons in the Army of the Union.

— Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, the London preacher, is said to contemplate a visit to this country.

— Nancy James, a colored woman, has just died at Philadelphia at the age of one hundred and ten years.

— A Western exchange gives circulation to the following slander:—"At a recent levee at Jeff. Davis' house, 75 hats were stolen."

— It is now said that the Prince of Wales's infant son was born with a deformity, having only three fingers on one of his hands.

— Frederick Douglass will lecture in Lewiston, Me., on Tuesday evening next, and in Augusta on Wednesday evening. Subject—The Black Man in the White House.

— Gen. Wm. F. Smith was re-nominated and confirmed as Major General, Wednesday. His commission is to date from March 9, 1864, instead of July 4, 1862, as originally fixed.

— Larz Anderson, of Cincinnati, sends to the East Tennessee refugee fund a bequest of five hundred dollars from the late Nicholas Longworth, and adds thereto a gift of two hundred and fifty dollars on his own account.

— The Emperor Napoleon has just nominated a Scientific Commission to accompany the French army now in Mexico, on the same footing as the celebrated commission of Savans appointed by the First Napoleon to follow him to Egypt.

GROANING AND BLOWING.—In fifty years' careful reading of the newspapers, Uncle Toby has observed that those writers who groan or apologise the most after an election are usually those that blow the hardest before town meeting. He has also observed that the most notorious cheats complain most bitterly of fraud, when their plans are checkmated and defeated.

The New York World of March 9 said:

New Hampshire has apparently voted as wrong this year as it has been in the habit of doing for many years past. We did not expect any different result, and warned our conservative friends not to anticipate a victory.

But the World of March 2 said:—

We are in hopes of hearing good news from New Hampshire next Tuesday evening. Our private advices from that quarter are encouraging. * * * * If the Chase and Fremont men have any nerve, they can kill Lincoln as a candidate by allowing New Hampshire to pronounce emphatically against him.

New Hampshire did not happen to pronounce against anybody but the rebels and copperheads: it did that—most emphatically.

A print in New Hampshire says, March 11: "The results of the election show a disastrous defeat at almost every point.—We confess that we are not disappointed in defeat, though we did not expect the majority against us would be as large as it is. We were hampered at the start, by those ——by whose advice the party was placed in an ambiguous and discreditable position."

But the same print said, Feb. 19, (after they were hampered):—

We can carry the State, and all the powers of darkness can't prevent it, if we go at the work with stern, unflinching resolution.

And yet, the same print says, March 11, "The election has been carried by the most outrageous and abominable frauds."

Now, frauds must come from the powers of darkness,—and therefore we conclude there was some flinching among the rank and file, when the leaders ordered them to carry the State into virtual rebellion against our government, and into sympathy with that at Richmond.

A paper could be filled with the groans of those who lately blowed the hardest: but room is too precious here for long extracts. One paper goes to cyphering, and puts down 4000 soldiers' votes for Gilmore; but others say 1000 was about the number; some seaboard papers groan over the navy yard influence, when they know full well that for the eight years of Pierce and Buchanan there was an exclusive employment of the unterrified there.

The Manchester Union complains of the United States enrolling officers being at the polls in Manchester, taking down the names "at places where their presence and office would be most likely to intimidate Democratic voters. The other causes named account for the Abolition gains, but here is the explanation of our unexpected loss.—Hundreds of men preferred to forego their right to vote, rather than expose themselves to the hazards of an enrollment and draft."

We think it would puzzle any reader to give a reason why the enrolling officer would intimidate Democratic voters more than any others, unless they were greater cowards. And again, what sort of men must they be, who would wish to smuggle in their votes,—but would not vote openly for fear of standing an equal chance in a draft? But it happens, unluckily, that the party lost as heavily where there were no enrolling officers.

Many papers groan over the check lists, and the N. H. Patriot says:—

Never, in the world's history, we venture to assert, was there such an amount of open, palpable, shameless fraud, corruption and knavery employed to carry a popular election. Hundreds, nay thousands, of poor or mercenary voters were openly bribed, or otherwise induced by corrupt appliances, to vote the Republican ticket. Hundreds of Democrats were denied the right of suffrage by Republican officials; and hundreds of men were allowed to vote that ticket, by those officials, who had no legal right to vote.

The editor of the Patriot is not such a greenhorn as to believe for a moment that all the rascality in the world" is possessed by his opponents; for he has been connected with the Patriot for years: but he must say something, and so he says this. Nor is he such a fool as to believe what he says,—that thousands of voters were openly bribed to vote the republican ticket in the late election. If he knew of one such, he would take up and prosecute the briber without delay. And as to the charge about the check-lists, it happens that the democratic losses are not confined to republican towns, but are pretty equally distributed over the State.

One item they remember to forget, viz: "There has been a great change in public opinion. The Manchester Union says:—

Scores of men, as in the old Know-nothing times, voted against us, who claimed to be with us and of us down to the hour of the election.

If this assertion were varied, so as to say, "Scores of men whom we claimed, voted against us," it would be strictly true,—not only in Manchester, but all over the State.

The masses of the people, the real democracy of New Hampshire—27,000 strong—have voted the Union ticket. Her vote for Pres. Lincoln was only 500 more. Gov. Goodwin in 1860 had 38,000. U. T.

EUROPEAN ITEMS.—The rebel cruiser Florida and Federal corvette St. Louis were at Funchal, Madeira, on the 4th inst. It was believed to be the intention of the St. Louis to cut out the Florida, but fears were entertained of interference by the shore authorities. The Florida required coals. The Governor of Madeira at first refused to allow a supply, but ultimately consented to her obtaining sufficient to enable her to get away from the St. Louis.

Notice was given in the House of Lords that on the 18th the Marquis of Clanricarde would move for copies of any correspondence with the Confederate States relative to the removal of British Consuls and the cessation of their functions in those States.

The christening of the infant son of the Prince of Wales took place with considerable ceremony. He was named by the Queen "Albert Victor Christian Edward."

A Danish version of the engagement near Viele says the position of the Danes was untenable, many troops having been previously withdrawn. The Danes effected their retreat towards the North with considerable loss.

It is reported that England and France were agreed, or all but agreed, on the principles of a treaty to terminate the war and maintain the peace of Europe.

The Archduke Maximilian would leave Paris on the 12th or 13th. The Emperor Napoleon has been particularly attentive to him.

It is rumored that Gen. Bazeau will soon be withdrawn from Mexico, having accomplished his mission.

☞ In the U. S. House of Representatives, March 23, Messrs. McClurg and Blair, both of Missouri, had a personal debate.

Mr. McClurg of Mo., rising to a personal explanation, repeated, and sought to prove, the charges heretofore made against his colleague, (Mr. Blair) of having violated the Treasury regulations by smuggling liquors into the army, and produced an army order signed by Gen. Rosecrans, to show the falsity of Mr. Blair's remarks, that free persons of color had not been removed from Missouri and sold into slavery. He had the same compassion for Blair as he had for a condemned criminal, and indulged in severe personal reflections upon his colleague.

Mr. Blair asked that a special committee be appointed to examine the charges of his colleague, who uttered a base and wilful falsehood. His colleague had taken the place of the forger and falsifier, and he (Blair) pronounced him (McClurg) an infamous liar and scoundrel.

The Speaker said such language was against the rules and decorum of the House, and called upon the House to aid him in enforcing the rules.

Mr. Blair said no, other language could be used in regard to the allegations so false, so base and so utterly contemptible.

Mr. McClurg asked Mr. Blair to look at his (Blair's) own signature to the liquor order.

Mr. Blair replied, with passionate earnestness, that he would look at nothing that came from the infamous scoundrel.

Much excitement and confusion and disorder prevailed throughout the proceedings.

Finally, the resolution to appoint a select committee to inquire into the allegations of Mr. McClurg, was adopted.

☞ Preparations for war are going on all over Europe. Italy has more than four hundred thousand men under arms, and this grand army demands and expects soon to march into Venice. On her side, Austria is preparing for the crash; the famous quadrilateral is being strengthened in every possible way; the line of the Mincio is strongly barricaded with men and guns from Mantua to Peschiera; guns of the largest calibre are being mounted in all the fortified places. But this time it is more likely that the grand drama will open at Venice in a sea fight.

☞ The London Morning Post says:

Captain Semmes goes about on the high seas in the Alabama burning American ships, reducing their captains, crews, and passengers to destitution, and turning them adrift in distant ports upon the charity of the world. All this is done, let it be marked, without daring any of those perils which even the most ordinary robber has to encounter. Capt. Semmes preys upon the weak; the strong begives the slip to. There are none of the elements of the hero in such a character or such a career as his.

☞ It was denied, some time since, that Mrs. Douglas was officiating as a clerk in the Treasury Department. The Washington correspondent of the Wisconsin says, however, that "passing through the Treasury Department the other day, I met Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas, who is filling the duties of a twelve hundred dollar clerkship in that department."

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for April, 1864, has for its frontispiece a beautiful engraving of a rural scene, entitled "Keeping Company,"—and contains a story to match. This standard fashion and literary monthly retains its hold on the public mind with undiminished success.

☞ At Memphis, March 21, a block of buildings, used as commissary storehouses, fell in, burying beneath the ruins a number of negroes, and five or six soldiers who were guarding the buildings. Four women, more or less injured, and twelve children dead, had been taken from the ruins of the fallen buildings. The search was being continued for the bodies of the others.

Vicksburg has been visited with a large number of fires, the work of incendiaries.—Several government storehouses have been burned.

☞ A Washington dispatch says Frank Blair will soon re-enter the military service, receiving a Major General's commission on the first vacancy, and that Gen. Marston of New Hampshire, who has been in charge of the camp of rebel prisoners at Point Lookout, will soon be transferred to a more active command.

☞ The London Shipping Gazette of March 10, interprets Earl Russell's speech on Tuesday night as, in effect, meaning that that country is pledged to maintain the independence of Denmark, by negotiation, if that be possible; but, failing that, then by force of arms.

Coughs and Colds.

The common change of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, consumers should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. mh21—1mdaw

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—The basis of this truly wonderful preparation, now of such well-earned celebrity, is a freedom from every component calculated to debilitate, and by such to allow the greatest freedom of use, day and night, as the only true theory by which THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS can be effectually cured. ☞ Our City Mission is by no means a sectarian affair, though it is religious in the highest and best sense of that term, aiming to do good to both body and soul of the needy and friendless. The present missionary, as our readers know, is a worthy Baptist minister in good standing with his brethren and the public. The salary for his support has been raised by private subscription in former years;—but this year the managers, mostly ministers, concluded to take collection in their several churches, each being assessed according to its supposed ability. The portion assigned to the Universalist Church was $75,—which was stated by the pastor, and the collection taken last Sunday. Previous to the collection, a catholic sermon on the subject did ample justice to the mission and the missionary; and the usefulness and economy of the institution were endorsed by Ex-Mayor Simes, who had opportunity to know its worth. The full sum was raised, with a surplus, which is deposited for future need. It is gratifying to state that the charitable collections of this church have been larger than usual, during the past year.

His face and neck are most shockingly burned, and it is feared that both eyes are put out. How the powder was ignited is not known, but it is supposed that his clothes contained a spark or a bit of burning wood.

Some pious ladies of New York are erecting an elaborate monument over the remains of the late Bishop Onderdonk in Trinity Church, costing $4000. Upon it is carved the bishop in his canonicals, with angels attending, and at his feet is a lion couchant, who crushes a serpent under his body. The head of the serpent projects toward the person of the bishop with barbed tongue thrust out, allegorical perhaps of slander. At the corners of the monument the apostles are beautifully carved, and some of them form part of the block upon which the bishop reposes. To perpetuate in stone such allusions to the gossip prevailing about the bishop in his lifetime, seems to be a strange way of honoring his memory. Boston Post.

WHY HAVE YOU NOT INSURED YOUR LIFE?

Is a question which may be asked of all those who have a family dependent upon them for support. Do you reflect upon the fate of your wife and children in case you should be suddenly snatched away? Have you no thought for the trials, privations, misery that your loss would entail upon them? Can you calmly view the possibility of their being left destitute on the cold charity of the world, dependent upon strangers for a miserable pittance, or sunk through want and despair to the lowest stage of human wretchedness, or more fearful still, vice and crime? Can you contemplate this, and not make it the one sole object of your life to place them beyond the reach of such unhappy possibilities? Will you not cheerfully debar yourself from some trifling gratification? Nay, will you not even make large sacrifices rather than have such a picture constantly before you? If you are not thoroughly selfish and uncaring for those around you, you will at once effect an Assurance to provide for them; and then you will feel the delight experienced by every honest man when he has fulfilled a duty. You will lie down on your pillow with a proud feeling that you have done your best for your family, and, in the event of illness, your mind will not be tormented by anxiety as to their fate, but will be cheered by the thought that they will not be left wholly destitute.

Alas! we do not seriously apply these things to ourselves, or there would be no delay in Assuring. We see daily our fellow men carried to their last resting places; we are absent for a time, from some friends and acquaintances, and on inquiring for them are told, perhaps, that they are dead; this information, coming at a time when we expect to see them alive and well, naturally startles us; we experience a sad, choking sensation, by death being brought so near to us, and we can hardly understand the bereavement; we pause, perhaps, for a moment, to think of the uncertainties of human life, but we do not include ourselves as coming within their range. We cannot, in our health and strength, believe that death can be otherwise than afar off; for, whilst we acknowledge the power he has over others, we are slow to admit he has the same power over ourselves.

Why is this? are we not mortal? Is not our thread of life as brittle as their's whose death we have seen recorded? Why then go on with our senses deadened to the truth? Why reject the evidence daily offered to us, that, whilst boasting in our strength of the morrow, a few short hours may see that strength departed from us? Pause, then, ere it be too late; whilst you have health and strength do not neglect a duty that you cannot perform should you be stretched on a bed of sickness—you cannot assure then, therefore do it at once.

Can a worse picture be conceived than that of a man stricken down by a lingering illness, feeling the cold hand of death approaching him by gradual yet certain steps, and his last sands of life embittered by the thought that he is leaving a wife and children to poverty? As the wife and mother tends his couch with that anxious loving care which only women can bestow, each glance of her pale face and tearful eye causes him anguish and regret; each caress of his children is as it were a reproach to him; and that love and affection, which would otherwise brighten and cheer him perhaps to recovery, only hastens his end. Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, says, "Still, still, the victim of affliction. Alas! I began to feel the worst. Burns' poor widow and half a dozen of his dear little ones helpless orphans; there I am as weak as a woman's tear—enough of this, 'tis half my disease."

Contrast this mental anxiety in the midst of bodily suffering with the serenity and peace of mind of him who, having effected a Life Assurance, has on his bed of sickness no anxiety for the welfare of his family; the presence of his wife and little ones in his sick-room, brings with it no reproach, and the peace of mind thus induced has often served to mitigate the poignancy of his suffering and assist the power of medicine. On the other hand, should death be the result of his illness, no agonizing thoughts of the future of his dear ones distract his mind, keeping it as it were hovering between earth and heaven. With the certainty of their being provided for, he can more fully give his mind to those consolations that will enable him to pass away in hopes of a better state.

Wives and mothers should use their influence to induce their husbands to assure; to them the question is all-important. Some women have been known to persuade their husbands not to assure, believing that if they did so it would tend to shorten life; were they to be told that Life Assurance, on the contrary, tends to prolong it, they might treat the assertion as absurd, and yet nothing is more reasonable; experience has proved it to be true; the mind at ease exercises, there is no doubt, the greatest influence upon the health of the body, and this may be proved by the statistics relating to annuitants and those who have a sure provision for the remainder of their days.

The influence of women is powerful, and it is a duty she owes to her husband, her children, and herself, to use that influence on behalf of Life Assurance. Mothers, in your love for your little ones, (and what can equal a mother's love?) in your anxiety to provide against any harm that may befall them do you ever think of the dangers and trials to which they may be exposed, should they be deprived of him who, had he been spared, would have provided for their support during their tender youth? If you do, then urge your husbands to assure, and do not rest until you see your children's future made safe.

There are many who say, they will assure, but they would rather wait a few months first. How baneful are the effects of procrastination! When we know not what a day or an hour may bring forth, shall we jeopardize the welfare of those around us by our willful delay? shall we continually say to-morrow, and to morrow, until it never comes?—N. Y. Independent.

Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y. formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with and overcome every opposition as heretofore we have met and overcome every opposition as heretofore we have met and overcome the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENTS TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need but reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stomach, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Struma, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, Tumor's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint, (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

Arthritis, Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Parents, whose children are weak, suffering or weak, medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of Mercury—removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of that kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Diseased Glands in the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart, Palpitation, Disease of the Liver—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions,

Suffering from Indisposition to Exercise, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Gloomy Melancholy, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Languor from any Secular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MORBID NATURES upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver—very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the disease, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an enlarged or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant sensations, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured.—It is Universal in its effects

These pans are greatly in demand for baking the New bread, about which so much stir is being made.
This bread is the most economical and healthful ever made, and is very palatable when properly prepared; but much depends upon the manner in which it is baked—and the peculiar form of these pans is just what is required for the purpose.
The Roll Pans are very useful also for baking corn cakes, drop cakes, muffins, gingerbread or anything requiring a quick and light bake.
Every housekeeper should have one.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to accurately keep the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with perfect correctness.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good timekeepers as can be purchased for the same price without the Calendar Attachment and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

LAST AND BEST.
THE MODEL COOK.
AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single box of coal, or food cooked better, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes. The oven doors are fitted with tin, and pockets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either size, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a FIRST-CLASS Stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and elegance are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook.—

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves
FOR WOOD OR COAL.
E. A. STEVENS'S
House Furnishing Establishment,
NO. 46 MARKET STREET

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall Stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cast iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would also inform those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the headache so prolific of much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing much more improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers; the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

SAMBUCUS TREE, OF PORTUGAL,

Every Family should use the SAMBUCI WINE celebrated in Europe for its medicinal and beneficial qualities as a gentle Stimulant, Tonic, Diuretic and Sudorific, highly esteemed by eminent physicians, used in European and American Hospitals, and by some of the first families in Europe and America.

AS A DIURETIC, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands and Kidneys, and Urinary Organs very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE is not a mixture or manufactured article, but is pure from the juice of the Portugal Sambucus, cultivated in New Jersey, recommended by Chemists and Physicians as possessing medical properties superior to any other Wines in use, and an excellent article for all weak and debilitated persons, and the aged and infirm, improving the appetite, and benefiting ladies and children.

A LADIES' WINE, because it will not intoxicate as other wines, as it contains no mixture of spirits or other liquors, and is admired for its rich peculiar flavor and nutritive properties, imparting a healthy tone to the digestive organs, and a blooming, soft and healthy skin and complexion.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"THE FERRY BOY AND THE FINANCIER" is the title of a new work announced by Messrs. Walker, Wise, & Co., of Boston, to form one of their popular series including the "Pioneer Boy" and the "Farmer Boy." It is a narrative of the boy life of the eminent Secretary of the Treasury, Hon. S P. Chase, whose prominence among the candidates for the next Presidency, as well as his distinguished services in his important Department, renders his biography of interest to tens of thousands of readers. We are assured that the main facts in the sketch are entirely authentic. The author is a well-known literary man of wide reputation, author of the article, "A First Trip to Washington," in the Atlantic Monthly of April. Among the numberless books now a-days published for the young, none are at once so fascinating and so useful as the class to which the forthcoming volume belongs; books which, while presenting truthful incidents in the early experience of distinguished public men, exhibit how, by adherence to certain fixed principles of action, by honest industry, and conscientious discharge of the smallest duties, they have risen, often from the humblest stations, to eminence; and from obscurity, have come to possess the respect and admiration of a whole nation. Such books cannot be too widely disseminated. No town or village in the loyal States but can employ the services of one agent, at least, in its circulation. The volume in question will be ready about the first of April, and sell, we presume, at the price of the others of the series; viz., $1.25.

A colored man, who had come with his family to New York, en route for California, was passing up Broadway in the day, not long since, when he was kidnapped by some ruffians and taken into Lafayette Hall and enlisted, his family not knowing of his whereabouts, but sitting in the hotel where he had left them, anxiously awaiting his return. He received a few dollars only as his portion of the amount to which he would have been entitled if he had enlisted voluntarily, and was then thrust into the guard-room. He was also sent to Ricker's Island and from thence to the seat of war. There he remained three months before his story became known. He finally related the circumstances to the chaplain of the regiment, who exerted himself to have the recruit returned to New York. In the course of his statement made to Major Joline, at Major Gen. Dix's headquarters, he said, with a mournful expression which touched the hearts of all present: "I don't know where my family is now sir. I have never seen nor heard from them since the day when I went out for to get some things for the old woman and the little babies to go to California with."—Boston Post.

MONEY GETTING.—The Parisian seeks in his social relations nothing but profit.—Talk of the Americans as dollar worshippers! Then come to Paris and see the sou deified. Come here and see money "the be all and the end all" of life, usurping the place of affection and sentiment, supreme over duty and honor. Come here and see everybody straining their nerves to obtain money; to entice it out of pockets by flattery or by fawning, to accept bands (though never so foul) which are fall of gold. The eagerness of this pursuit after wealth disfigures all classes of society. Go where you will, you see evident everywhere the utmost indifference to persons and the most zealous passion for the pecuniary favors to be drawn or wrung from them. The person from whom the golden shower descends is hated or despised, cheated it may be, and thrown aside like a squeezed lemon, if the yellow juice be exhausted or refuse to trickle more. The reasons of this strange state of society, which resembles much more that life painted by Juvenal in such sombre colors than any other modern society, is the enormous influx of foreigners of enormous wealth, and the few opportunities the French have of growing rich.—Cor. Sat. Gaz.

A victim of sea-sickness described his sensations thus: "The first hour I was afraid I should die; and the second hour I was more afraid I shouldn't!"

EXE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended by the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some pa. of twelve bottles of Dr. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH BENNETT.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.—"I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of Dr. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of those complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1861
DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1860, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, No 2 Bedford street, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Important orders were issued on Wednesday, entirely reorganizing the Army of the Potomac. The five corps are consolidated into three—the 2d, 5th and 6th. Gen. Warren commands the 5th. Gen. Pleasanton is relieved from command of the cavalry, and ordered to report to Gen. Rosecrans; and several other general officers are detached and ordered to report elsewhere. Gens. Hancock and Sedgwick will probably command the other corps. Gen. Grant arrived at headquarters on Thursday, and was received with much enthusiasm. He has ordered the Army to be at once ready for inspection.

Nearly a thousand released Union prisoners arrived at Fortress Monroe Wednesday.

A Cairo dispatch states that Forrest, with 7000 rebels, and artillery, advanced as far as Abion river on Wednesday night, and on Thursday morning cut off communication with Columbus, Ky., by destroying the railroad, cutting the telegraph wire, and burning bridges. Our forces at Columbus went to meet them.

A dispatch from the Red River expedition, 15th, after detailing the particulars of the capture of Fort DeRussey, says that Adm. Porter had been busily engaged in removing obstructions, and the transports were then proceeding up the river. He is said to have 12 vessels, carrying 158 guns. The rebels have an iron-plated ram,—the Missouri—on which they place great reliance. Our victory at the fort was complete, our troops charging on the enemy's rifle-pits and storming the fort, over deep ditches and through a thick abattis, in the face of a galling fire; and it resulted in the capture of 325 prisoners, including 24 commissioned officers, a lot of arms, 2000 barrels of powder, and several thousand dollars' worth of commissary stores. Fort DeRussey, which Gen. Smith will destroy, is a formidable work, quadrangular in shape, with bastions and bomb proofs covered with railroad iron. A powerful water battery connects with the fort, the casemates of which are capable of resisting the heaviest shot and shell. About 800 negroes were employed a year in constructing the earthworks.

The pirate Florida arrived at Funchal, Feb. 27. The U. S. sloop of war St. Louis is there, but as she is a sailing vessel the Florida will probably slip out during a calm and escape. Com. Preble now commands the St. Louis. He was dismissed for not stopping the Florida when she ran into Mobile, but was afterwards restored upon an investigation of the facts.

— Fast Day in Maine—April 14.

— The Invalid Corps is hereafter to be known as the Veteran Reserve Corps.

— A rebel deserter, being asked if the conscription was rigid, replied "They take every man who hasn't been dead more than two days!"

— The latest returns of the vote of New York on the soldiers' suffrage, show a majority of 161,000 in favor of the constitutional amendment.

—It has been discovered that Iowa has an excess of seven hundred and thirty men over all the calls, instead of a deficiency of six thousand as at first reported.

— A Troy paper states that a young lady in that city is to be raffled for. She has many admirers; but it seems she likes all equally well, and so adopts the lottery system to settle the quandrecrata.

— The office of the Kennebec and Portland Railroad, in Augusta, Me., was entered on Wednesday night, the safe of the Paymaster and Clerk blown open with gunpowder, and about $1200 abstracted.

— The General government allows the State of Maine credit for 131 enlistments in the navy, of which Portland receives credit for one. The matter is to be overhauled, and will probably be set right.

— According to a Washington despatch, Mr. Solicitor Whiting has decided that all persons liable to be enrolled are liable to be drafted, and though absent may be served with notice left at their last place of residence. Non-appearance upon such notice subjects them to the penalties of desertion. On this decision the Provost Marshal has issued his order.

— A committee to purchase a new Fire Engine for the city of Santiago, South America, have ordered one of the Johnson 2d class machines of the Portland Company, at an expense of $4100. This is the first steamer ordered for South America. It will be recollected that Santiago is the city where the fearful tragedy occured a few months since, by the burning of a church.

Water that flows from a spring does not freeze in the coldest winter. And those sentiments of true friendship which flow from the heart cannot be frozen by adversity.

It is said that he who giveth to the poor teacheth to the Lord, but many who profess to believe it compute with the Lord about the amount of the loan.

For the N. H. Gazette.

THE DANISH QUESTION.—It is not a little singular that we have no full explanation of the Schleswig-Holstein question, on which was brought on a war between Prussia and Austria on the one part, and Denmark on the other—the minor German States, including Schleswig, Holstein and Lauenburg, being bitterly hostile to both parties. The views presented in this country are mostly in favor of Denmark. We give an imperfect one, more such, as the Duchies themselves would approve.

At the commencement of this century the Elector of Hanover was the King of the British Empire, and the King of Denmark was Duke of Schleswig, of Holstein, and of Lauenburg. Both these kings had votes in the German Diet. But Hanover did not join British territory, and the motive for stealing Hanover was small, and the theft would have been difficult. But Schleswig joins Jutland, which is Continental Denmark; Holstein joins Schleswig, and little Lauenburg Holstein. To incorporate them into itself was not only immensely desirable to Denmark, but necessary to make it into a decent sized kingdom. Moreover, between Schleswig and Holstein runs a canal, through which large vessels could enter the Baltic without the consent of Denmark, were she to part with the Duchies.

The late king of Denmark and the last king of England died leaving no sons.—The German (Salic) law of succession is different from that of England and Denmark. Victoria had no right to the throne of Hanover, nor the present king of Denmark to the Duchies. But more: the work of Danicising the Duchies has been pushed to the uttermost, in years past, leading to one war between the unfortunate inhabitants and their Siamese twin. They are Germans, speak German and love Deutschland. But their vote in Diet was always given against the interests of the German people, and with the tyrants who rule Hungarians, Poles, Italians, Bohemians, Lithuanians, etc., etc. The attack of these monarchs on Denmark is in the nature of a back-fire, lest the conflagration of German patriotism should ultimately consume the unnatural ties that hold Poles, Hungarians, and Italians to a people that have common interests, language, and habits of thinking, feeling and acting different from those of these heterogeneous aggregations.

The cool proposition of Prussia, Austria and England is to dethrone the legitimate hereditary prince of the Duchies, in favor of a relative of Victoria's son, and an enemy to the German people. And it is noteworthy that the party in England that is hostile to the interests of the free United States is hostile to that of the Duchies also; while those noble men who have pleaded our cause are pleading also that of an oppressed portion of the German race.

I. F. H.

KENTUCKY.—The Cincinnati Gazette has a Kentucky letter showing that Slavery and Rebellion run together in that State as elsewhere, and that the slaveholding localities, whatever they may have done toward filling the ranks of the Rebel armies, have done very little for those of the Union.—Here is a sample of his analysis:

"Take the ten largest slaveholding counties, and the ten counties which have the smallest number of slaves, and see how many men each class has furnished the Union armies. The large slaveholding counties have furnished 26 per cent of their enrolled militia, while the ten counties with the fewest slaves have furnished 65 per cent of their enrolled militia. In the former there are 65,519 slaves—about 26 per cent of the whole number in the State. In the latter counties there are 1,076 slaves. The former, out of a voting population of 23,009, have furnished 3,665 soldiers; the latter, out of a voting population of 1,479, have furnished 3,508 soldiers to the Union Army.

"Again: take the Counties of Fayette and Pulaski, which have about the same number of voters. Layette has 9,349 slaves, and has sent to the field 380 men. Pulaski has 1,261 slaves, and has sent to the field 1,283 men. But there is this difference to be noticed also: of the 380 men from Layette, 100 of them enlisted as officers, and the privates, almost to a man, are from the non-slaveholding portion of the population of Lexington, and one precinct in the county, in which was a large cotton factory, the hands of which were non-slaveholders."

Now what Garret Davis & Co., are fighting for in Congress is an exemption of those great slaveholding counties from the draft which has become all but inevitable. The slaveholders have generally declined to enlist; their places in the ranks are still vacant; and the Government, which must have men, says to them, "Since you will not volunteer, we must conscript your slaves." "O no!" shriek the slaveholders; "leave us our negroes, and conscript instead the Poor Whites! Screen such counties as Lafayette,—take another pull on Pulaski!" Perhaps the Poor Whites like this enough to fight for it. We shall see.—N. Y. Trib.

☞ An item went round a while ago, to the effect that while Wm. Loyd Garrison was in prison in Baltimore in 1830, Henry Clay paid the fine and costs, and set him free: but this is not strictly correct. The fine, says Mr. Garrison, was paid by Arthur Tappan, Esq., of New York, though it is doubtless true, that Mr. Clay would have paid the fine, if he had not been anticipated by Mr. Tappan,—as he had written to that effect.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

——The Governor and Council have decided to pay bounties to all who may enlist between March 20 and April 1.

—— Josiah H. Hobbs, of Madison, has been appointed Solicitor for Carroll County, vice Chas. Chesley, resigned.

—— Lieut. Col. Hutchins telegraphs from Washington, that the horses for the new cavalry will probably be purchased in this State.

—— The Governor and Council have voted to extend the State bounty of $100 to non-residents the same as to volunteers from our own State.

—— Groves Stevens, Esq., of Haverhill, has been appointed Sheriff of Grafton Co., vice Wyman Pattee, Esq., of Enfield, resigned.

—— J. L. Hatch has accepted the invitation of the Unitarian Society in Concord to become its Pastor, and will probably commence his labors about the first of May.

—— A building occupied for bleaching cotton waste, at Manchester, was destroyed by fire, caused by spontaneous combustion, Tuesday evening. The property belonged to James M. Varnum and Thomas L. Thorpe, whose joint loss is about $4000, on which there is no insurance.

—— The dwelling house, barn and out buildings of William Sturtevant Esq., of Centre Harbor, were destroyed by fire on Sunday night last. Six Cattle, twelve Sheep, a very valuable horse, hay, grain and farming tools were all lost. Loss over $3,000, with $500 insurance.

—— Daniel Jones, of Lee, a member of Co. C, 6th N. H. Regiment, was drowned on Monday night of last week, half a mile beyond Newmarket, where the bridge was overflowed by the freshet, and his lifeless body was found the next morning. He was about forty years of age, and leaves no family.

—— Rev. N. Bouton, D. D., Pastor of the First Congregational Society in Concord, will preach his Thirty-Ninth Anniversary Sermon, on Sunday afternoon, Mar. 27th. There are now only two clergymen in New-Hampshire who have been settled as long as Dr. Bouton—Dr. Barstow of Keene, and Rev. Mr. Burnham of Rindge.

—— The officers of the 1st regiment of N. H. Cavalry, recently appointed, are J. L. Thompson, late Captain in the R. I. Cavalry, Colonel; Capt. Benj. T. Hutchins, of Concord, of the 6th U. S. Regular Cavalry, Lieut. Colonel; Capt. Arnold Wyman, of Manchester, 1st Major, and John A. Cummings, of Peterboro', late Captain in the 6th N. H. Regiment, 2d Major. All these have seen service. The Regiment bids fair to be an excellent one.

[For the N. H. Gazette.]

BRIBERY IN CONGRESS!—Dear Uncle Toby:—Will you be kind enough to secure the ayes and noes on the various motions relative to taxing spirits on hand, to selling gold, to renewing India-rubber patents, and to maintaining the monopoly of travel and freight between New York and Philadelphia. It is clear to me that most of the votes against the two former, and in favor of the two latter, are prompted either by disloyalty or corruption. And so strong are the grounds of suspicion, that no one who shall have voted wrong on either of the four should ever be trusted by the people again. Yours, WACAWANDA.

☞ It is well understood now, that Voltaire's tomb, in the Pantheon, France, is empty—his remains having been carried off by unknown hands, probably unfriendly to his memory. Speaking of this, the Boston Post says:

It was not in good taste, but it was comparatively pardonable as a wholesome terror to future evil doers, for the Royalists to disinter his bones and scatter the ashes of Cromwell; but no such excuse can be pleaded for disturbing the corse of the bold thinker, who will live forever in his great works.

To us it seems a most ignoble act to wreak the vengeance of the living on the ashes of the dead, whether they be sinners or saints, presbyterians or atheists. U. T.

ORIGIN OF COFFEE.—Coffee is derived from the Arabic kahwah— Turkish kahek—says Mr. Crawford in the proceedings of the British Association. The English word evidently comes direct from the Turkish. The coffee plant is a native of Abyssinia, and not of Arabia; for it was not known at Mecca till 1464, only forty years before the discovery of America. The true name of the plant is ban—and kahwah or coffee, means "wine," as a substitute for which the decoction was used; although the legality of the practice was long a subject of dispute by the Mohammedan doctors. From Arabia it spread to Egypt and Turkey, and from the last named country was brought to England in 1650. In sixty years time it was familiarly known, at least in fashionable society, as we find from Pope's well known lines in the "Rape of the Lock":

Coffee, which makes the politician wise,
And see through all things with his half shut eyes.

— A case in the Supreme Court of New York was decided by Judge Barnard in favor of the constitutionality of the National bounty law.

— Mr. Joseph Merrill, of Westbrook, Me., lost a horse by death recently, 22 years old, who had been driven by him 85,000 miles—most of them in a loaded team.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies oft-n act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for CLEARING and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. mh21—1mdaw

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—The basis of this truly wonderful preparation, now of such well-earned celebrity, is a freedom from every component calculated to debilitate, and by such to allow the greatest freedom of use, day or night, as the only true theory by which THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS can be effectually cured. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, when local causes make almost all such complaints difficult of effect, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, WHOOPING COUGH, all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION. Testimonials from Physicians of the highest respectability, and from invalids, can be seen at my office by all interested.

This is not the company which was advertised by posters to appear in this city a night or two since. They are highly spoken of by our exchanges; the Newburyport Herald says:

The Ticket-of-leave-Man was performed most admirably by Brown's Dramatic Company, at City Hall, on Thursday evening. They had a good house, which was deserved.

☞ The Solicitor of the War Department has decided that a person enlisting into the marine corps or naval service of the United States, whether enrolled or not, if he might be enrolled, is to be credited to the quota of the place where he was liable to military service. Persons so enlisting not liable to military service, whether enrolled or not, should not be credited to any quota.

☞ The Boston Advertiser gives the quotas, etc., of the New England States by districts, under the call for 200,000 men. The figures for New Hampshire are as follows: 1st District,—quota 954; excess under last call, 52; balance remaining to be furnished, 902. 2d District,—quota, 774; excess, 113; balance, 661; 3d District, quota, 860; deficiency under last call, 5; balance, 865. Total quota of the State, 2588; excess, 165; deficiency, 5: balance, 2428. The reenlisted Veterans are to be deducted from this number.

ENLISTMENTS IN THE NAVY.—Provost Marshal General Fry has written to Gen. Schouler, of Massachusetts, as follows, relative to credits for men enlisting in the navy:

1st. Credits for men who enlist in the naval service, and whose names are borne on the enrollment lists as in the naval service when enrolled, will be allowed on the present call for 500 000 men.

2d. The commanding officers of naval rendezvous and recruiting stations are required to report the number of men enlisting, and place to which they are to be credited.

3d. Those enlisting after the enrollment and prior to the passage of the act approved Feb. 24, cannot be credited under the provisions of Section 2 of that act, unless their names are borne on the enrollment lists.

Some say that the quickest way to destroy weeds is to marry a widow. It is, no doubt, a most agreeable species of husbandry.

A SAD STORY.—Ellen Welch was recently fined five dollars and committed to the Bridewell for ninety days, in Chicago, for drunkenness and vagrancy. The Chicago Journal says she is the niece of Daniel O'Connell, the daughter of his Sister Mary O'Connell, and that she could claim as her father the lord of Kearney Castle. She eloped with a young officer, and the couple came to Philadelphia, where they resided one year, when the husband died. The widow went to Chicago, married again, lost her second husband, got into disreputable company, and went from bad to worse, until she brought up in a police court.

UNIVERSAL love is like a mitten, which fits all hands alike, but none closely: true affection is like a glove which fits one hand only; but sits closely to that one.

Some people imagine that eccentricity is a mark of genius; and with an utter contempt for the way of the world, make themselves ridiculous to win a cheap notoriety.

Nobody likes to be nobody; but everybody is pleased to think himself somebody. And everybody is somebody; but when anybody thinks himself to be somebody, he generally thinks everybody else to be nobody.

WE ASSERT IT BOLDLY.—There are no other medicines so reliable, effectual and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment, always ready for use. They are invaluable to the soldier exposed to wounds, sores, fevers and bowel complaints. They never fail. Only 30 cents per box or pot.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

WHY HAVE YOU NOT INSURED YOUR LIFE?

Is a question which may be asked of all those who have a family dependent upon them for support. Do you reflect upon the fate of your wife and children in case you should be suddenly snatched away? Have you no thought for the trials, privations, misery that your loss would entail upon them? Can you calmly view the possibility of their being left destitute on the cold charity of the world, dependent upon strangers for a miserable pittance, or sunk through want and despair to the lowest stage of human wretchedness, or more fearful still, vice and crime? Can you contemplate this, and not make it the one sole object of your life to place them beyond the reach of such unhappy possibilities? Will you not cheerfully debar yourself from some trifling gratification? Nay, will you not even make large sacrifices rather than have such a picture constantly before you? If you are not thoroughly selfish and uncaring for those around you, you will at once effect an Assurance to provide for them; and then you will feel the delight experienced by every honest man when he has fulfilled a duty. You will lie down on your pillow with a proud feeling that you have done your best for your family, and, in the event of illness, your mind will not be tormented by anxiety as to their fate, but will be cheered by the thought that they will not be left wholly destitute.

Alas! we do not seriously apply these things to ourselves; or there would be no delay in Assuring. We see daily our fellow men carried to their last resting places; we are absent for a time, from some friends and acquaintances, and on inquiring for them are told, perhaps, that they are dead; this information, coming at a time when we expect to see them alive and well, naturally startles us; we experience a sad, choking sensation, by death being brought so near to us, and we can hardly understand the bereavement; we pause, perhaps, for a moment, to think of the uncertainties of human life, but we do not include ourselves as coming within their range. We cannot, in our health and strength, believe that death can be otherwise than afar off; for, whilst we acknowledge the power he has over others, we are slow to admit he has the same power over ourselves.

Why is this? are we not mortal? Is not our thread of life as brittle as theirs whose death we have seen recorded? Why then go on with our senses deadened to the truth? Why reject the evidence daily offered to us, that, whilst boasting in our strength of the morrow, a few short hours may see that strength departed from us? Pause, then, ere it be too late; whilst you have health and strength do not neglect a duty that you cannot perform should you be stretched on a bed of sickness—you cannot assure then, therefore do it at once.

Can a worse picture be conceived than that of a man stricken down by a lingering illness, feeling the cold hand of death approaching him by gradual yet certain steps, and his last sands of life embittered by the thought that he is leaving a wife and children to poverty? As the wife and mother tends his couch with that anxious loving care which only women can bestow, each glance of her pale face and tearful eye causes him anguish and regret; each caress of his children is as it were a reproach to him; and that love and affection, which would otherwise brighten and cheer him perhaps to recovery, only hastens his end. Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, says, "Still, still, the victim of affliction. Alas! I began to feel the worst, Burns' poor widow and half a dozen of his dear little ones helpless orphans; there I am as weak as a woman's tear—enough of this, 'tis half my disease."

Contrast this mental anxiety in the midst of bodily suffering with the serenity and peace of mind of him who, having effected a Life Assurance, has on his bed of sickness no anxiety for the welfare of his family; the presence of his wife and little ones in his sick-room brings with it no reproach, and the peace of mind thus induced has often served to mitigate the poignancy of his suffering and assist the power of medicine. On the other hand, should death be the result of his illness, no agonizing thoughts of the future of his dear ones distract his mind, keeping it as it were hovering between earth and heaven. With the certainty of their being provided for, he can more fully give his mind to those consolations that will enable him to pass away in hopes of a better state.

Wives and mothers should use their influence to induce their husbands to assure; to them the question is all-important. Some women have been known to pursuade their husbands not to assure, believing that if they did so it would tend to shorten life; were they to be told that Life Assurance, on the contrary, tends to prolong it, they might treat the assertion as absurd, and yet nothing is more reasonable; experience has proved it to be true; the mind at ease exercises, there is no doubt, the greatest influence upon the health of the body, and this may be proved by the statistics relating to annuitants and those who have a sure provision for the remainder of their days.

The influence of women is powerful, and it is a duty she owes to her husband, her children, and herself, to use that influence on behalf of Life Assurance. Mothers, in your love for your little ones,—(and what can equal a mother's love?) in your anxiety to provide against any harm that may befall them do you ever think of the dangers and trials to which they may be exposed, should they be deprived of him who had he been spared, would have provided for their support during their tender youth? If you do, then urge your husbands to assure, and do not rest until you see your children's future made safe.

There are many who say, they will assure, but they would rather wait a few months first. How baneful are the effects of procrastination! When we know not what a day or an hour may bring forth, shall we jeopardize the welfare of those around us by our willful delay? shall we continually say to-morrow, and to-morrow, until it never comes?—*N. Constitution Life Syrup
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigation of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, all and who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as frequent as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow regular process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down comes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating in a DEPRAVED OR LOW STATE OF BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Pain at Stom'h, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Strume, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling the with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

(Arthritis), Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated, and confirmed cripples are reduced. Cases, chronic or virulent, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Prostrated by nervous weakness, suffering would find medicine prove an inestimable blessing—disease at their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bone, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system effectually from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup
Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both females and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Cures all Swellings of the Glands

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to these disorders from the Kars, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovarian and womb, generally accompanied with Inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. If the disease known as Kidney or Gravel Stone, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra efforts. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swellings of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (Palpitation, Disease of the Valves producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indisposition to Exertion, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Nervousness, Irritability, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Disorders of the Reproductive System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Secretive Diseases, affecting the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

NODES AND BLOTCHES upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the system, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Jaundice, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an elevated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore the pallid countenance, strengthen their weak backs, and give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most efficacious medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. Strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured.—It is Universal in its effects.

THE BRAVE AT HOME.

The maid who binds her warrior's sash,
With smile that will her pain dissemble,
The while beneath her drooping lash
One starry tear-drop hangs and trembles,
Though heaven alone records the tear,
And Fame shall never know her story,
Her heart has shed a drop as dear
As ever dewed the field of glory.

The wife who gives her husband's sword,
A trifle to one who loves to wonder,
And bravely speaks the cheering word,
What though her heart be rent asunder—
Doomed nightly in her dreams to hear
The foes of war around him rattle,
Hath shed as sacred blood as e'er
Was poured upon the plain of battle!

The mother who conceals her grief,
While to her breast her son she presses,
Then breathes a few brave words and brief,
Kissing the patriot brow she blesses,
With no one but her secret God
To know the pain that weighs upon her,
Sheds holy blood as ever trod
Received on Freedom's field of honor!

MARKET STREET,
PORTSMOUTH.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 LAGRANGE STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotum, Gonorrhœa, Ulcerations and Eruptions of the Genital Region, of prostration, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Tumors, frightful Swellings and the long train of terrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest allings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by such a habit of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventative. Orders by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 LAGRANGE STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppressed, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons seek rejoicing in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had more practical experience in the care of Diseases of women and children than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days for treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four cent stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Inconvenience of the Urines, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Scrictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females, in which all the old common medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing every vestige of all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an aid or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and ameliorate removing all acrid, burning, scalding and pain, instead of the burning and almost intolerable pain that is experienced with nearly all the other specifics.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all impurities or discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

"WITH TWO OVENS."

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure) the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are lined with tin, and jackets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In addition to pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT Stove, and we think it will stand all others in Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and comfort are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

E. A. STEVENS'S

House Furnishing Establishment,

NO. 46 MARKET STREET

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNRQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied, for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about refitting or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, such as we breathe—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce Bronchial Coughs and Colds, so prevalent in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney. To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former ones, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious—the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your premises.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give a small amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert H. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every sim fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS"—This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the SUPREME LAW of the land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.—Constitution, U. S.

THE LETTER H.—One of the particularly pleasant stories told by Mr. Gough, of his experiences in England, is that of his once being "nearly floored with an H," though it was not so much the misplaced H that hit him, as that which accompanied it. He was about to address a large audience on his favorite subject of temperance, and the chairman, a rotund Englishman, undertook to introduce him. Happening to recollect the miracle of Samson getting water from the jaw bone with which he had slain the Philistines, and thinking to turn it to account, he said:—

"Ladies and Gentlemen: I 'ave the honor to 'introduce to you the distinguished lecturer, Mr. John B. Gough, who will address us on the subject of temperance. You know that temperance is thought to be rather a dry subject; but to-night, as we listen to our friend, the horator from hover the hocean, we may 'ope to 'ave the miracle of Samson repeated, and be refreshed with water from the jaw bone of an hass!"

SELLING A WIFE.—Under an act of Kentucky, a man may sell his wife to another for a compensation, provided she be exposed in a market place, with a cord of fibrous material placed about her neck. We learn that a member of the 14th Iowa, whose wife lived near Davis' livery stable, undertook to sell her to one of Mr. Hill's subordinates, for $25, and received $15 on account. The purchaser afterwards refused to pay the balance, and the case was taken before Col. Shaw for adjustment. On being questioned, the buyer acknowledged the transaction, but said the woman was unsound, and furthermore a great scold. He finally agreed, however, to pay the $10 and return the woman. The bargain, we suppose, was not considered legal, as the terms of the law had not been complied with.—Columbus War Eagle.

GOOD WORKS NOT DANGEROUS.—An old minister of Dublin, N. H., was suspected of unsoundness. A committee of the church waited upon him with their grievances: "We have had works, works, Mr. Sprague, until the church is alarmed; and we have called upon you to express to you the grief and the fear of the brethren." The pastor heard them patiently through, and blandly replied, "Gentlemen of the committee, put yourselves entirely at rest, and let the brethren be comforted. I do assure you, there are not good works enough in the town of Dublin to damn a single soul."—Religious Monthly Magazine.

This world is not made for a tomb, but a garden. You are to be a seed, not a death. Plant yourself, and you will sprout. Bury yourself, and you can only decay. For a dead opportunity there is no resurrection. The only enjoyment, the only use to be attained in this world, must be attained on the wing. Each day brings its own happiness, its own benefit; but it has none to spare. To-morrow has no overflow to stone for the lost yesterdays.—Gail Hamilton.

The relation between the sexes in Japan differs from that of most Oriental countries. The position of a woman is well-defined and natural. She is not the slave, but the counsellor of her husband; she assists him in his business; her sphere is in the house, and her duty the education of her children. There are no "strong-minded women" in Japan, remarks, with satisfaction, an accomplished Prussian traveller; all are joyous girls, or amiable wives. That is exactly what Japanese Tommy thought of our American ladies.

The following has been suggested as the traitor's coat of arms:—The traitor's "coat of arms" consists of a flea, a fly, a magpie, and a side of bacon. Explanation:—A flea will bite either the quick or the dead; so will a traitor! A fly "blows," corrupts and contaminates all it comes in contact with; so will a traitor! A magpie is always chattering, talking and lying; so is a traitor! A side of bacon is never "cured" till it is hung; neither is a traitor!

A judge said to a toper on trial for drunkenness: "Prisoner, you have heard the prosecution for habitual drunkenness; what have you to say in your defence?" "Nothing, please your honor, but habitual thirst."

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
76 State street, opposite Kirby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the Claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not unsurpassed by superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay thereby, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDM. BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

The Committee on the Conduct of the War, it is said, have found no evidence against Gen. Meade in their investigations.

An attempt was made on the night of the 5th inst. to destroy the U. S. screw steamer Memphis, in North Edisto Inlet, by a cigar-shaped torpedo boat, but it was seen by the watch on board, and the vessel escaped by slipping the cable and crowding on all steam.

Bushwackers are becoming active in Missouri; and a band of guerrillas has been committing many depredations in the vicinity of Mayfield, Ky.

We have New Orleans dates to the 19th. Previous to that date, part of Adm. Porter's fleet appeared off Alexandria, La., and demanded its surrender, which was complied with without opposition. The prisoners captured at Fort De Russy had arrived at New Orleans. Gen. Banks would leave for the field on Saturday, the 19th. The army in Western Louisiana was moving: Gen. Lee's forces had a fight at New Iberia, and pursued the rebels across Vermillion Prairies to Vermillion Bayou, distance nineteen miles. Advices from Brownsville, Texas, report no prospects of fighting.—New roads and fortifications were being made. Rebel deserters and refugees were continually arriving there; it is said that 2000 in all have arrived there; and that 300 rebels who were sent out in pursuit of a party of 150 deserters from one regiment, overtook the latter and joined them in the flight.

A Washington dispatch says great numbers of ambulances have gone to the front. An order has been issued allowing officers and privates of the invalid corps, fit for active duty, to enter the veteran corps.

The N. Y. World's Washington dispatch has a very doubtful rumor that the entire militia of the North is to be called into service for six months, to hold certain strategical points during the campaign against Richmond. The Times's dispatch says orders have been issued directing all officers and men on duty at the various headquarters, whose services are not positively needed there, to repair at once to their regiment.

The rumor is again revived that the delegation to the rebel Congress have returned to Kentucky and are inciting the people to revolt in anticipation of the arrival of Breckinridge and Buckner with a corps of invasion.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The stockholders of the Derry Bank contemplate adopting the National Banking Law.

—— The people of Moultonborough are going to pay all their town indebtedness in 1864—some $18,000. So says the Statesman.

—— The session of the Council last week was cut short by the sudden illness of Gov. Gilmore, who is suffering from a severe and dangerous attack of congestion of the lungs.

—— Rev. Mr. Gushee, Rector of St. Thomas' Church, Dover, has received a call to St. Paul's Church, Wallingford, Conn., near New Haven.

—— Here is a toast given at the Dover celebration of St. Patrick's Day:

—— The following toast was recently given at a Union gathering in Plaistow:

The American Eagle—May he never rise in anger, nor go to roost in fear.

—— Mr. W. W. Storrs, recently cashier of the Orange County (Vt.) Bank, it is understood has been appointed cashier of the First National Bank in Concord.

—— The Concord Statesman thinks the democrats in this State have waited for victory with the patience of Christian martyrs—a virtue which it seems probable may be kept in exercise many years longer.

—— The Claremont Eagle states that in Claremont on Wednesday, 16th, Mrs. Kazuerson, being suddenly taken by a fit, fell upon a stove, and was so badly burned that her recovery is doubtful.

—— The Laconia Democrat states that the Directors of the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad are consulting with committees of the inhabitants of Whitefield, Dalton, Lancaster, &c., upon the propriety of making the attempt to extend the railroad from Littleton to the Grand Trunk Railroad, at Northumberland. The people there think they can build about ten miles of road a year by having a little assistance from the lower roads or the people below. The whole distance is 23 miles.

—— The Concord Democrat states that there is a prospect that Volumes 16, 17, and 18 of the N. H. Reports will soon fill the vacancy that has so long existed.—Judge Parker has already issued Volume 16, and the other two volumes will be published in the course of the year. The publication of the complete Digest of New Hampshire Reports, now being prepared by Hon. Edward A. Rollins, will be delayed until Judge Parker's volumes are issued, and will then be immediately published.

Some anonymous miscreant in this department has attacked, by the creation of rumors, the characters of the ladies who left the North to teach the contrabands at Beaufort and on the islands here. The charges made are too revolting and shameful to report. The ladies who have engaged to perform the task of educating the negroes of this department may misdirect their time, or aim at unprofitable ends, but they are refined, virtuous women, who evince the enthusiasm and fidelity of their sex in the discharge of their work.

To state anything implying immoral conduct between them and negroes, is to utter a base, unmanly and foul slander on their characters. I have known some of them, and I can thus "speak by the card." If a report was circulated that the lady teachers are out of their "teens"; that some of them are approaching the serious ages of from five-and-twenty to thirty, with single blessedness hanging to their skirts like a millstone; and that when they came to this department they might have a woman's idea of marriage with some of our high military officers or wealthy civilians mixed up with their philanthropy to the negro, the report would be, or might be, truthful.

We have had four or five marriages in Beaufort, where these ladies, who did not have beaux at the North, were mated with men of their choice after a brief courtship. The accomplished lady of one of our Generals is among those who teach the contrabands. Two other ladies have been recently married, and a few more are "engaged." They are constantly open to surveillance, and no one with truth or honesty can impeach their character. The author of the slander it is hoped will be discovered, and you may depend he will at least be banished from this department.

We first saw the dirty libel in a Portland copperp aper; but did not allude to it, supposing it would soon be contradicted, as it has been. Next we observed it in the Concord Patriot, with an addition, purporting to be an endorsement of some part of it, by Rev. Liberty Billings. And next in the Boston Courier, backed up by an editorial commendation of the Patriot's truthfulness and respectability.

Now, however, in publishing the above full contradiction, the Courier says:—

We need scarcely remark, that it never came into our mind that ladies of any sort of pretension to refinement or character could consort with negroes, as intimated by the paragraph in question; and, therefore, those of well-known respectability, who had gone upon the mission to Port Royal from this part of the country, did not occur to us as subject to the gross imputations upon this class of well-meaning but deluded "missionaries." * * * But we feel bound to say further, that we should have declined to give this paragraph circulation in this paper, upon whomsoever it might bear, but for the authority given to it by the name of the Rev. Liberty Billings, a white New Hampshire clergyman, Lieut. Colonel of the 1st South Carolina Regiment (colored).

The first of these quotations is very well for the ladies,—but the second is rather a severe cut on the truthfulness of the Patriot, so finely endorsed but the other day.

The Newburyport Herald says:

It is denied that the lady teachers at Hilton Head have been miscegenating. Nobody believed it to begin with.

Then the copperhead editors who coined and retailed the dirty lie, and their ignorant readers who swallowed it, are "nobody?" Truly the veracity of the former turns out to be a nonentity, and the brain of the latter a minus quantity.

The innuendo, slander, and unfairness of the original item, show it to be the work of just such minds as have persistently lied in print for the last twenty-five years about the West India emancipation:—and the eagerness with which such stuff is swallowed by some well-meaning men, only shows that the fools are not all dead yet. U. T.

Since the above was in type, we have seen a letter from Rev. Liberty Billings, contradicting the libel and saying:

I have never, as alleged, given any sanction to its statements, and pronounce it an atrocious calumny against the lady teachers at Port Royal, who are, as I believe, noble and upright, both in character and in the work in which they are engaged.

— Persons who want oysters must shell out. The price has gone up again.

— They are to have a Town Historical Society in Bath Me.

— The official majority for allowing soldiers to vote in New York State is 210,716.

— Eleven pulpits of one denomination, in New York city and vicinity, are now vacant.

— It is estimated that forty thousand have deserted from our army, fifteen thousand of whom are in Canada.

— The London papers advertise the sale of Thackeray's house and effects, on the 16th March.

— It is believed that the President will soon issue a proclamation offering pardon to all deserters from the United States armies.

— The iron manufacturers of Pittsburg held a meeting on Tuesday, and advanced the price of iron, all sizes, ten dollars per ton. Nails remain unchanged.

— Joe Coburn of New York city has accepted the challenge of James Mace to fight in Ireland, and leaves for England May 1.

— Portland claims to have furnished more than a thousand men for the navy, but by the returns from Washington she is credited with just one man!

☞ The Herald states that a marriage took place in Newburyport on Thursday, where the ceremony of the ring, or of joining hands, &c., was entirely omitted, the bridegroom in the case, Mr. Lewis Augustine Horton, of Plainfield, N. H., having no hands to use. He is the person to whom we referred some months since, as having lost both arms at the shoulders, in the navy, so that there are not even stumps to which artificial arms can be attached.—This young man has been singularly unfortunate since this war began. At its very outset he enlisted in the navy, was wrecked on the Bahamas, and for two days and two nights drifted in a boat without a mouthful to eat or a drop of water. Next he went on board the Massachusetts, which took several prizes that did not yield much. He went on board one of these to bring her into port; was captured, and found himself in the Libby prison, where he remained 9 months, being held as a hostage for the man Gen. Butler hanged in New Orleans. In process of time he was exchanged. Again he was on board a ship, which undertook to tow a Monitor, but in a storm the Monitor went down, and in attempting to rescue her crew in a boat, in the night time, he and seven others drifted off into the Gulf, and were not picked up till the next day. Afterwards the ship, when in St. Domingo, fired a salute in honor of a Spanish Admiral and by a premature explosion he found himself blown into the water, both arms gone, and both shoulders dislocated. He was sent home in charge of a brother of the young lady he has now married, and on his way stopped some time in Newburyport. Since his marriage he has started for Washington, intending to ask Congress for a pension.

☞ A short time since, several ladies connected with the New York Sanitary Fair called upon Mrs. Augustus Belmont, and requested her to hold a concert, for the benefit of the Fair, among her friends.—She took it under advisement, and consented to do so, and made arrangements accordingly. She found her house would accommodate about 300 guests. She issued her tickets for that number, at $5 a ticket. She was shortly visited by the same committee, who informed her that the price of tickets must not exceed $2 each. They were informed that Mrs. Belmont's friends would as soon give five or ten dollars as two—that the house was small, the expense would be the same, and the receipts to the fair very much diminished. But the lady managers were persistent—two dollars and no more must be the extent, or they would have nothing to do with the concert. Mrs. Belmont, who has much of the spirit of her heroic father, informed the ladies that she was quite competent to manage her own affairs, in her own house, and that they might consider themselves as discharged from all further duty in regard to her concert. Her husband, on learning this state of things, handed his wife $1500 in greenbacks—took all her tickets and carried them down town, sold some and gave the rest away to his friends, and made ample provisions to have the concert a success. It came off,—the rooms were brilliant and crowded—the beauty and fashion and wealth of New York were there in all their glory—Gottschalk and kindred performers charmed the brilliant audience, and Mrs. Belmont has $1500 in her hands to contribute to the Sanitary Commission.

☞ A St. Paul (Minnesota) dispatch states that a lieutenant belonging to Quantrell's gang has been arrested there. His name is Vandevere, and he is said to be one of the most desperate of the whole crew. He is known to have committed two murders with his own hands in Ray county, Mo., and was engaged in the sacking of Lawrence. Two months since he went to St. Paul, and secured employment as porter at the Witcher House, where he was discovered by two men who were in search of him.

☞ A letter from Point Lookout, Md. says that when the last batch of rebel prisoners left the Point for exchange, on calling the rolls a great many were found wanting, and did not come to call, showing plainly that some who had signed the books for exchange had changed their minds and determined to leave the Confederacy, while others, stimulated by fear, bad in presence of the company recorded their names for exchange, when they, at the same time, never intended to go South. The same will occur as each division is called out.

☞ The committee appointed by the Ohio House of Representatives to investigate the escape of John Morgan and party from the Penitentiary, have just reported. They find that the prisoners had no aid, and that none was required, since the escape could not have occurred, if the air-chamber under the cell had not existed.—They place all the blame on the military authorities for not making a regular examination of the cells, and recommend hereafter that all prisoners confined in the Penitentiary be under the control of the Warden.

— Butter was sold in Newburyport last week as high as 65 cents a pound.

McCLELLAN'S REPORT.—A private letter from an officer in the army, an extract from which is given in the New York Evening Post, states that over a hundred of the dispatches which passed between the administration and Gen. McClellan were omitted in his published report. He says:

The report, as McClellan wrote it, has never been altered in any respect; what dispatches were left out were omitted by McClellan for reasons best known to himself. Many, probably, were not introduced because of their comparative unimportance; but many because they might have interfered with McClellan's interpretations of passing events.

☞ Mr. Marvel says he has no faith in cats; they are a coldblooded race; they are the politicians among domestic animals; they care little who is master, or what are the overturnings, so their pickings are secure; and what are their midnight caucuses but primary meetings.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies are the most speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, for the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. TYRIO SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them efficacious for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

☞ On Wednesday night, a citizen who had been in to some drinking places, by some mistake got overboard from one of our north end wharves, and would have been drowned, but for the activity of some sober people who drew him out of the water.—The Watch took him to the Watch House and made him comfortable till morning.

☞ The Gymnastic Exhibition at the Temple, Wednesday evening, promises to be a great success. The entertainment will be one of the most novel and interesting character and the object is of unquestionable merit. Better secure tickets while you can get them.

☞ The Ticket-of Leave man, it should be remembered, is to be performed at the Temple to-night by Browne's Dramatic company. The company is large, and, judging from our exchanges, has given good satisfaction wherever it has appeared. A contemporary which is cautious in giving commendatory notices of public exhibitions, bestowing them only on such as seem to its editors to deserve them, says of this play and this company: "It is a good play, and all the members of the company well sustain their appropriate characters."

☞ Prof. Harrington is to give an exhibition at Gunnison' Hall, Kittery Point, this (Monday) evening. He met with good success and gave good satisfaction in this city at the Temple last week.

☞ We learn that a few standee tickets will be sold for Gough's lecture, next Friday evening.

A CASE OF DESTITUTION.—One Mrs. McGrath, with several children, residing in an attic of a tenement house in the rear of Salem street, Boston, was found a few days since in a starving condition. She states that her husband, Patrick McGrath, was arrested by a police officer in August last, charged with drunkenness, and after being taken to the station house was spirited away to Portsmouth, N. H., where he was enlisted in the army for a large bounty, she having received a letter from him stating that he never got one dollar of the money, but that it was paid to the officer who took him into New Hampshire for enlistment. McGrath being taken out of the State, the poor woman cannot receive any State aid.—Boston Herald.

— Screw sloop Kearsarge, 7, was off Margate, England, on the 11th inst.

— A small quantity of spring butter, from Pennsylvania, was purchased for a hotel in Boston on Friday for one dollar per pound.

— The pirate Florida, which arrived at Funchal, Isle of Madeira, Feb. 28th, sailed for parts unknown on the evening of the next day.

— Hon Owen Lovejoy, of Illinois is dead. He was 53 years old. In Congress he has occupied a leading position among the most radical Republicans.

— A soldier writes that the most useful article that can be sent men in the field is a bunch of woolen yarn and a darning-needle, to mend their socks.

— A Washington dispatch says seamen in the Army who desire to be transferred to the Navy should make application by letter to the Navy Department.

— The so-called Spotted Fever at Long Branch, New-Jersey, has carried off 37 out of 90 cases. The N. Y. Tribune says it is believed to be caused by bad food, poisonous rye coffee, and bedroom air vitiated by kerosene lamp-smoke.

— In examining the dresses of an elderly lady recently deceased, in a town near Boston, preparatory to their being given to the poor, bills to the amount of three hundred and sixty dollars were found quilted into one of her petticoats.

— The Portland Company has contracts for seven of the steam fire engines manufactured by that Company under Johnson's patent. Also, a contract with the Grand Trunk Railway Company, to furnish seven locomotives for that road.

— A rebel agent who recently came into Kentucky to purchase cattle, was captured by Federal soldiers, who found on him $80,000 in Confederate money and $21,000 in greenbacks. One hundred and fifty head of cattle which he had collected were also captured.

— The Bath Times asserts that in the capital of Maine there was in vogue, during the past winter, a unique, but rather ancient custom of giving the horses the right of way, even on the sidewalk; and many a time it editor has seen pedestrians forced into a heap of snow by a passing sleigh.

— A man named Jones brought a suit against the town of Andover, Mass., for damages for injuries, in consequence of a defect in the highway. He lost his case, as the accident occurred on a Sunday evening while he was engaged in taking meat from South Reading to Lawrence.

☞ In France, a strict inquiry into the removal of Voltaire's remains has been ordered, and the Emperor has given instructions that the heart shall be enclosed in a silver vase, and deposited either in the great hall of the Imperial Library, or at the Institute of France. Probably nothing else will be found, as the priests and legitimists will keep their own secrets;—and as 50 years have elapsed since the time when the body was said to be stolen away.

☞ Remember the Ticket-of Leave Man at the Temple to-night.

WE ASSERT IT BOLDLY.—There are no other medicines so reliable, effectual and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment, always ready for use. They are invaluable to the soldier exposed to wounds, sores, fevers and bowel complaints. They never fail. Only 30 cents per box or pot.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other 'Salaratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with Cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

WHY HAVE YOU NOT INSURED YOUR LIFE?

Is a question which may be asked of all those who have a family dependent upon them for support. Do you reflect upon the fate of your wife and children in case you should be suddenly snatched away? Have you no thought for the trials, privations, misery that your loss would entail upon them? Can you calmly view the possibility of their being left destitute on the cold charity of the world, dependent upon strangers for a miserable pittance, or sunk through want and despair to the lowest stage of human wretchedness, or more fearful still, vice and crime? Can you contemplate this, and not make it the one sole object of your life to place them beyond the reach of such unhappy possibilities? Will you not cheerfully debar yourself from some trifling gratification? Nay, will you not even make large sacrifices rather than have such a picture constantly before you? If you are not thoroughly selfish and uncaring for those around you, you will at once effect an Assurance to provide for them; and then you will feel the delight experienced by every honest man when he has fulfilled a duty. You will lie down on your pillow with a proud feeling that you have done your best for your family, and, in the event of illness, your mind will not be tormented by anxiety as to their fate, but will be cheered by the thought that they will not be left wholly destitute.

Alas! we do not seriously apply these things to ourselves, or there would be no delay in Assuring. We see daily our fellow men carried to their last resting places; we are absent for a time, from some friends and acquaintances, and on inquiring for them are told, perhaps, that they are dead; this information, coming at a time when we expect to see them alive and well, naturally startles us; we experience a sad, choking sensation, by death being brought so near to us, and we can hardly understand the bereavement; we pause, perhaps, for a moment, to think of the uncertainties of human life, but we do not include ourselves as coming within their range. We cannot, in our health and strength, believe that death can be otherwise than afar off; for, whilst we acknowledge the power he has over others, we are slow to admit he has the same power over ourselves.

Why is this? are we not mortal? Is not our thread of life as brittle as their's whose death we have seen recorded? Why then go on with our senses deadened to the truth? Why reject the evidence daily offered to us, that, whilst boasting in our strength of the morrow, a few short hours may see that strength departed from us? Pause, then, ere it be too late; whilst you have health and strength do not neglect a duty that you cannot perform should you be stretched on a bed of sickness—you cannot assure then, therefore do it at once.

Can a worse picture be conceived than that of a man stricken down by a lingering illness, feeling the cold hand of death approaching him by gradual yet certain steps, and his last sands of life embittered by the thought that he is leaving a wife and children to poverty? As the wife and mother tends his couch with that anxious loving care which only women can bestow, each glance of her pale face and tearful eye causes him anguish and regret; each caress of his children is as it were a reproach to him; and that love and affection, which would otherwise brighten and cheer him perhaps to recovery, only hastens his end. Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, says, "Still, still, the victim of affliction. Alas! I began to feel the worst. Burns' poor widow and half a dozen of his dear little ones helpless orphans; there I am as weak as a woman's tear—enough of this, 'tis half my disease."

Contrast this mental anxiety in the midst of bodily suffering with the serenity and peace of mind of him who, having effected a Life Assurance, has on his bed of sickness no anxiety for the welfare of his family; the presence of his wife and little ones in his sick-room brings with it no reproach, and the peace of mind thus induced has often served to mitigate the poignancy of his suffering and assist the power of medicine. On the other hand, should death be the result of his illness, no agonizing thoughts of the future of his dear ones distract his mind, keeping it as it were hovering between earth and heaven. With the certainty of their being provided for, he can more fully give his mind to those consolations that will enable him to pass away in hopes of a better state.

Wives and mothers should use their influence to induce their husbands to assure; to them the question is all-important. Some women have been known to pursuade their husbands not to assure, believing that if they did so it would tend to shorten life; were they to be told that Life Assurance, on the contrary, tends to prolong it, they might treat the assertion as absurd, and yet nothing is more reasonable; experience has proved it to be true; the mind at ease exercises, there is no doubt, the greatest influence upon the health of the body, and this may be proved by the statistics relating to annuitants and those who have a sure provision for the remainder of their days.

The influence of women is powerful, and it is a duty she owes to her husband, her children, and herself, to use that influence on behalf of Life Assurance. Mothers, in your love for your little ones, (and what can equal a mother's love?) in your anxiety to provide against any harm that may befall them, do you ever think of the dangers and trials to which they may be exposed, should they be deprived of him who, had he been spared, would have provided for their support during their tender youth? If you do, then urge your husbands to assure, and do not rest until you see your children's future made safe.

There are many who say, they will assure, but they would rather wait a few months first. How baneful are the effects of procrastination! When we know not what a day or an hour may bring forth, shall we jeopardize the welfare of those around us by our willful delay? shall we continually say to-morrow, and to morrow, until it never comes?—N. Y. Independent.

Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y. formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depot, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as tenacious as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium, but when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Costiveness, Bloomers, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Struma, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

Arthritis, Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly weak, suffering women find in our medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. Restoring spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which, unfortunate so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Swellings in the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the Ovaries or and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly obstinate and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Palpitation, Hysteria, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indisposition to Exercise, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Easily Prostrated, Nervous Timidity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Dull Eyes, Weak Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all sorts of Secretive Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

Diseases of the Liver which are so fatal, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. As for bottles of Constitution Life Syrup to correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant sensations, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES it is the safest and most efficacious remedy ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly valued by both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

DR. TEBBETTS' PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR

—AND—

UNIVERSAL HAIR RESTORER.

ITS MODUS OPERANDI.

Immediately beneath the scalp there are very small glands, or, more commonly Roots of the Hair. It is from these glands that every hair of the head is formed and secreted. As long as the scalp is free from disease these bodies also remain healthy, and the hair keeps its natural appearance and color. But when humors and other diseases affect the scalp, these glands become involved in the same disease, and the hair gradually turns gray, dry and brittle, and sometimes the hair begins to fall out, and in many cases, it not arrested, will produce a complete baldness of the scalp.

To remedy this pathological condition of the glands and create a new and healthy action, the Physiological Hair Regenerator has proved a potent success—instances without number, and great notoriety have shown that can boast of such wonderful results.

Unlike thousands of other articles in the market, containing Silver, Lime, Lead, Litharge, Iaunin, Sulphur, &c., and producing only a sort of yellow or flax color, it properly applied restore the hair to its former appearance and beauty.

The Physiological Hair Regenerator is warranted in all cases to produce the following results.

1. It is not a Dye and will not stain a single particle. It contains no coloring matter whatever, and is not the least injurious in its application.

2. It will certainly RESTORE the hair from a gray to a beautiful Black, Brown, Auburn, or whatever might have been its original color.

3. It will effectually prevent the hair from falling off, remove all Heat, Inflammation and Humor from the scalp, keeping the head clean and cool, and the hair soft, glossy and of a silky appearance.

4. It will PROMOTE a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, except in extreme cases of old age and where the glands have become disorganized.

5. It will cure the most inveterate itching and neuralgia of the scalp, and being highly perfumed, it imparts a most delightful odor to the hair.

We have a great abundance of testimony to prove beyond a doubt all that we claim for the Regenerator; and it has been proven that in a very short time it will have a world wide reputation.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BEDFORD, N. H., Dec. 17, 1863.

Messrs. Tebbetts Brothers—The preparation you throughout me to try one bottle, about six weeks ago, has had a wonderful effect. My hair was then almost white and to-day it is almost black. My daughter has tried it on her own hair, which was fast falling off on account of a severe attack of the diptheria; it stopped it immediately on its application. My wife has also been trying it for baldness on top of her head, and finds that a new growth of hair is rapidly starting. We have only used one bottle, and I think one more will fix our heads up in good shape. J. C. FULLER.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 20, 1863.

Gents—Unless I am very much mistaken, your Hair Regenerator is destined, ere long, to work a complete revolution with all other Hair Preparations. It not only removes the hair to its natural color and keeps the head free from Dandruff, but it is the most beautiful dressing that can be prepared. My hair, without any appearance of, began to turn gray when about thirteen years of age, and has been gradually increasing for more than ten years, when at out two months ago I began the use of your Regenerator, and it has completely astonished all my friends to see my hair brought back to its natural color, which is almost a complete black. My wife, who was bald, or rather was a regular Hair Dye, that I ever knew would produce such effect. It also keeps the head so clean and free from scurf, and makes it a very nice dressing. JACOB J. ABBOTT.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS.

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are filled in a single instance, much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either size, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a FIRST stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and comfort are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

E. A. STEVENS'S

House Furnishing Establishment,

NO. 46 MARKET STREET

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and oven heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grates are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every morning.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air ever touch outers in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious, the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does not work with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Moulton,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

DIVORCE AND REVENGE AMONG BIRDS. The Shields (England) Gazette has the following curious story of animal life: "In the interior of the Tyne Dock wagon shops the attention of the workmen was, about a week ago, attracted to the movements of two sparrows engaged in constructing a nest in a hollow where two girders met for the support of the iron roof. For several days they labored most assiduously in preparing their abode, when, by some sudden freak, the progress of the tiny fabric was suspended. A few mornings afterward the ears of the men were saluted by loud chirruping and fluttering of wings, and from what transpired subsequently it was evident that the female bird had severed the connubial bond, and enlisted the affections of another, who now vigorously contended with the rejected bird for the possession of the nest. For several hours the conflict continued until the usurper proved the strongest. The rejected bird shortly afterward returned and hovered about the spot, apparently watching an opportunity for revenge. This speedily occurred, for in the course of a short time the newly joined pair left for a brief period. In their absence the defeated sparrow approached the nest, and placing his back beneath the feathery mass, raised it from its resting place and sent it to the ground. The surprise of the other birds, on their return, at beholding the demolition of their dwelling, appeared to be great, and it was amusing to observe. Notwithstanding this disaster, however, they commenced to build a second nest in the same place, the rejected mate watching their proceedings with apparent interest. After two days of incessant labor they again left for a short time, and, taking advantage of their absence, the disappointed bird again demolished their feathery residence.

WOMEN.—At the close of the Patent-Office Fair in Washington, Mr. Lincoln, in answer to loud and continuous calls, made a few remarks, in which, after speaking of the sacrifices and burdens of the soldiers, he made the following allusion to the efforts of the ladies to provide for the wants of those soldiers:—

"In this extraordinary war extraordinary developments have manifested themselves, such as have not been seen in former years, and among these manifestations nothing has been more remarkable than these Fairs for the relief of suffering soldiers and their families. And the chief agents in these Fairs are the women of America. I am not accustomed to the use of the language of eulogy; I have never studied the art of paying compliments to women, but I must say that if all that has been said by orators and poets since the creation of the world in praise of women were applied to the women of America, it would not do them justice for their conduct during this war. I will close by saying, God bless the women of America."

☞ The case of Ireland vs. the City of Newburyport has been decided by the Supreme Court, in favor of the city. This was a demand for goods delivered the Overseers of the Poor. The Overseers claimed to be a board of officers independent of the City Council, and authorized to obtain supplies for the paupers where they would. The City Council held that though the Overseers had the right to supply in the first instance, still they were bound by their advice in permanent supplies, and as the city had its own store, they should draw their orders on that. They refused, and drew orders to the amount of $2500. All the cases turned on the one brought by Mr. Ireland, which in the Superior Court was given in his favor; but the decision is now reversed by the Supreme Court, which holds the city for the goods delivered to paupers having settlements in other towns, but not for those delivered to paupers belonging to Newburyport.

"I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841
DR. S. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow worse till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and in her by-day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or is not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MARCH 29, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Joe. Johnston's report of the disastrous rebel operations in Mississippi last summer, throws the whole blame upon Gen. Pemberton. Johnston's policy was to evacuate both Port Hudson and Vicksburg.

A letter from Shreveport, La., to a rebel paper, makes the significant admission that it is bad policy to furlough any soldiers to cross to west side of the Mississippi river, as Gens. Lee, Johnston and Longstreet are constantly losing men, who cannot or will not return east of the river.

Gov. Brown of Georgia is about to all the rebel papers for his proposal to test the validity of the late sweeping acts of the rebel Congress by the action of Georgia's own courts, particularly the act suspending the habeas corpus.

400 Union Tennessee cavalry surrendered to 2000 rebels near Union city, Tenn., on Thursday afternoon, after repulsing them three times.

5000 rebels under Forrest attacked Paducah, Ky., on Friday, and captured, sacked and fired the city. Col. Hicks, commanding the post, occupied the fort below the city with about 800 men. The rebels made four assaults on the fort and were repulsed each time. Three of our gunboats opened on the city during its occupation by the enemy, and the latter left. Our loss was 12 killed and 40 wounded. From 150 to 300 rebels are reported killed, among them Gen. Thompson.

A later dispatch from Colombus, Ky., says Forrest and Faulkner are between that place and Mayfield. Their forces are in a crippled condition. Their strength is much greater than was at first estimated, and their loss was 300 killed and over 1000 wounded. Several citizens were killed during the fight. The city is nearly in ruins. At last accounts the rebels were marching toward Clinton, and might attack Columbus, where they would meet with more resistance than at Paducah.

Washington dispatches state that the War department will not allow the transfer of seamen from the army to the navy, thousands of whom have already applied for transfer.

There are very few officers in Washington, all having been imperatively ordered to the front. It is said that Gen. Grant favors the employment of all Generals now inactive.

Somebody writes to the N. Y. Times that the rebel General Stuart recently made extensive arrangements for the destruction of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, but his plans were frustrated by the promptness of our cavalry under Gen. Pleasanton.—Col. Bryan, while watching them, captured over forty of the rebels, destroyed four rebel tanneries full of hides, four grist mills, a saw-mill and a large number of rafts and boats to be used by Stuart in crossing the river.

Johnston in front of Chattanooga is being reinforced by Polk, and is moving up artillery from the rear.

Our forces in Arkansas are in motion,—bound, it is supposed, for Northern Texas.

☞ The celebrated Mexican ex President exile, Santa Anna, recently took advantage of the French conquest of Mexico, to return to his native land after eight years of ostracism. On landing at Vera Cruz he was required to sign a paper declaring his adhesion to the French intervention, and pledging himself to abstain from any political demonstration, either by speech or writing. He however, could not resist the temptation to issue a pronunciamento in the usual Mexican style. Although its tenor was favorable to French pretensions, the act gave great offence, and Santa Anna and his son were peremptorily ordered to quit the country. He is now at Havana.

— The increase in the gold product since the war, is said to be nearly $40,000,000.

— The Germans comprise 4.14 per cent. of the whole population of the United States.

— Mr. Edward Burrill, for 25 years the Paymaster at the Bartlett Steam Mills, Newburyport, has resigned.

— The latest fashion in Washington of asking a party what they will take to drink is—"Please nominate your poison, gentlemen."

— Files of Richmond papers to the 21st inst. contain a variety of interesting news. Serious fires occured at the rebel capital on the 19th, attributed to Yankee emissaries, "who, under the inspiration of Lincoln's gold, are willing to risk their necks in efforts to kindle incendiary fires at points where the conflagration will be most likely to result in the greatest mischief."

"I am not anxious," said good Mr. Adams of Falkirk, in the middle of the last century, and he was then near his journey's end—"I am not anxious either to live or die; if I die, I shall be with God, and if I live he will be with me."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The nomination of Nathan B. E. Bickford, of New Hampshire, as Commissary of Subsistence, with the rank of Captain, was confirmed by the U. S. Senate, March 25th.

—— The present term of school at the State Reform School will close on Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 30, with a public examination, the exercises commencing at 1 o'clock.

—— A few days ago a son of James Whipple of Franconia was found hanging lifeless, by the neck, from a schoolhouse window. It is supposed he went to get some books, and as he was getting out the window fell down and caught him.

—— Col. Michael T. Donahoe, 10th N. H. Regiment, has been called to appear before the Military Commission at Washington, on pain of dismissal, to answer to a charge of taking up the name of an enlisted man as an officer on the master-rolls of his regiment.

—— The New Hampshire Conference of the M. E. Church commences its session in Lebanon on the 6th of April. The people of Lebanon of all sects will welcome those who may attend the Conference to their hospitalities, and endeavor to make their stay as agreeable as possible. The Free Press states that the revival in the Methodist Church in that place still continues, and over forty have professed faith in Christ as a personal Saviour.

☞ The Portland Argus chuckleth over the enlistment of twenty fine sturdy fellows, nearly all veterans from the German armies," on the quota of that city. Boston gentlemen, the Argus saith, were with them, and claimed that they made a contract with them in Germany and paid their passage to this country. The Germans declared that they came to enlist in the Federal service, and the Portland recruiting officers were very happy to accommodate them. Some had their breasts ornamented with medals of honor and some their backs with stripes which told of the reverse. Their only desire seemed to be to get into the army, and they did not care to what portion of it they went or whom they went for.

— A Boston pastor has resigned, on account of a difference of opinion in his society as to the location of a new edifice.

— The City of Roxbury has decided to purchase two more steam fire engines and entirely abolish the hand fire engine system.

— There are six hat factories on the Merrimac river, in the space of less than six miles.

— Several well executed counterfeits of the $100 Treasury notes have been passed at St. Louis lately, and have appeared at St. Joseph and other places West.

— Five thousand men are called for by advertisements in the Wisconsin papers, to work saw-mills and navigate lumber rafts the coming season.

— Ben Johnson, it is said, could repeat the whole of his voluminous writings, and other books that he had read, entirely from memory.

— The shipmasters of Ellsworth, Me., have had a meeting and publicly agreed not to bring as freight any intoxicating liquors of any kind into that town.

— Two nephews of Vallandigham, the great Ohio "martyr," have negro wives in Muscatine, Iowa, according to the Journal of that place; but its editor ought to have kept the story until the first of April.

— The biggest city railroad project yet heard of is pending in the Pennsylvania Legislature. It proposes to run cars through fifty streets in Philadelphia most of which have not a rail in them.

— A Hartford gentleman has expended $20,000 on a stable, which is said to be "fitted up as nicely as a gentleman's residence," and in which there are $30,000 worth of fine horses.

— The property of Mr. Leroy W. Wiley, amounting to $10,000,000, is about to be confiscated by a New York court. Mr. W. is 70 years old, and now lives in the South, whither he went at the breaking out of the rebellion.

— At a recent sale of pews in the North Congregational Church in Haverhill, Mass., a few public-spirited individuals purchased six pews to be deeded to the society to be forever free for the use of such persons as were unable to pay for seats.

— This statement appears in an English provincial paper: "We have received a notice of marriage for insertion, to which was appended the original announcement: 'Sweethearts at a distance will please accept this intimation.'"

— Philadelphia is endeavoring to get the seat of the Pennsylvania State Government removed from Harrisburg to that city. The Common Council have passed an ordinance pledging a million of dollars for the necessary buildings.

— A gentleman in Springfield was riding on horseback the other day near the railroad, when a freight train came along the horse became frightened, turned suddenly, sprang into a carriage (in which a man was seated) then out on the other side, with his rider still on his back, without harming anybody.

☞ The President has issued a proclamation explaining that the Emancipation Proclamation does not apply to prisoners of war but only to those persons who, being yet free, voluntarily come forward and take the oath with the purpose of restoring peace and establishing the national authority.

The oath may be taken and subscribed before any commissioned officer, civil, military or naval, in the service of the United States, or any officer of a State or Territory not in insurrection, who is qualified to administer oaths. All officers, who receive such oaths, are authorized to give certificates thereon of the persons by whom they are made, and are are ordered to send copies of the same to the Department of State, where they will be deposited and remain in the archives of the Government. The Secretary of State will keep a registry thereof, and will on application, in proper cases, issue certificates of such records in the customary form of official certificates.

For the Chronicle.

☞ We have often heard of the suffering of our soldiers on Belle Isle, near Richmond, I have to-day a letter from a reliable young man to his friend in this city, who was a clerk in one of the Stores on Market Street at the commencement of the rebellion. Here is an extract from his letter:

A man does not know what he can endure, until he is brought to the trial. You can judge for yourself how we fared and suffered. The first of the winter we received 1-2 pound common bread and 1 oz. beef per day, also 1 pint of black bean soup made of the James River water: the last two months we received 3-4 pound bread, 2 spoonfuls of beans, and no meat. In some future letter I will give you an account of the Dog Killing on Bell Island.

My regards, &c, BELL ISLAND.

☞ Recent bequests to Yale College amount to $480,000. They are in favor of the Scientific School, the Congressional grant in aid of agricultural and mechanical education, the erection of a College chapel, for the support of a college preacher, the establishment of a professorship of modern languages, and for the erection of a building for the students.

"MISCEGENATION, or the theory of blending the Races, applied to the American White Man and the Negro," is the title of a curious pamphlet of 72 pages, lately published by Dexter, Hamilton & Co., New York, and for sale by J. H. Foster in Portsmouth.

"BUTTER FIFTY CENTS A POUND."—What's the remedy! Stop eating it or eat just half as much. Many have so resolved, and mean to carry out their resolution, until the price falls, which price by the way is the result of combinations and speculations as well as paper currency. Men who never earned a dollar in their lives by labor are now in the market buying up all the produce they can lay hands on, with a view simply of getting rich. There may be human law for this, but it is against God's law of charity.—New York Express.

☞ An intelligent English gentleman of note, at present the New York correspondent of a London paper, is giving some very pleasant biographical and anecdotal sketches illustrative of that peculiarly American type of character exhibited in such self made men as George Law, P. T. Barnum, Commodore Vanderbilt, etc.—The following extract is interesting as exhibiting a good instance of that intense force of character, more frequently found portrayed in American Biography than in that of any other nation, which is made up of such energy, perseverance and firmness of purpose as always gives to its possessor the power to overcome all obstacles however great:—

"In passing up Broadway the eye of the stranger is attracted by a magnificent block of warehouses in the vicinity of the St. Nicholas and Metropolitan Hotels for which the sum of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars in cash (over one hundred thousand pounds sterling) was recently paid by P. T. Barnum the showman. I do not speak of this as being in itself very remarkable in a city which can boast of scores of equally valuable buildings; but when the fact is taken into consideration that the purchaser, who is nearly as well known in Europe as here, was so lately as seven years ago considered to be at least seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars (one hundred and fifth thousand pounds sterling!) worse off than nothing, the circumstance may be very properly considered as quite marvelous. After once acquiring a large fortune, Mr. Barnum through his generous endeavours to assist others became involved to an extent which would have totally crushed and discouraged any ordinary man; but rallying with the true spirit of American genius and enterprise, of which he is a most fitting type, he has not only paid every cent of the enormous liabilities incurred for the benefit of others, but is to-day worth more than two millions of dollars, and owes no man a mill. He is distinguished for his wit, frankness and congeniality, a life-long consistent advocacy of the temperance cause, and unbounded liberality to the poor."

— The winter in Turkey has been the severest known for years.

— Some 12,000 boxes of oranges arrived in Boston last week—still they are held at high prices.

— People in Maine are getting into the habit of using syrups as a substitute for butter. It is found easier to contract such a habit than to form the habit of paying fifty cents a pound for butter.

THE IMMENSE POPULARITY OF THE

California Wines

Introduced by us, is a flattering tribute to their purity and delicacy, and a cheering indication of a desire among the people to encourage American Industry.

The Surgeon General of the United States, after an analysis of our Wines, reports them to be PURE.

Dr Charles T. Jackson, State Assayer, who is the most undoubted authority, after an analysis of our Port Wine, says:—"The fluid produce leaves fifty-four grains of solid matter, consisting WHOLLY of the fixed principles of grapes. I find no adulterating ingredients, and consider it suitable for medicinal and general use."

The Boston Traveller says:—"The California White or Hock Wine rivals in flavor the best of Hock Wines, and costs much less."

The Saturday Evening Gazette says:—"The White Wine is equal to the Stein or light wines which we import, with a fine and rich flavor, and we believe its purity unquestionable."

Hon. John G. Downey, late Governor of California, says:—"I most cheerfully recommend your Wines to all who desire a pure juice of the grape."

The New York Commercial Advertiser says:—"The wines have a fine flavor, and need only to be tasted to be approved."

The New York Tribune says:—"The 'Angelica' has a rich and delicious flavor, unsurpassed by any Wines in the market."

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the cold, cough, or irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find these articles of Throat relief and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. m9 m21—1uday

PORTSMOUTH MUSEUM.

Messrs. Editors:—Why should not a city of the size and location of ours, like other places, have a Museum? Certainly it is an important institution. The scholars of our schools would learn as much of many things in going through a well arranged collection of art and nature in a day as they now do by reading or hearing of them in a year, and the knowledge thus acquired would be much more comprehensive and perfect.

Salem, Mass., has such an institution,—and it is not only a great attraction and fund of entertainment to its own citizens, but a capital place for strangers to visit—from whom the institution receives a respectable income. Besides, it is one of the principal attractions to any place. Our city is becoming (as any one might have noticed last season) quite a place for visitors, and others passing to the Shoals and Beaches; and if we bestir ourselves and add other attractions to those we now have, (a beautifully-located city, Navy Yard, and a noble port) Portsmouth can be one of the most beautiful, as it certainly is one of the most healthy, and attractive cities on the seacoast. Let the trees and shrubs of the streets be attended to; let us have every attraction that is the making of other places. A new hall is talked of by private individuals, and it is hoped that we shall have it; and if we can't at this time afford a new City Hall, let ten feet be taken off the front of the present one, and with the same brick modernize and enlarge the front, reserving the upper part for city rooms, and thereby save three or four hundred dollars yearly, which is now paid for rent. Let Ward Two vote in the Court House two or three times a year, which is all they want.

One of the principal elements in the Salem Museum is that every officer of a foreign-going vessel is a member, and it is understood and expected that on returning from a voyage each will bring home something for the museum. By such means the institution is continually receiving new and interesting additions.

It will be remembered by some that a lady who had read the history and description of Portsmouth, in which the Portsmouth Museum was spoken of, visited our city last season and sought it out: conceive her astonishment on finding it up in a dusty attic, a few objects carelessly lying about. She went home, and made public her (to use the mildest term) disappointment. Shall it continue to be so,—or will one and all take hold and make light work of it, and have an institution that shall be entertaining and instructive to our own citizens, and an attractive and desirable place for strangers to visit? The writer will contribute his part, and more too. For the contemplated new Hall, the two stories over the Rockingham Bank would be a good place. It is probable that an extensive and respectable collection to commence a Museum with might be obtained, if our citizens would each put together what they have, and each and all have the benefit and entertainment to be derived from the whole. B.

THE NEW TEMPLE.—A short time since our citizens were pleased by seeing sundry paragraphs in the papers announcing the purchase of the Temple by two gentlemen of wealth, and their intention of erecting on the site of that ricketty old fire-trap a hall better adapted for public amusements.—Immediately, those gentlemen were raised in the public estimation to a niche on either side of Peter Faneuil—no one seeking to detract from their disinterestedness by the suggestion that it might prove a paying investment. But now, alas! we are informed that they have concluded to remodel (!) the old hulk that has been so often tinkered for the last quarter of a century—a building so enfeebled in all its parts as to vibrate from foundation to ridgepole at the ringing of its own bell. As one of the many who have done penance on the hard seats of the building in question, I would beg those gentlemen to reconsider the matter, and either give us a new hall, which shall not be a blot on all orders of architecture and totally disregard such minor matters as the science of accoustics, ventilation, and ease and safety of ingress and egress, or let the old Temple die a natural death, not trying still further to prolong the existence of a building which was being repaired when many of the men who walk our streets to-day were babes in their mothers' arms. JAY.

☞ John M. Harvey, a laborer on the Portsmouth Navy Yard, fell from the deck of the Agamenticus to the ground on Monday, injuring him severely.

[For the Chronicle.]

We are pleased to see that an Exhibition in Gymnastics is to be given by the efficient teacher, Miss Haskell, and her pupils. No prettier sight can be had than a class of Gymnastic Scholars arrayed in their easy and becoming costumes, going through with the graceful movements of this beneficial exercise.

Every one who wishes to enjoy an entertainment of great interest and good taste should not fail to procure a ticket at an early day.

EASTERN RAILROAD.—The Spring arrangement upon this road will commence on Monday next. We are to have an early train for business travel, leaving Portsmouth at a quarter past six, and arriving in Boston at a quarter to 9. A second train will leave at 9 o'clock, and arrive in Boston at 11 1-2. The third train will be the Portland train, leaving at the old hour, and the fourth the evening train. The travel from Portsmouth will be well accommodated, as our people can leave in the morning, arrive in Boston before 9 A. M., and leave at 12 M. and reach home at half past two. The Portland morning trains up and down will make less stops at way stations, than has been the custom heretofore.

The Eastern is fast becoming the favorite line for through travel, and if the managers will only take pains enough to look after their through travel by sending the same number of Conductors through to Portland as are now sent by the Upper route, we shall see the greater part of the travel continue to go over this route. This road is so much shorter and pleasanter than the Maine and so much better equipped, there can be no reason why it should not do the principal amount of the business from Boston to Portland. The travel naturally goes this way, unless, by the most continued labors and multiplied gratuities on the part of the Upper route, it, for a time being, is influenced to patronize that line.

☞ In conformity with an order of the Secretary of the Navy, an Examining Board, consisting of Dr. Whelan, Chief of Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Commodore Pope, Drs. Chase and Delaney, convened at the Portsmouth Navy Yard station last week, and selected a site for a Hospital. We understand the building is to be erected this season.

☞ A meeting for the choice of school Committee, &c., in District No. 1 is to be held at the Ward Room this (Tuesday) evening at half past seven o'clock.

☞ The Ticket-of-Leave Man is to be given at the Temple to-night for the last time. The company had a good house last evening, and gave good satisfaction. Go and see them.

The Portsmouth Cornet Band paraded through several of our streets on Saturday morning, discoursing some excellent music. They gave a concert at Amesbury Mills on Friday evening, and on their return home paid us a flying visit.—Newburyport Herald.

WE ASSERT IT BOLDLY.—There are no other medicines so reliable, effectual and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment, always ready for use. They are invaluable to the soldier exposed to wounds, sores, fevers and bowel complaints. They never fail. Only 30 cents per box or pot.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use it in cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 102 Liberty Street, New York.

DR. TEBBETTS' PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR
—AND—
UNIVERSAL HAIR RESTORER.

ITS MODUS OPERANDI.

Immediately beneath the scalp there are very small Glands, or, more commonly roots of the Hair. It is from these Glands that every hair of the head is formed and secreted. As long as the scalp is free from disease, these bodies also remain healthy, and the hair keeps its natural appearance and color. But when humors and other diseases affect the scalp, these glands become involved in the same disease, and the hair gradually turns gray, dry and brittle. Sooner or later the hair begins to fall off, and in many cases, it not arrested, will produce a complete baldness of the scalp.

To remedy this pathological condition of the glands and create a new and healthy action, the Physiological Hair Regenerator has proved a perfect success—inasmuch as it is the only preparation yet known that can boast of such wonderful results.

Unlike thousands of other articles in the market, containing Silver, Lime, Lead, Litharge, Tannin, Sulphur, &c., and producing only a dirty or yellow or flax color, it will, if properly applied restore the hair to its former appearance and beauty.

The Physiological Hair Regenerator is warranted in all cases to produce the following results:

1. It is not a Dye and will not stain a single particle. It contains no coloring matter whatever, and is not the least injurious in its application.

2. It will certainly in a few days turn a gray to a beautiful Black, Brown, Auburn, or whatever might have been its original color.

3. It will immediately prevent the hair from falling off, remove all tiest, inflammation and Dandruff from the scalp, keeping the head clean and cool, and the hair soft, glossy and of a silky appearance

4. It will PROMOTE a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, except in extreme cases of old age and where the glands have become disorganized.

5. It will cure the most inveterate itching and neuralgia of the scalp, and being highly perfumed, it affords a most delightful article for the toilet.

We have a great abundance of testimony to prove beyond a doubt all that we claim for the Regenerator; and it is positively certain that in a very short time it will have a world wide reputation.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BEDFORD, N. H., Dec. 17, 1863.

Messrs. Tebbetts Brothers—The undersigned was induced me to try on my hair, about six weeks ago, has had a wonderful effect. My hair was then almost white and now it is almost black. My daughter has also tried it on her hair, which was fast falling off on account of a severe attack of the diphtheria; it stopped it immediately on the application. My wife has also been trying it for baldness on top of her head, and finds that a new growth of hair is rapidly starting. We have only used one bottle, and I think one more will fix our heads up in good shape. J. C. CUTLER.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 20, 1863.

Gents—Unless I am very much mistaken, your Hair Regenerator is destined, ere long, to work a complete revolution with all other Hair Preparations. It not only restores the hair to its natural color and keeps the head free from Dandruff, but it is the most beautiful dressing that can be prepared. My hair, without any apparent cause, began to turn gray when about thirteen years of age, and had been gradually increasing for more than ten years, when at out two months ago I began the use of your Regenerator, and it has completely astonished all my friends to see my hair brought back to its natural color, which is almost a complete black. It is the only thing, unless it was a regular Hair Dye, that I ever knew would produce such effect. It also keeps the head scalp clean and free from scurf, that it makes a very nice dressing. Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y., formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, t. at many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as be cuean as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." The reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is desirable is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and is for all NERVOUS DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stom'h, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Struma, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

(Arthritis), Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, The Dolourous.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almostantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fullils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rattling of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the bad health, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup
Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and which often so soon as the swelling is reduced, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be cured without extreme patience. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Horror of Insanity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Sight, Pain in the Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Lassitude of the Muscular system all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Lips, Face, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face, depending upon a disease of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the disease and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of the stomach accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of KORNER'S LIFE SYNTHESIS.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. To not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and improves the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured,—It is Universal in its effects

☞ A singular circumstance happened in the town of Veazie, Me., one day last week. A German girl was crossing the river above the dam, and walked into a hole in the ice near the travelled path.—She was observed from a house in the vicinity, and assistance was promptly furnished, the girl clinging to the ice in the meantime and vigorously exercising her lungs. The buoyancy of her crinoline alone saved her, for when taken out she was nearly exhausted, and must have relinquished her hold in a few moments longer. Upon being interrogated as to the cause of her walking into a hole so plainly to be seen, she said that she was counting money, and did not notice where her steps were leading her. This statement led to the discovery that the money which came so near costing her so dear was stolen by her, and from the river she went to jail.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited duration, he has now attained the art of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impotent disease, such as Strictures, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Bubo, Diagonal Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases resulting from a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, inflicting the unfortunate individual for business or society. None of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are such to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society; self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should reflect before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms; and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotten, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So unfailingly certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted persons rejoice in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every nature and nature, having by his unvaried attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to his office.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stand higher in the profession than the celebrated DR DOW No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Persons wanting the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow prepares and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

CURES FROM ONE TO THREE DAYS

CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is extensively recommended in these cases of Fluor Albus (Whites to females) where all the old numerous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its vessels in purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites, its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap stuff dispensed.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write to us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK.
AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done with one single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fire is made available for cooking purposes. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In set, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT Stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and dispatch are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves
FOR WOOD OR COAL.
E. A. STEVENS'S
House Furnishing Establishment,
NO. 46 MARKET STREET.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about renovating or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches which complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from the smallest amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over common methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air below the fire-pot, which lights them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent, of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Merchant,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Molded Collars

Have now been before the public for nearly a year. They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant.

The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars.

The cravat causes no puckers on the inside of the turn-down collar—they are AS SMOOTH INSIDE AS OUTSIDE—and therefore perfectly free and easy to the neck.

The Garotte Collar has a smooth and evenly finished edge for BOTH SIDES.

These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO FIT THE NECK.

They are made in "Novelty" (or turn-down) style, in every half size from 12 to 17 inches, and in "Eureka" (Garotte), from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "school sizes" in neat blue cartons, containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of 10 each, the latter a very handy package for Travellers, Army and Navy Officers.

Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged—its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS."—This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the SUPREME LAW of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.—Constitution U. S

STORY OF THE SANITARY COMMISSION.—How touching is this little story of the motherly Scotch woman, who, after nursing into slow convalescence her wounded boy, was warned by the diminishing contents of her purse that her visit of love must close, yet feared to leave him quite dependent upon ordinary hospital supplies, lest, as she said with the pathos of simplicity, "he wouldn't be so well." A good Samaritan took her to a store-house, where she might procure a few last luxuries for the recovering hero:

"He ordered a supply of sugar, tea, soft crackers and canned fruit, then jelly and wine, brandy, milk and under-clothing, till the basket was full. As the earlier articles nestled under its lids, her face was glowing with satisfaction; but as the latter lots arrived, she would draw him aside to whisper that 'it was too much,'—really she had n't enough money;' and when the more expensive items came from the shelves, the shadow of earnestness which gloomed her countenance grew into one of perplexity, her soul vibrating between motherly yearning for the lad on his bed, and the scant purse in her pocket, till, slowly, and with great reluctance, she began to return the costliest. 'Had n't you better ask the price?' said her guide. 'How much is it?' 'Nothing,' replied the store-keeper. 'Sir!' queried she, in the utmost amazement, 'nothing for all this?' 'My good woman,' asked the guide, 'have you a soldiers' aid society in your neighborhood?' Yes, they had; she belonged to it herself. 'Well, what do you suppose becomes of the garments you make, and the fruit you put up?' She had n't thought,—she supposed they went to the army,—but was evidently bothered to know what connection there could be between their aid society and that basket. 'These garments that you see came from your society, or other societies just like yours; so did those boxes and barrels; that milk came from New-York; those fruits from Boston; that wine was likely purchased with gold from California; and it is all for sick soldiers, your son as much as for any one else. This is the United States Sanitary Commission.

BLOCKADE RUNNING.—Gov. Vance of North Carolina is reported to have said that only one in twenty of the blockade runners who attempt the port of Wilmington is caught, and that the blockade is very ineffective; but the facts tell a different story. Capt. Cory, of the captured steamer Don, says that he sailed nine times for Wilmington and got in only four times. Letters taken from prisoners on the Don also show that blockade running is a very difficult and hazardous business. A letter from one Wm. Philcox, at Fayetteville, to his sister in London, complains that "the port of Wilmington is too closely watched, not one vessel out of ten gets in." Another person (an Englishman) writes: "I shall not expect any more letters from home, as there are so many blockaders about." The Robert E. Lee was twice driven back to Bermuda, and captured on the third attempt to get into Wilmington. Another vessel, the Lady Davis, was run ashore, in the hope that the guns of the fort would protect her, but the distance was too great and she fell into the hands of the Yankees, who hauled her off and got in her a splendid prize.

Such (says the Boston Journal) is the testimony of those directly interested in the business. In addition, it may be mentioned that the last arrival from Europe brings intelligence that Messrs. E. Yeomans & Sons, gunmakers, of London, had failed, having, it is said, experienced severe losses in attempts to break the blockade of the Southern ports. The gunboat Mercedita, at Fortress Monroe from the Wilmington blockade, reports that on the 13th inst. one blockade runner ran ashore on the West bar of New Inlet, and another on the South end. Both vessels were destroyed by their respective commanders, to prevent their falling into the hands of our cruisers.—These facts do not indicate an inefficient blockade.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds Assignments, and Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but most of its inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty past, has enabled him to secure, late a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, with an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents; as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on since rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Later accounts from Paducah, Ky., confirm the reports of the severe loss of the rebels in killed and wounded, and give additional testimony of the gallant conduct of our troops in the fort. The rebels plundered the stores in the city of a large amount of valuable goods, destroyed much property, and took all the horses they could find.

Gen. Grant has established his headquarters at Culpepper, eight miles in front of Gen. Meade.

The troops assigned to the command of Gen. Burnside are rapidly concentrating at Annapolis.

A letter from Knoxville says it is currently reported in the army that Gen. Burnside is to resume his late command, and that the rumor may turn out true.

☞ The Richmond Whig gives a report from the Selma Reporter, which states that a Mr. Vest, a member of Congress from Missouri, made a speech at Demopolis, stating that he had just returned from Richmond, and that Jeff. Davis told him "he had information which was official, that Maximilian was on route to accept the throne of Mexico, which would result in a recognition of the Confederacy by Mexico, Spain, France, and probably Austria."

☞ On Wednesday night, Madlle Vestvali was insulted by some intruders behind the scenes of the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and excited by the outrage, she drew a sword at her side and wounded her assailant. Nervous excitement supervened after the play was concluded, and she was too ill to appear on Thursday. The castigated party is threatened with an action for damages.

☞ Asst. Treasurer Cisco, at New York, announces that, by direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, he will issue to importers for payment of duties on goods imported by them, certificates of deposit of gold coin to the credit of the Collector of any port, as desired, in exchange for notes at a quarter of 1 per centum below the current market value of gold. These certificates are not assignable, but will be received by the Collector from the party to whom they are issued.

☞ The Baptist Mariners' Church in New York city is about to have a change, as Father Stewart, who is as much of a veteran among the sailors in New York as Father Taylor is in Boston, is about to be relieved. But he is not turned adrift, as many ministers are after having spent the strength of their youth and nearly all their usefulness with them. They give him a comfortable house to live in and a salary of $1200 as long as he shall live. Rev. Dr. Hodge, now supplying the First Church in Brooklyn, is to be co-partner with Mr. Stewart. He is one of the ablest men in the denomination—bred to the sea from his youth—familiar with the habits and tastes of the sailor—and under his ministration the cause of the seaman will be promoted

SOLDIERS TO VOTE IN NEW YORK.—The people of New York, by a very large majority, have decided that their brethren serving the country in her armies shall vote at the next and all following State Elections precisely as though they had remained at home.

The legislature is to say in what manner the voting is to be done. A bill now before that body provides for a canvas in camp.

The Tribune deems this not the best way;—and proposes two plans, viz:—

1. Each soldier, by the plan we prefer, incloses his ballot in a sealed envelope, duly authenticated, to his most trusted friend, and instructs that friend to open the envelope in the presence of the Inspectors of Election, take out the ballots, and cast them in the absent voter's behalf. We should like to see the wives of soldiers in each Election District walk in procession to the poll and cast the votes transmitted to them by their respective husbands.

2. If this is disallowed—and we see not why it should be—then let each soldier seal and transmit his ballot to the Inspectors of Election in his district, and let it be opened by them in public, on the day of election, and the vote polled like others, after the right of the voter has been established by proof. Why should this be objectionable?

These suggestions are worthy of attention in New Hampshire.

ANOTHER "CHILDREN'S MISSION SHIP." To the "Morning Star" and, "Evening Star" has been added the "Day Spring." The Sabbath school children of Nova Scotia, of Scotland and of Australia, have united and built a beautiful brigantine of 150 tons, at a cost of $16,000, as missionary vessel for service among the South Sea Islands. The Day Spring recently sailed from Nova Scotia with three missionaries, two of whom take their wives with them.

In our report of deaths to-day will be noticed the decease of three persons past the allotted age of manhood, respectively 71, 82, and 89 years.—Newburyport Her.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Gov. Gilmore has recovered from his late severe illness.

—— Gen. Marston, of this State, and his New Hampshire troops now in charge of the prisoners at Point Lookout, Md., are to have more active commands. Gen. Marston, will probably take the field.

—— The Mirror states that Mr. Gilman Smith, of Sanbornton, a highly respectable farmer, 61 years of age, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, early Sunday morning, while laboring under mental depression.

—— The people of the 1st Baptist Church, Exeter, on the evening of Mar. 24, made a donation visit to their pastor, Rev. N. Hooper, and presented him with $153 in money, and many other valuable testimonials of regard. During the year one member of the society has also presented him with $100.

—— At an early hour on Monday morning fire broke out in Robert Mathes' shoe manufactory in the village of Milton (Three Ponds) and that and the dwelling house and store of Jas. W. Nutter, were consumed. The shoe establishment was occupied by ex-Mayor Bennet of Dover, whose loss in stock and machinery will not be far from $5000, and the store by E. H. Twombly, for general variety goods and post office, who saved most of his goods. Mr. Nutter's loss is $550; no insurance. Mathes' loss is $4700, on which there is insurance of less than one-third.

☞ English papers state that a little before midnight, on the 11th inst., the great reservoir of the Sheffield Water Company, 100 acres in extent, and which held more than a million cubic feet of water, suddenly burst its embankment, and swept down the narrow gorge formed by the Loxley and Stannington hills, into Sheffield itself, sweeping farms and houses, forges and factories before it. The portion of the embankment which gave way was one hundred and ten yards long, and the mass of water escaping through this crevasse rushed into the valley below, sweeping away numerous cottages, and drowning the unhappy cotters in their beds. Two hundred and eighty-seven persons were missing. The loss of property by the flood is estimated as not less than half a million of pounds sterling. The company are responsible for the damage, which amounts to more than their capital.

The Cork Herald of the 17th inst. has the following:—

Accounts from Sheffield state that 178 bodies have been recovered, but 258 persons are returned as dead or missing, consequently there are 80 bodies which have been washed down the stream and will not be recovered until after the lapse of many days.

On the afternoon of Mar. 16, the pump at Spittwell Monstone Pitts, near Chesterfield, broke, and before the men could be extricated, at least 14 were drowned. The water has risen for a considerable height up the shaft. The loss of life is believed to be greater than here stated. There were about 71 men and boys employed in the pit.

☞ In a letter to the Navy Department from Commander Preble, of the sloop-of-war St. Louis, dated off Funchal Roads, Madeira, March 1st, he says the Florida succeeded in getting to sea, and he will follow her at once, though hopeless of capturing her out of port. Had the St. Louis been a steamer, he would have anchored alongside of her, and, unrestricted by the twenty-four hour rule, his old foe could not have escaped him. The Florida's crew is made up of Spaniards, Frenchmen and Portuguese, with a few Englishmen, and only one American. "My men were wild to fight," he, adds, "and I drew the shot from my guns the day she came in, fearing that in the excitement they would fire into her, and break the neutrality of the port."

EXTENSIVE COUNTERFEITING SCHEME. A big swindle case came to light in St. Louis on Saturday, by which a large haul of counterfeit greenbacks was made. Thos. Smith bought 159 mules of Wolf & Pike near Sedalia, last week, and paid for them $13,800 in treasury notes. Smith subsequently sold the mules to Wm. Jones, at St. Louis. Wolf & Pike, having learned that the money received from Smith was counterfeit, and not being able to find him, went to St. Louis on Saturday, and represented the case to the proper authorities, who ordered the arrest of Jones, as complicated in the swindle, and took possession of the mules, the ownership of which will be determined by law. The amount of counterfeit notes passed on Wolf & Pike was $27,000.

THE IMMENSE POPULARITY OF THE

California Wines

Introduced by us, is a flattering tribute to their purity and delicacy, and a cheering indication of a desire among the people to encourage American Industry.

The Surgeon General of the United States, after an analysis of our Wines, reports them to be PURE.

Dr Charles T. Jackson, State Assayer, who is the most undoubted authority, after an analysis of our Port Wine, says:—"The fluid ounce leaves fifty-four grains of solid matter, consisting WHOLLY of the fixed principles of grapes. I find no adulterating ingredients, and consider it suitable for medicinal and general use."

The Boston Traveller says:—"The California White or Hock Wine rivals in flavor the best of Hock Wines, and costs much less."

The Saturday Evening Gazette says:—"The White Wine is equal to the Stein or light wines which we import, with a fine and rich flavor, and we believe its purity unquestionable."

Hon. John G. Downey, late Governor of California, says:—"I most cheerfully recommend your Wines to all who desire a pure juice of the grape."

The New York Commercial Advertiser says:—"The wines have a fine flavor, and need only to be tasted to be approved."

The New York Tribune says:—"The 'Angelica' has a rich and delicious flavor, unsurpassed by any Wines in the market."

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Local.

TO-NIGHT.—Let all friends of true education—every parent or other person interested in the welfare of the young—visit the Gymnastic Exhibition at the Temple this (Wednesday) evening. Even if there be among our readers one who is unappreciative enough to doubt the benefits of the new or improved science, still, for all there is ample entertainment in this exhibition of youthful grace and beauty.

In reference to a similar occasion at Manchester, which the Mirror well calls an "Important" one, the editor says:—

Mrs. Churchill, of this city, and three other pupils of Prof. Dio Lewis' Gymnastic School, Boston, will give an exhibition of the effects of training under Lewis' System, accompanied by a lecture on Physical Culture. All our schools, and the friends of education in the city should give it their patronage. There is no telling to what extent human power may be developed. A Turkish porter will trot off as easy as a fox before the wind, and carry a weight of 600 pounds. In every school, in every family, if the gymnastic system was properly practiced, you would find the strength and health of the Turkish porter.

[Communication.]

The Lyceum lecturers during the past winter, like the newspapers, have been fierce in their denunciations of the landed aristocracy of the South, some even advocating a forcible partition of the lands of such Southerners to provide homes for liberated slaves. Arrogating to ourselves, as a class, an infinite superiority over the middle class at the South, I fear me the people of New England are not entirely devoid of reverence for those who control large tracts of soil within her rugged domain.

A great cry has been raised that houses are scarce in Portsmouth, and yet the growth of the city to the westward seems to have met a check from some cause. Go out on South Road or Middle Road, and you shall see great barren wastes of uncultivated land, tracts so desolate that it were a pity to confine cattle within their bounds, unless to prevent their being impounded. It is not for lack of would-be settlers thereon that these lands remain untilled, almost in the heart of our city. A worthy man, residing on one of the above mentioned roads, wishes to purchase a small spot of land (say about an acre) for his son, his own premises not being of sufficient size for division, but as yet has been unsuccessful in procuring the same, on account of the exorbitant rate at which large holders value their land. We do not write in expectation that the clutch on the land will be loosened—(nothing less than an earthquake could shake it off)—but merely that the public attention may be called to the gradual absorption of the land by the few.

JAY.

☞ Don't forget that Dr. Dio Lewis, the great disseminator of physical christianity, is to speak on this favorite and vitally important topic, at Miss Haskell's Exhibition this evening.

☞ The rite of Confirmation was administered to eighteen persons last Sunday (Easter) afternoon, at St. John's Church in this city, by the venerable Right Rev. Bishop Chase, in the presence of a large assembly, including many persons from other churches. The Bishop preached in the evening, the church being lighted with gas for the first time.

☞ Thirty charming young ladies, in costume unique, will perform the New Gymnastic exercises, at the Temple to-night.

PRIME BEEF.—Mr. Stokell, of the Merchant's Row Provision Market, has purchased at a high figure, a pair of extra cattle fatted by Mr. Jerome Jenness of Rye, which weigh on the hoof 4700 (four thousand seven hundred) pounds. He calls them "Abe Lincoln" and "Gen. Grant."—They will be exhibited in the streets of Portsmouth on Thursday, and served out to purchasers desirous of a choice bit, at Mr. Stokell's store, a day or two after.

☞ Remember, that the proceeds of the entertainment at the Temple to-night, go to the Sanitary Commission.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday, Odell. J.—Charles Clifford, found guilty of being drunk, was sent to jail for fifteen days, and ordered to pay costs, $2.92.

Daniel Larrabee, for same offence, was sent to the House of Correction for twenty days, and ordered to pay costs, $3.86.

☞ Mr. John Swindell has been making extensive alterations at his brewery, Creek Road, for the purpose, we understand, of converting it into a shoddy factory.

GOOD FOR THE QUOTA.—See our record of births.

☞ At the meeting in District No. 1, Tuesday evening, for the election of School Committee, &c., the following officers were chosen:—

W. H. Y. Hackett, Moderator.
Wm. C. Hatch, Clerk.
Solomon Seymour, Isaac Dow, Auditors.

☞ The total amount of the appropriation bill, as reported to the Board of Aldermen, is $124,080. The transportation of a 0 made us give it as $102,480.

☞ The Portsmouth Steam Mills pay a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent., April 4.

MEN LOST.—Sch. Triumph, Cambell, of Gloucester, Mass., for New York, having on board a cargo of fish and mackerel, was run into by the transport steamer Western Metropolis on the 17th inst., off Cross Rip lightship, and immediately sunk. The captain and three men were saved by a boat from the steamer; but two of the crew—John Miller, of Kittery, thirty years of age, and Lightbill Pearce, of Bristol, nineteen years old, were drowned.

☞ A letter from Matamoras says that the planters in Texas have lately had the half of their wagons and teams siezed by the order of Magruder. They were paid for in Confederate paper at such a rate as would not supply even the iron used in their construction. They have been much discouraged by this and other matters, and in consequence have planted no cotton, and only corn enough to produce bread for themselves, their families and slaves. Confederate paper, when it passes at all in Texas, and it has long ceased to be current in the valley of the Rio Grande, goes at three cents per dollar!

☞ It is reported from Washington that Gov. Bramlette of Kentucky, who has had an opportunity to talk with the President, now expresses perfect willingness that slaves should be drafted in Kentucky, in case she fails to furnish her quota in white men.

☞ While Mr. Willard B. Heath (watchmaker and jeweller) and family were at a public meeting in Bangor, Me., on Monday evening, some burglars effected an entrance to his dwelling on Spring street, by prying open a window with a "jimmy," and carried off 80 watches, $75 in money, 8 gold rings, 2 gold pencils, and 5 gold chains—amounting in all to $1500, or more.

—It is estimated that the crop of maple sugar at the North for the present year will reach 25,000,000 pounds. Fifteen cents per lb. is a low estimate of its value.

WE ASSERT IT BOLDLY.—There are no other medicines so reliable, effectual and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment, always ready for use. They are invaluable to the soldier exposed to wounds, sores, fevers and bowel complaints. They never fail. Only 30 cents per box or pot.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 114 Liberty Street, New York.

DR. TEBBETT'S'
PHYSIOLOGICAL
HAIR REGENERATOR
AND
UNIVERSAL HAIR RESTORER.
ITS MODUS OPERANDI.

Immediately beneath the scalp there are very small glands, or, more commonly Roots of the Hair. It is from these glands that every hair of the head is formed and secreted. As long as the scalp is free from disease, these bodies also remain healthy, and the hair keeps its natural appearance and color. But when humors and other diseases affect the scalp, these glands become involved in the same disease, and the hair gradually turns gray, dry and brittle. Sooner or later the hair begins to fall off, and in many cases, if not arrested, will produce a complete baldness of the scalp.

To remedy this pathological condition of the glands and create a new and healthy action, the Physiological Hair Regenerator has proved a perfect success—inasmuch as it is the only preparation yet known that can boast of such wonderful results.

Unlike thousands of other articles in the market, containing Silver, Lime, Lead, Litharge, Tannin, Sulphur, &c., and producing only a sort of yellow or flax color, it will, if properly applied, restore the hair to its former appearance and beauty.

The Physiological Hair Regenerator is warranted in all cases to produce the following results:

1. It is not a Dye and will not stain a single particle. It contains no coloring matter whatever, and not the least injurious in its application.
2. It will certainly RESTORE the hair from a gray to a beautiful Black, Brown, Auburn, or whatever might be born its original color.
3. It will effectually prevent the hair from falling off, remove all Heat, Inflammation and Dandruff from the scalp, keeping the head clean and cool, and the hair soft, glossy and of a silky appearance.
4. It will PROMOTE a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, except in the cases of old age and where the glands have become disorganized.
5. It will cure the most inveterate itching and neuralgia of the scalp, and being highly perfumed, it affords a most delightful article for the toilet.

We have a great abundance of testimony to prove beyond a doubt all that is claimed for the Regenerator; and it is positively certain that in a very short time it will have a world wide reputation.

HOME TESTIMONY.

BARNUM, N. H., Dec. 17, 1863.

Messrs. Tebbetts Brothers—The preparation you induced me to try on my hair, about six weeks ago, has had a wonderful effect. My hair was then almost white and now it is almost black. My daughter has also tried it on her hair, which was fast falling off on account of a severe attack of the diptheria; it stopped it immediately on its application. My wife has also been trying it for baldness on top of her head, and finds that a new growth of hair is rapidly starting. We have only used one bottle, and I think one more will fix our heads up in good shape. J. C. CUTLER.

MANCHESTER, Dec. 20, 1863.

Gents—Unless I am very much mistaken, your Hair Regenerator is destined, ere long, to work a complete revolution with all other Hair Preparations. It not only restores the hair to its natural color and keeps the head free from Dandruff, but it is the most beautiful dressing that can be prepared. My hair, without any apparent cause, began to turn gray when about thirteen years of age, and had been gradually increasing for more than ten years, when at out two months ago I began the use of your Regenerator, and it has completely astonished all my friends to see my hair brought back to its natural color, which is almost a complete black. It is the only thing, unless it was a regular Hair Dye, that I ever knew would produce such effect. It also keeps the head so clean and free from scurf, that it makes a very nice dressing. JACOB J. ABBOTT

Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y., formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised nostrums, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as heroic as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." THE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective remedy for prevention in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stom'h, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Struma, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

[Arthritis], Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, The Dolourous.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous Constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the Ovaries and women generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goiter or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra efforts. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of the Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken-Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indisposition to Exercise, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Sight, Forgetfulness, Coldness of the Family, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dyspepsia, Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Countenance, Want of Energy, Languid Feelings of the Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

All forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Lips, Breast or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, disinclination to exertion, weak stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—The changes made in the corps organizations of the Army of the Potomac will be readily seen in comparing the new with the old arrangement. After the withdrawal of the Eleventh Corps (Howard's) and the Twelfth (Slocum's) from the army, the following constituted

The Old Organization.

First Corps—Gen. Newton.
Second Corps—Gen. Hancock.
Third Corps—Gen. Sickles.
Fifth Corps—Gen. Sykes.
Sixth Corps—Gen. Sedgwick.

The following is

The New Organization.

Second Corps (to which is added the First and Second Divisions of the Third Corps)—Gen. Hancock.

Fifth Corps (to which is added the First Corps)—Gen. Warren.

Sixth Corps (to which is added the Third Division of the Third Corps)—Gen. Sedgwick.

Of the displaced officers, Gen. Newton goes to Chattanooga, Gen. French (who was holding Gen. Sickles' place at the time of the change) goes to Philadelphia, and Gen. Sykes to St. Louis. It is supposed that Gen. Sickles' wound incapacitates him for field service.—Boston Journal.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.
These Clocks are reliable time Keepers and Calendars correctly adjusted, requiring the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at midnight; showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.
Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.
Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the Clock. They will be set up in any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!
The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.
CURES FROM ONE TO THREE DAYS
CHEROKEE REMEDY
—AND—
CHEROKEE INJECTION,
Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.
CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, removes all obstructions of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in the early stage of Fever Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old famous medicines have failed.
It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.
It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and invigorating the system, giving tone to all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.
CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effect are soothing, healing and diuretic; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.
☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.
For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write unto and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.
Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle of three pints for $5.

LAST AND BEST.
THE MODEL COOK.
AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!
At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.
The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat iron is used to the best advantage for cooking purposes.
The oven doors are lined with tin, and jackets are provided for the bottom and back of the oven, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.
A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.
In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT STOVE, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.
It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where both are employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.
No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and circuch are desirable, should be without one.
We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook:

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves
FOR WOOD OR COAL.
E. A. STEVENS'S
House Furnishing Establishment,
NO. 46 MARKET STREET.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large oven for boiling or baking ware, also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room; and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and use of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases from the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the reduction of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used.
We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Leaves, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Henry F. Wendell, Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Charles H. Mendum, John Sise, and others.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
Free world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In government of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS"—This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the SUPREME LAW of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution.—Constitution U. S.

BURNSIDE AND GRANT.—They had a great time at Chicago in receiving Gen. Burnside. He was escorted to Bryan Hall, where he made a speech in which he thus alluded to Gen. Grant:—

"My friends, it may not be improper for me to say something to you of the appearance of the contest—of this contest at the present moment. I feel very much encouraged. I don't know that is saying a great deal, because I have kept encouraged all the time. I have known that the cause is right and just, and that it must succeed. Probably very few general officers of the army have seen more dark hours than I have, but I have never yet faltered in my faith in the ultimate success of the cause, for the very reason I believe it is just. I believe God will help us to succeed in this cause; God will prosper us, and that this country will be preserved and made glorious in the future. But what I was going to refer to is the present state of affairs. Gen. Grant, as you know, is at the head of all the armies. It may seem superfluous for me to attempt to give my opinion to the people of this section of Gen. Grant; but, nevertheless, I will do so. I have known him for a great number of years. If their is any quality for which Gen. Grant is particularly characterized, it is that of magnanimity. He is one of the most magnanimous men I ever knew. He is entirely unambitious and unselfish. He is a capital judge of men, and is possessed of a remarkable degree of common sense. Those qualities, I think, make a pretty good General—pretty good, when he has good Generals to deal with, because if he has magnanimity he will give credit to the General for what he has done. If he is not ambitious he will not seek to undermine any other person who may seem to be in his way. If he has good common sense and judgment he will pick each man for his specific duty with good judgment. So that the General who combines all these qualifications has every hope to succeed. Now, Gen. Grant has thus far succeeded, and really, I believe, the chances are that he will succeed in future. He is to leave the West for the present, and take temporary command of the eastern army, and without saying anything of the Generals who have heretofore commanded the eastern army, I think he will infuse into that army a degree of confidence which it has not felt for some time, because success always carries with it confidence, and that is what you all want. There is not a gentleman or lady in this whole assemblage that does not desire success, to-night, and, inasmuch as he has been successful heretofore, he will have the confidence of the community, and have the qualifications, which I think he has and which I have said to you he has: it seems to me, we can all go home to-night, believing that success is going to attend Gen. Grant in the command of all the armies of the United States, during this campaign. At all events, every loyal heart will go home to-night and sincerely and honestly pray to God he may be strengthened in the work he has to do, and that he will be enabled during this present campaign to crush this infernal rebellion, which has threatened so long to ruin and disrupt the government which we all love so much."

An Exchange says: We once knew a horse who recognized Sunday far better than many of the people living in the same town. Every week day he would go unerringly towards the depot, turning a corner on the way. On Sunday, he never thought of turning the corner, but kept straight forward to the church door. The experiment was often tried on Sundays and week-days for the amusement of incredulous strangers, but he never failed to show that he knew when Sunday came, and what his duties were on that day.

An Irishmann meeting another asked him what had become of Patrick O'Murphy? "Arrah, now, my dear honey," answered he, "Paddy was condemned to be hanged, but saved his life by dying in prison."

— Among the deaths lately recorded is that of John Ruskin's father, who leaves behind human ample fortune for the benefit of his only son.

THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Forrest, with the rebel force which captured Paducah, on Monday night was within eight miles of Columbus, Ky., and had cut the telegraph lines between that place and Cairo.

Gen. Grant, accompanied by Gen. Meade, reviewed the 1st corps, Army of the Potomac, on Tuesday, and while passing along the lines was enthusiastically cheered.

Gen. Phillip H. Sherridan, for a long time in command of a division of infantry in the Army of the Cumberland, has been appointed to the command of the cavalry corps of the Army of the Potomac, to succeed Gen. Pleasanton.

Hilton Head advices of the 24th inst., mention an attack made by the rebels on Jenkin's Island in a flotilla of boats, but their plan was frustrated by our picket boats, who fired into them. Pilatka, Fla., has been occupied by a small detachment of our forces, and a small steamer called the Sumter was captured near there. A letter gives a report that 10,000 rebels are between Pilatka and Gainsville. Our forces there have intrenched themselves, and Col. Barton was to advance on the 16th inst. to feel the enemy.

The N. Y. Herald dispatch says the steamer Shawsheen has arrived at Washington with a schooner, sloop, thirteen boats of salt, tobacco, grain, &c., captured from the rebels on Ware and York rivers.

— U. S. screw-sloop Kearsarge arrived at Deal, England, Mar. 13th.

— Philadelphia is to have its Sanitary Fair in the first week in June.

— No passes to go to the Army of the Potomac are now issued.

— The fur trade has become a very important branch of the business of Detroit.

— A writer in the New York Herald estimates the amount of counterfeit money in circulation in the country at $4,000,000.

— A farmer in Brattleboro', Vt., in advertising his effects for sale at auction, enumerates among them "one tom cat," considered "a good mouser."

— The number of National Banks authorised up to Monday last, was three hundred and forty-seven, with a capital of $45,000,000.

— Peremptory orders directing the immediate transfer of ten thousand seamen from the army to the navy have been issued by the President.

— A gentleman who has recently lost an eye begs to intimate through our columns to parents and guardians that he has now a "vacancy for a pupil."

— Captain R. F. Burton, the well-known traveler, will soon appear with a new and probably unique work—a collection of African Proverbs translated by himself.

— Foreign journals announce that Denmark accepts the conference without an armistic, but it is not officially announced. The belligerents show increased activity. Duppel had been vigorously bombarded.

— Wm. H. Diamond, mail agent on the Hudson River Railroad, has been arrested at Troy for circulating counterfeit postal currency. He had a lot on his person when seized.

— The people of Taunton, Mass., on Monday afternoon, decided by a vote of 439 to 286 to petition the Legislature for a City Charter. The population of Taunton is now estimated at 18,000.

— The Boston Advertiser receives daily special dispatches from Washington, giving as important and reliable news as can be obtained by any newspaper. We are often indebted to its specials for valuable items.

— In consequence of the pressing need of seamen for the navy, orders were issued on Monday to transfer over a thousand negroes recently enlisted in Maryland, to the navy, Sec. Welles having consented to accept them in default of able or ordinary seamen.

— A gang of secessionists went to the house of Capt. M. Sperry, at Ramsey, Ill., a few nights ago, armed with guns, and endeavored to induce Capt. S. to let them in, but without success. Mrs. S. imprudently looked out of the window, when she was fired at and received a charge of bird shot in her face and shoulders.

— The booksellers' committee of the sanitary fair in New York had a meeting last Friday evening, at which Mr. Fletcher Harper read a communication from a dealer in books, who modestly said he presumed the committee had not waited upon him on account of his "obscure position and limited business," and begged leave to enclose his check for $1000.

— A few days ago Mrs. Jane Bartlett of Charleston, Mo., shot herself through the heart with a pistol, incited thereto by "incompatibility of temper" between herself and her husband, leaving three letters, in one of which she expressed her desire to be laid out in her wedding garments, and designated the kind of coffin she wished. The foolish woman was only twenty-five years old.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. James W. F. Fletcher, of Manchester, Co. E, 8th N. H. Regiment, has received a lieutenant's commission in the 1st N. H. Cavalry, formerly the 8th Regiment. He went out as a private and has worked his way up to his present position.

—— Mrs. Susannah Page, of Sanbornton Bridge, died on Saturday morning, March 26th, at the advanced age of 92 yrs. and 9 mos. She was mother of six children, has had thirty-three grandchildren and eighteen great grandchildren, and in her old age possessed to a remarkable degree the energy of youth. She retained her mental faculties until the last moment, except her hearing, which was somewhat impaired. She performed her usual amount of knitting the day before her death, and retiring in her usual health, expired before morning.

—— At the recent Law Term of the S. J. Court, in Concord, the following gentlemen were admitted to the practice of law in this State: John H. Andrews, James B. Fassett and Lewis W. Osgood, from the office of Minot & Mugridge of Concord, John W. Odin from the office of S. C. Eastman of Concord, and Henry H. Huse from the office of J. J. Pillsbury of Pittsfield. At the term of the court in Belknap last week, Andrew G. Tibbetts, from the office of Hon. Ira A. Eastman, and Mr. Eastman, from the office of J. Ware Butterfield, Sanbornton Bridge, were admitted.

—— The steam boiler in a sash and blind factory at Keene, exploded on Friday morning of last week, making almost a complete wreck of the building and injuring about a dozen workmen, three or four of them severely. Two of them have since died; and two others are not expected to recover. There were about fifty workmen in the shop. Timbers, bricks and missiles of all shapes and sizes were thrown about promiscuously, and several buildings in the vicinity were damaged by them. Some of the workmen were thrown out of the windows, and it is a great wonder that they were not more severely injured. The machinery in the building was scattered in all directions and much of it destroyed. The explosion is supposed to have been caused by a defect in the boiler. The engineer had just left the building.

☞ Ensigns R. S. Chew and H. J. Blake having been reported to the Department for going below during their watch without being regularly relieved, while on duty on board the U. S. steam frigate Niagara, their appointments to the grade of Lieutenants, for which they were recently nominated to the Senate and confirmed, have been suspended.

For the same offence the appointment of Acting Ensigns W. S. Dana, E. T. Harrington, W. B. Hoff and C. Rathbone have been revoked, and they have been ordered to return to their studies at the Naval Academy at Newport, R. I., as Midshipmen.

Acting Ensign B. C. Irvin, who has been attached to the Niagara, and was guilty of overstaying his leave, has been ordered to the U. S. steamer Glaucus, a third rate, with directions that he shall not for six months be permitted to go out of the vessel.

☞ C. Worrell of Joliet, Ill., started from Rochester, N. Y., the other day, with $3000 in bank notes in a bag suspended in a belt around his body. While en route for Cincinnati a fellow passenger called his attention to the fact that he was losing bank notes from the legs of his pantaloons, and an investigation revealed the loss of all his money but $300, the bottom of his bag having given out. He returned to Rochester, but could not find any of his lost bills, which he now thinks he saw blowing about the depot before he started.

☞ A little boot-black, who plies his trade in New Bedford, and has a sharp eye to the condition of the boots of pedestrians, spying a man near Liberty Hall, whose leather looked muddy, proposed to give it a polish. "No," gruffly answered the owner of the boots, "I've no money for a boot-black." "Hold your foot up," said young Day & Martin, "and I'll polish it for nothing." The man complied, and the fellow vigorously plied his brush, till one boot shone like a steel mirror, when he put up his tools and moved off. "Hallo," cried the customer, "black the other boot." "For five cents," said the boy; and five cents was paid.

Penny Wise and Pound Foolish.—This proverb was illustrated on Sunday last, by the master of the schooner Minstrel, of Dennis, who attempted to get to sea without a pilot, with the wind in the eastward and considerable sea upon the bar, with the following results. In getting under weigh at Brown's wharf, in the morning, she grounded in the dock, got off and went ashore upon the north flats, and afterwards floated off. In the afternoon, she again got under weigh, on the ebb tide, and in beating out at the bar, went ashore again, which was announced by the light-house keeper by three guns. Assistance went down, and on the flood tide she came off, and again went ashore upon Plum Island; and during Monday came off and arrived back at her starting place.—Newburyport Herald.

— Gold declined to 163 1-2 in New York on Wednesday.

Plain Speaking.—The following from the Manchester Union of March 25th has the merit of being intelligible, if it has no other:—

Is this a war for the restoration of the Union under the present Constitution?—Nobody pretends that it is. Then we shall not support it or encourage it in any way.

The Mirror remarks on this:—

Now if a man will not in any way support or encourage the government in a war against treason and armed rebellion, what party or what cause does he support or encourage? "There can be no neutrals in this contest." The people fail to see any patriotism in the man who fails to see that the war is prosecuted solely to restore the Union, and can see but little difference at heart in the man who refuses to support and encourage our armies and the man who openly gives countenance to the armies of Davis.

Uncle Tom adds:—The Constitution of the United States needs no alteration whatever. Put down the rebellion and establish liberty by law,—for which the Constitution is ample. Liberally construed now, as Mr. Jefferson construed the constitution when he bought Louisiana, it grants Congress power to sweep away every vestige of barbarism from the statute book and the Courts. The people will sustain them when they do it;—and do it they must, if we are to be a nation still. If we cannot find constitution enough to kill slavery, the rebels and traitors will kill the Constitution and rule by the "divine law" of slavery, and of the aristocracy founded on it. The Democratic party refused to be governed in that way at the Charleston Convention; and we believe the great body of the people will refuse it now.

U. T.

☞ The Boston Advertiser's Washington dispatch states that the U. S. House of Representatives, on Tuesday, passed two important bills reported from the Naval committee. One requires all naval officers on the active list, below the rank of Commodore, to be examined, as to their qualifications by a board to consist of three officers appointed by the President, and as to their physical condition by naval surgeons. The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to appoint acting commanders and lieutenant commanders in the volunteer service with the same pay as officers of the same grade in the regular Navy.

The other bill provides that acting lieutenants or masters from civil life may be confirmed in their rank and placed in line of promotion, if upon the recommendation of the President they receive the thanks of Congress for meritorious conduct in conflict with the enemy. It provides seamen may be promoted for distinguished services in the line of their profession, to forward warrant officers or acting master's mates, on the recommendation of their commanding officer, approved by the flag officer and the Navy Department. A seaman so promoted is to receive a gratuity of one hundred dollars and a medal of honor.

☞ Some time since a boy, while playing in one of the public streets of Boston, had his foot caught in a hole and received severe injuries. A suit was brought, in which the damages were laid at $20,000.—But the Supreme Court has just decided in favor of the city, regarding a city as not liable, under the statutes, for damages caused by a defect in a street or highway to a person who at the time of the injury is using the street or highway exclusively for the purpose of sport or play.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are causes of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. mh21—1udaw

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this remedy, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

One of Hunnewell's Great Remedies.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—The basis of this truly wonderful preparation, now of such well-earned celebrity, is a freedom from every component calculated to debilitate, and by such to allow the greatest freedom of use, day or night, as the only true theory by which THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS can be effectually cured. To prevent adding attention to long stories of great cures, when local causes make almost all such complaints different in effect, I would ask confidence which will be saved, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, WHOOPING COUGH, all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION. Testimonials from Physicians of the highest respectability, and from invalids, can be seen at my office by all interested.

C. L. ASSOCIATION LECTURERS.—The following list of names comprise those who have been invited to appear before the Citizens' Lyceum Course the past winter.—Those in Italics accepted the invitations:—

John B. Gough, Esq.; Wendell Phillips, Esq., George W. Curtis, Esq.; Judge Thomas Russell; Hon. Charles Levi Woodbury; Rev. A. L. Stone; John G. Saxe, Esq.; Miss Susie C. Cluer; Rev. George H. Reynolds; Rev. A. J. Patterson, Portsmouth Cornet Band; B. P. Shillaber, Esq.; F. M. Ray, Esq.; Dr. J. G. Holland; Rev. William R. Alger.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher; Rev. E. H. Chapin; Maj. Gen. B. F. Butler; George Vanderhoff; Mrs George Vanderhoff. Capt. John L. Swift; Miss Susannah Evans; Miss Angela S. King; J. H. Siddons, reader; Miss Cameron, reader; Albert Laighton, Esq.; Miss Susie Foster, reader; Thomas Bailey Aldrich; Miss Emily Shaw, reader; D. J. Macgowan, M. D., U. S. A.; James P. Bartlett, Esq.; John C. Fremont; Hon Edward Everett; William Wallace Sylvester; Prof. R. H. Hitchcock, D. D.; Bayard Taylor; Miss Lizzie Ham; Miss H. McE. Kimball, (invited to write an introductory Poem); Miss Anna S. Dickinson.

Owing to the lateness of the season when the Lyceum Course was projected, many of the prominent speakers in the country were engaged. It is the intention of the association to engage at an early day the first talent of the time for the second season of lectures, next season. Per order,

J. H. HEAD, Sec. C. L. Association.

☞ The Appropriation Ordinance, as prepared by the Joint Standing Committee on Finance, was by them reported to the Common Council last week. The footings of the appropriations recommended amount to $104,730.03.

The discrepancy between this amount and the footing in Wednesday's Chronicle is principally in the item "Aid to families of volunteers," the sum recommended for that purpose being $2 400. Several minor differences account for the rest of the discrepancy. M. B.

☞ We are informed that at a meeting of the Milk men of the city, held on Wednesday, Mar. 30, it was unanimously agreed that on and after 1st day of April the price of milk shall be 7 cents per quart retail, and 6 cents per quart wholesale.

This move was strictly necessary, as the milk men have recently been selling at loss. Milk was 6 1-2 cents per quart many years ago, when butter was 10 to 12 cents per pound.

☞ Prof. Anderson, who is advertised to appear in this city on Saturday evening, met with a severe accident in Lynn, Mass., on Monday evening. He was returning from his performance to the hotel with a friend, and took the nearest way by the railroad track. The night was dark, and Mr. Anderson, engaged in talking, did not see a narrow culvet but stumbled into it, falling a distance of about twelve feet, receiving severe cuts in his head and several bad bruises. So says the Boston Advertiser.

☞ The following gentlemen have been drawn in Ward 2, of this city, to act as Jurors at the term of the S. J. Court which commences at Exeter April 12, viz: Chas. H. Rollins, Nath'l B. Sides, and Charles C. Whittemore.

☞ Owing to the severe storm on Wednesday, Miss Haskell's gymnastic Exhibition announced for that evening, at the Temple, was postponed for a few days. Due notice will be given of the evening on which it will be held—probably early next week.

☞ It is reported that the American ship North Atlantic has been destroyed by fire at Calcutta, when partly loaded for Boston. She was owned by William F. Parrott, Esq., of this city.

☞ Some Southern Views of the War are given in Richmond papers, up to March 21. A year ago the Rebel papers threatened sudden slaughter to all black men who should be found in arms against the Confederacy, to be followed by the hanging of such officers of colored regiments as might survive and fall into their hands. Now they sing (in the Richmond Sentinel,) quite another tune, and propose that "a negro who will throw down the arms which have been placed in his hands, whenever he has an opportunity, and who comes to our lines for protection, should be received with that humanity which the poor African finds only in the Confederate States. We should let it be known among them that all such escaping to our lines, will be received with kindness."

The Tribune asks:

Has the battle of Olustee opened their eyes? Add to this the fact that three negroes, captured in the schooner Julia Baker, were not slaughtered, but quietly handed over to their owner, and we may conclude that an important change has come over the Southern mind upon this matter. Have they begun to learn the "nigger" will fight!

The Raleigh Progress says that the enrollment of conscripts in North Carolina is going on very pleasantly. There seems to be some excitement in Secessia about habeas corpus, and the Georgia Legislature has had much discussion thereon.

☞ On Tuesday, the Chippewa Chiefs, who are in Washington to visit their "Great Father," were to be present at the Sanitary Fair. We give their names for the benefit of those who are fond of researches in the Indian tongue. They will be found to be very significant. They are Pik-ol-ed-Kab-b j, Say-hou-er-u-of-ur-put-tee, Fan-see-ross, Toom-a-too sors, Say-say-can u-see-et-set, Squa-sha-puddin, Hole-in-the-pocket, Ort-to-bi-un-gif-e izut, Wrag-ed-ol-os tiff, and Pres-tensh-ul-cant i-date.

— Francis Whitcomb, of Waldo, has been bound over for trial at Belfast, Me., for selling diseased beef in that market.

— The paragraphists of the English papers tell us that we may soon expect a new volume from Mr. Alfred Tennyson, and that Robert Browning has one already in the press.

— The new tale of "Cousin Phillis," in the Cornhill Magazine, is said to be from the pen of Miss Anna Thackeray, the sister of the author of "The Story of Elizabeth."

— A man can enter a photographic studio, in France, constructed according to a new method, be therein photographed in a few seconds, and, on calling in a day or two, receive, instead of the usual photographic print of one's face and figure, an exact fac simile of himself in the shape of a statuette in modelling clay.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!—The citizen soldier will find a more deadly foe in the bracing, muddy water and damp night air than in the most determined enemy. Holloway's Pills so purify the blood and strengthen the stomach and bowels that the soldier can endure these hardships and still be strong and healthy. Only 30 cents per box 230

GRACE'S SALVE.— This incomparable salve is now so generally used as a certain cure for cuts, burns, flesh wounds, ulcers, felons, and all diseases of the skin, that praise of it seems to be needless. In summer it removes freckles, tan; is an effectual remedy against the bites of insects, and no family should be without it. In places distant from medical aid it will be found invaluable, and in the nursery it should be always at hand.—Many a long doctor's bill may be saved by its timely use.

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is always an EVIDENCE OF PRUDENT FORETHOUGHT; no man with a dependent family is FREE FROM REPROACH if not insured."—LORD LYNDHURST, late Lord Chancellor of England.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is the CHEAPEST AND SAFEST mode of making a CERTAIN PROVISION FOR ONE'S FAMILY. Many a widow and orphan have had great reason to be grateful that the advantage of LIFE ASSURANCE was secured to them by the husband and father."—BENJ. FRANKLIN, 1798.

THE IMMENSE POPULARITY OF THE
California Wines
Introduced by us, is a flattering tribute to their parity and delicacy, and a cheering indication of a desire among the people to encourage American Industry.

The Surgeon General of the United States, after an analysis of our Wines, reports them to be PURE.

Dr. Charles T. Jackson, State Assayer, who is the most undoubted authority, after an analysis of our Port Wine, says:—"The fluid ounce leaves fifty-four grains of solid matter, consisting WHOLLY of the fixed principles of grapes. I find no adulterating ingredients and consider it suitable for medicinal and general use."

The Boston Traveller says:—"The California White or Hock Wine speaks in flavor the best of Hock Wines, and costs much less."

The Saturday Evening Gazette says:—"The White Wine is equal to the stock or light wines which we import, with a fine and rich flavor, and we believe its purity unquestionable."

Hon. John G. Downey, late Governor of California, says:—"I most cheerfully recommend your Wines to all who desire a pure juice of the grape."

The New York Commercial Advertiser says:—"The wines have a fine flavor, and need only to be tasted to be approved."

The New York Tribune says:—"The 'Angelica' has a rich and delicious flavor, unsurpassed by any Wines in the market."

Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y., formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Regiments, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigation of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as secular as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanency, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stomach, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Strume, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

[Arthritis], Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St. Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel are sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup
Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like
ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,
And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Cures all Swellings of the Glands,
Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, whose disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from 10 to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to these Swellings of the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn; and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart, Liver and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indiscretion, Exercise, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Horror of Contagious, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin, Nervous Irritabilities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Languid Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTHER'S CORDIAL. Female Sex, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an inflamed or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most efficient medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured.—It is Universal in its effects

EMANCIPATION IN POLAND.—Advices from Russia to the 6th of March inform us, that at noon, on that day, an imperial manifesto was read in Warsaw, solemnly proclaiming the emancipation of all the peasants in the lands of the rebellious aristocracy of Poland. This makes emancipation consistent throughout Russia and its tributaries, and is the parallel step of Freedom between Russia and the United States.—The Czar has doubtless been induced to this enfranchisement of the slaves of the insurgents, in imitation of the Emancipation Act, which the progressive masses of this country had such hard work to force our reluctant, conservative, pro-border-state President to use.

The action of Alexander confirms our early statement that the Polish revolution was entirely an aristocratic movement, and was instituted to resist the progress of emancipation, which the Czar intended for the whole empire.—Wilkes's Spirit.

A little daughter of a proprietor of a coal-mine in Pennsylvania, was inquisitive as to the nature of hell, upon which her father represented it to be a large gulf of fire of the most prodigious extent. 'Pa,' said she, 'couldn't you get the devil to buy coal of you?'

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, inflammation of the bladder and kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Rheumatic Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mental effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, Hypochondria, are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or more, can be accommodated with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use and receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Glad News for the Unfortunate!

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

CURES FROM ONE TO THREE DAYS

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Gravel, Brick Dust, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old numerous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is purely vegetable in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at meal time in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

LAST AND BEST.

THE MODEL COOK.

AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,

WITH TWO OVENS,

And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be very easily accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), all the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are lined with tin, and jackets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied, by means of which all heat is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this PERFECT Stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent in a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and comfort are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

E. A. STEVENS'S

House Furnishing Establishment,

NO. 46 MARKET STREET

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and soapstone heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable article, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable article.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little advantage over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The communicating passes being lighter than the smoke pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the action of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the room can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

PIANO FORTES FOR SALE.

Gray's Patent Molded Collars

Have now been before the public for nearly a year and they are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant.

The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars.

The cravat causes no puckers on the inside of the turn-down collar—they are AS SMOOTH INSIDE AS OUTSIDE—and therefore perfectly free and easy to the neck.

The Gorotte Collar has a smooth and evenly finished edge on BOTH SIDES.

These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO FIT THE NECK.

They are made in "Novelty" (or turn-down) style, in every half size from 12 to 17 inches, and in "Eureka" (Garotte), from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "solid sizes" in neat blue cartons, containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of 10 each, the latter a very handy package for Travellers, Army and Navy Officers.

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and it is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

☞ One of the members of the delegation sent from Bangor to confer with a Provincial Committee at Fredericton, in regard to the construction of the European and North American Railway Communication, sends the following to the Whig and Courier:

Going up a river a few days since I met with the following pleasing incidents. If you deem them worthy of publication, they are at your service:

On the stage were seven or eight soldiers from the 8th Maine regiment—civil, will behaved, intelligent men, as was apparent from their conversation. While at the stage house in Lincoln, there came into the office a poor blind man—stone blind—slowly feeling his way with his cane. He approached the soldiers and said in gentle tones, "Boys, I hear you belong to the 8th regiment. I have a son in that regiment." "What is his name?" "John ——." "Oh yes, we know him well. He was Sergeant in our company; we always liked him. He is now a Lieutenant in a colored regiment, and a prisoner at Charleston."

For a moment the old man ventured not to reply; but at last, slowly and sadly he said: "I fear I am much. I have not heard from him for a very long time."

Without waiting for another word, these soldiers took from their wallets a sum of money amounting to twenty dollars and offered it to the old man, saying at the same time—"If our whole company was here we would give you a hundred dollars." The old man replied, "Boys, you must put it in my wallet for me, for I am blind."

But mark what followed. Another individual in the room, who had looked on this scene, as I had, with feelings of pride in our citizen soldiers, advanced and said; "Boys, this is a handsome thing, and I want you to drink with me. I stand treat for the company." I waited with interest for the reply. It came—"No, sir, we thank you kindly. We appreciate your offer, but we never drink!" The scene was perfect—the first act was noble, was generous; the last was grand.

FACTS WORTHY OF NOTICE.—It is a fact, that nine-tenths of the inmates of our poor-houses were brought there directly or indirectly by the use of ardent spirits.

It is a fact, that three fourths of all the convicts in our State Prisons, were hard drinkers previous to the commission of the crimes for which they are now imprisoned.

It is a fact, that the greatest sufferers from disease, and those whose maladies are the most difficult to cure, are those who are addicted to the use of ardent spirits.

It is a fact, that of all who commit suicide in this country, ninety nine one-hundredths are the immediate or remote victims of ardent spirits.

It is a fact, that in all families where the children are dirty, half naked, and ill-fed, the rooms filthy and in disorder, the husband cross, discontented and peevish, and the wives slatterns, ill tempered and quarrelsome, one, if not both of the parents are drinkers of ardent spirits.

It is a fact, that those who least frequently attend the worship of God in the sanctuary, most of those who by their oaths, blasphemies, and horrible execrations shock the ears of modest people, are spirit drinkers.

It is a fact, that those who are most easily led to ridicule and profane sacred things, and to join in every kind of dissipation and profligacy, are spirit drinkers.

It is a fact, that of all that have died of the cholera in Europe and America, seventenths at least were spirit drinkers, and one-half decidedly intemperate.

Some of the papers announce that "Miss Waters of Sand, Somersetshire, has been appointed head nurse of the young Prince of Wales." The young Prince of Wales, and the only Prince of Wales, has a wife and child, yet if reports are true of him, there is a great improvement in substituting "Miss Waters" for what he has been drinking. A delightful time he will have with the young lady.

Also, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

It is reported that a large number of Union men in Northern Alabama are waiting to join the army.

Commodore Farragut is at Pensacola, it is thought waiting until troops shall advanced on Mobile to co-operate with him in attacking that place.

An officer direct from East Kentucky reports that a large force of rebels is concentrating at Pound Gap.

Rebel deserters state that Longstreet's whole force is under marching orders.

The advance of Gen. Banks' cavalry under Gen. Lee, arrived at Alexandria, La., on the 19th. The remainder of the army was within two days' march. When it arrived the combined forces would proceed westward by land. Supplies are going by the river. The rebels north and south of Red river are concentrating at Shreveport. The gunboats made a prize of all the cotton captured, 5000 bales. Fort DeRussey was accidentally blown up on the 17th, killing 4 and wounding 6 men.

The citizens of Paducah, Ky., are fearful of another attack from Forrest, and merchants and others are removing their goods and valuables to a safe place. It is noted for its disloyalty; nevertheless the rebel Gen. Forrest does not stand much on ceremony at any time, and less, it is said, with his particular friends than anybody else.

The steamer Daniel Webster, with a portion of the 14th N. H. regiment, from New York for New Orleans, put into Port Royal on the 27th. The steamer Continental, from Portland, with a portion of the 2d Maine Cavalry and horses on board, put into Port Royal on the 26th, with loss of fifty horses and the remainder badly used up.

A naval expedition up the St. John's river captured the rebel steamer Hattie Beck, with one hundred bales of cotton, rice, tobacco, &c. It is stated that large amounts of these articles are secreted in creeks along the Florida coast. Brig. Gen. Hatche had gone to Jacksonville, Fla., to relieve Gen. Seymour, who returns to Hilton Head. The rebels are reported to have withdrawn a portion of their forces from Jacksonville and Pilatka.

☞ A correspondent of the Oxford Democrat, speaking of the New Hampshire election, gives the following account of the way the copperheads of Chatham awoke the wrong passenger:

A few days before election they dispatched with the necessary funds to pay expenses Mr. John Stiles to Portsmouth, for his son. Arriving at his destination he found his son making such pay, and liable to lose his place if he left, that he returned without him. This not suiting them, on Saturday, before the election Tuesday, they sent another messenger with a hired team on the same mission, with instructions to tell young Stiles that his folks were dangerously sick with diptheria and wanted him home immediately. They started, and arrived Monday evening at the house of one Wm. Gordon, where Stiles stopped for the night. The next morning Gordon took him to the town-house. Here meeting his father, and finding an unsatisfactory crotchet had been imposed upon him, he took a Republican vote, correcting the one his father held, and they two cast Union ballots throughout the day. The town thus stands nine majority for the war and the Union!

DIED BY THE ROADSIDE.—Mr. Richard Smith, of Brentwood, was on Monday evening found dead in a ditch alongside the road near his home. He has been quite depressed in spirits, and troubled considerably during the day from bleeding at the nose. It is supposed this might have led him from the road to the water, where he was found with his head immersed. His horse and wagon being seen in the vicinity led to search for him.—Ballst

There is to be an exhibition of sheep at the hall over the Boston and Maine Railroad on the 6th of April next.—Portland Press.

That hall must be long enough for a ropewalk.

— The N. Y. Times' dispatch says that Gen. Garfield has been instructed by the House Military Committee to prepare a bill for the equal adjustment of State claims for militia or other service.

— The Dayton (Ohio) Journal has a dispatch dated Fayetteville, West Va., March 26, which states that three hundred Federal soldiers have escaped from the rebel prison at Danville, Va.

— A Vigilance Committee, 1000 men is making a clean sweep of the villains infesting Beaver Head County, Idaho, and have already hung 24 men.

— Mr. Augustus R. Street of New Haven, (whose endowment of a Professorship of Modern Languages in Yale College was made public not long ago) proposes to erect upon the college square, if the college corporation will consent, a building adapted for receiving collections in the various departments of the fine arts, and also for giving instruction in the history, principles and methods of art.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Manchester pays a bounty of $150 to each re-enlisted Veteran assigned to its quota.

—— The dead body recently found at Epping Corner was that of Mr. Asa O. Glidden of Effingham, aged about 50 years.

—— A little daughter of widow John Mathes, fourteen months old, fell into a wash-tub of water at East Columbia on the morning of the 22d instant, while the family were out, and was drowned.

—— Lieut. George C. Houston, son of Capt. Harry Houston of Concord, arrived last week, direct from Libby Prison in Richmond, where he had been confined five months. Lieut. Houston belongs to a New York cavalry regiment.

—— The Veterans of the 2d and 5th N. H. Volunteers, to the number of 160, were to leave Concord on Wednesday afternoon, for Point Lookout, Md., under the command of Lieut. Col. J. W. Carr; Maj. Larkin, and Quartermaster Webber, of the 5th, accompanying them.

—— The dry house connected with the Excelsior Manufactory at Mechanics' Row, Manchester, caught fire about three o'clock Tuesday afternoon, from the heating apparatus, and was destroyed. The building was packed full of the dry pine material used at the manufactory, and it burned with great fierceness.

—— We learn from the Port Royal "Palmetto Herald" that the officers of the 3d New Hampshire Regiment are subscribing for a beautiful and substantial monument, to be erected in the cemetery at Manchester, in memory of the brave and lamented Adj. Alvan H. Libby, who fell at Fort Wagner, July 18th. He was formerly Adjutant of the 3d N. H., and at the time of his death was Adjutant-General to Gen. Strong.

FLORIDA.—A letter dated at St. Marks, Fla., 17th inst., states that the Unionists of Cartal, Fla., have organized and gone into camp, and commenced operations against the rebels by a raid on salt works, and capturing a rebel tax gatherer. They had two engagements with rebel cavalry, whipped them handsomely and capturing ten prisoners. They lately captured three army wagons, 30 mules, 10 horses, 50 contrabands, and destroyed and captured a large amount of rebel subsistence. These Union men only ask protection, arms and ammunition from the Government.

— The Pope is confined to his bed. It is rumored that he is seriously ill.

— The Atlantic Telegraph Cable is not to be laid until the summer of 1865.

— Port au Prince dates of the 27ult. state that eight persons had been executed for murdering and devouring a child.

— During the high wind on Thursday of last week, there were three fires in Lowell at one time.

— The ship Gibraltar has sailed from England for New York with 1000 tons of coal, giving by Glass, Elliot & Co., in aid of the U. S. Sanitary Commission.

— On Tuesday the War Department sent a noted army contractor to the Old Capitol prison on the ground that he was engaged in a combination to raise the price of horses for government use.

— Red tape is an institution on the Grand Trunk. A car load of hay caught fire the other day, and now the story is current that they telegraphed to Montreal for leave to pitch it off the car!

— The Secretary of War has stopped $14.75 out of the pay of Capt. Nathan W. Osborne, 13th U. S. A, for sending a message by telegraph which might have been sent by mail. Officers must learn economy.

— The resolution offered in the U. S. House of Representatives on Monday, granting the use of the Hall for a discourse from George Thompson on the 6th of April, was passed. The report to the contrary was a blunder of the telegraph.

— The report of the consulting Engineer, Charles B. Stuart, on making a passage for gunboats from tide water to the Lakes and the Mississippi River, has been communicated to Congress. The estimated coast of canals and works is from fifteen to twenty millions of dollars.

— A man named Phelps, who died at Salem, Ct., recently, by his own agreement sold his body to a surgeon in Boston for $1000, the money to be appropriated to the use of his widowed mother, and his body to purposes of scientific investigation. His death was produced by an enormous tumor upon his back.

— We have an illustration of the power of horse railroads to feed themselves with the business they create, in the one at Portland, Me. It is on a route that could not support an omnibus, but as soon as the horse cars were started they were crowded; and now the company have asked to lay down a double track.

— Owen Lovejoy was rich. He owned some of the finest farming lands in the United States. He was also fond of fast horses, which were very useful in former times in running off fugitive slaves. Nothing was more appropriate at his funeral, than a liberated slave—a full-blooded African, as one of the pall-bearers.

WEST INDIA RUIN.—There are falsehoods so gigantic and so hackneyed that they maintain a very considerable currency and credit on the strength of their very audacity. The ignorant and superficial suppose they must have at least a substratum of truth or they could not be kept alive—the mere fact that they have seen them afloat for a number of years, when, if they are lies, they must have been exposed, and should have been extinguished, long ago, being sufficient for them. Of this sort is the inconceivably stupendous fiction that the West Indies are going to ruin since Emancipation because the ex slaves will not work. Over and over (says the N. Y. Tribune,) has this been elaborately disproved; we are now doing our best to circulate M. Augustin Cochin's Results of Emancipation—a standard work, accepted as authority everywhere save by slaveholders and their tools, and for which its author was crowned by the French Academy and knighted by the Pope. The whole ground is most carefully and thoroughly traversed in this standard work, and the whole truth established beyond controversy. That freedmen have in some cases made less sugar than they did when slaves, is undoubtedly true—many wisely choosing to grow food for their families, or earn an honest livelihood in many other ways, rather than stick to sugar-making; but that there has been an immense progress—moral, intellectual, social, and industrial—in the West Indies since Emancipation, is as sure as the Multiplication Table. Yet the Daily News does not scruple to utter, in the interest of Jeff. Davis, the following:

All experience proves that the African will not work unless he is made to, and he cannot be made to unless he is a slave. If really free, he won't work except for a bare subsistence.

To this stands opposed the statement of Sir Charles Grey, late Governor of Jamaica, who says:

There are few races of men who will work harder or more perseveringly, when they are sure of getting the fruit of their labor, than the African.

There is just where the shoe pinches the News. It wants negroes to take their pay for their work over the head and shoulders, or across the back—against which they seem to have an innate prejudice. White men, perhaps, like to work for nothing but a cut of a whip occasionally; but "niggers" are so stupid that they don't see it. Hence the abuse heaped on them by such journals as the News—to which the Commercial Advertiser more fully replies as follows:

The wealth accumulated by the negroes of Jamaica, during the twenty-seven years immediately following their emancipation, is £2,358,000; and three-fifths of all the cultivated land in the island is the bona fide property of the colored people, bought and paid for by their own industry.

As a proof of the failure of emancipation, the Daily News contrasts the exports of 1809 and 1810 with those of 1853 and 1854. In 1809 and 1810, the British West Indies had a monopoly of the English market; whereas in 1853 and 1854 that market was thrown open to the world by a perfect equality between British colonial products and those of foreign countries, beside which there existed no war, as in 1809 and 1810, to prevent importations of colonial produce from foreign countries. The selection, then fore, of such comparative statistics is a gross deception. The true merits of the question will better appear by the following statistics of the British West India Islands, at the moment immediately preceding emancipation and fourteen years after emancipation. We must here call attention to the fact that the population of the islands was rapidly declining previous to emancipation.

Population	627,554	1,069,865
Revenue	£422,999	£715,7.9
Imports	3,206 513	4,787,295
Sugar exported to the United Kingdom, cwts.	3,646,366	3,408,627
Rum exported to the United Kingdom, galls.	5,109 975	5,051,602
Molasses, cwts.	686,791	473,061
Shipping inward, tuns	473,091	651,698

"The exports of many other articles of production had greatly increased. Cocoa alone showed an increase of 2,222,514 lbs; and it must not be forgotten that the free negroes consumed a much larger proportion of the results of their labor than when slaves, which should be added to the exports to form an estimate of the comparative production of free and slave labor."

GENERAL HEAD.—Col. Nat Head, of Hookset, Chief of Staff to His Excellency Governor Gilmore, has been appointed Adjutant General of the State, in place of Gen. Daniel E. Colby, resigned. General Head will doubtless make an active and energetic officer. We may be sure that under his direction no efforts will be spared to bring the military spirit of the State up to its proper standard. How we shall ever be able to run the Horse Guards without his presence is an inexplicable mystery, but we console ourselves with the somewhat original reflection that what is our loss is his gain. We touch our hat to you, General, and wish you unbounded success in your more exalted position.—Lancaster Republican.

☞ The Press states that there are now in process of completion, or in readiness to be commenced, in Portland and immediate vicinity, one ship, four barks, five steamboats, one gunboat, and one iron-clad monitor. Two steamers, and several other vessels are undergoing thorough repairs. The aggregate tonnage of vessels building is about 7500 tons.

— The Count Joannes is out in favor of McClellan for the Presidency. Daniel Pratt's turn comes next.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of irritation, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies oft-n act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. mh21—1mdaw

Local.

"COME GENTLE SPRING, ETHERIAL MILDNESS COME!"—So sang the poet, and the gentle being has "come it" with a vengeance. March which came in quietly and respectably, has "gone out" as huffy and blustering as if she had borrowed the cool airs and icy tones of her elder sister, January. We were talking about robins and blue birds, looking for the first blades of the green grass springing in the sunny corners of the fields, hoping even to find 'neath the leaves the fairest buds of the early Mayflower growing, when presto, there came a frost, a chilling frost, and the earth was covered with its white mantle of snow. In fact Wednesday and Thursday, Mar. 30 and 31, were intensely disagreeable days. Snow and rain commingled (the practical "miscegens,") made the streets unattractive and gloomy.

Big flakes and little flakes came floating down; and anon, rain, cold and cutting, varied the scene; to be followed quickly by sharp and blinding hail, till every pedestrian realized how much more pleasant it is to regard the poet's words and "hail the coming Spring," than to have the coming Spring hail him. These sudden changes of weather and temperature come pretty regularly in the eastern portion of New England, though one never really knows when to anticipate them. There may be a law which governs them, and happy will be he who discovers it. Spring days come in winter, and winter days come in Spring, to say nothing of the strange transpositions one finds in the remaining seasons of the year. In fact, it seems difficult for most New Englanders, though to the manor born, to get acclimated; and there are few months in the year when colds are not as fashionable and common as new hats on Easter Sunday.

☞ Mr. Avery, after vainly waiting and hoping for a couple of years, for the price of paper to come down, has at last been obliged to raise his charge for the Boston Dailies to 4 cents each, for single copies, as has long been charged almost everywhere else out of Boston. With the increased charges of the publishers thereof, and everything else considered, this movement must be a matter of necessity and self-preservation with Mr. A.; and his mistake was in not doing it two years ago, as we told him at that time. The yearly and quarterly charges are not to be increased, we believe. The yearly subscription to the slang-whanging coppery missiates and disunion print of this city—which most people would think dear at any price—has also been recently increased to something near the cost of the white paper which is defiled in the printing of it.

☞ Jackson & Co.'s Express, not to be outdone by the Railroad, announce three trips daily to and from Boston, after Monday next. Another good result of having full and well arranged railroad communication with "the city," like the rest of mankind. It cannot fail to result in benefit to the company, the expresses, and the public. Now give us a noon train, up and down, on the C. & P. Road, and we will try and grub along, until we get direct connection with Dover and Exeter.

☞ Gough, the great American orator, at the Temple to-night, will finish up the Lyceum as successfully as it was begun and has been carried through. The managers have certainly done well for the ticket holders, and deserve the thanks of the public for their disinterestedness and public-spirited exertions.

☞ The patrons of Laws' Express will be glad to learn that Mr. Laws has secured a lease of the commodious store recently occupied by Mr. Ambrose, next west of J. B. Adams' Auction Store in Congress Block, which will at once be fitted up for an Express office.

☞ Steamer Lewiston, Capt. Knight, which left Boston on Tuesday night for Portland, put into Portsmouth harbor on Wednesday, on account of the severe N. E. gale.

On Saturday afternoon one of the soldier's wives in calling at the city rooms for State aid, brought in a bouncing baby of nine months age, which was highly commended for its beauty by Judge B., who happened to be present. "Pretty baby." "Are you going to make a soldier of him, like his father?" asked the Judge. "No," replied the proud mother, "we shall not make a soldier of him, for it's a girl." The Judge saw the difficulty at once.—Cor. Ballot.

☞ We are requested to state that Prof. Anderson's exhibition in this city will not take place on Saturday evening, the postponement being rendered necessary by the injuries which Mr. Anderson received from a fall in Lynn on Monday evening last.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—The reader of our advertising columns will see that Messrs. Chapin and Yeaton, who are known favorably as fair dealing grocers in their separate stores, have become partners in that business, for the mutual profit of themselves and their customers.

A case of habeas corpus was tried here last week. It seems that a German with a name too crooked to write, had married a pretty Jewess, but the parties had not lived together since their marriage. The fair heroine of the suit was staying with a German family, and a writ of habeas corpus was issued upon application by her husband to Judge Doe of the Supreme Judicial Court, and served upon the party at whose castle the lady was said to be sojourning.—The person served made a return of the writ denying that he was concerned in detaining the heroine, and the question was heard. Substantiating the marriage by evidence, the Judge held that the parties were married well enough, but that he could not compel the woman to live with the husband if she was not inclined to do so voluntarily. The Judge having lived in single blessedness all his life, of course could go no farther in the merits of the case than to decide the law and urge any suggestions as to connubial duties or happiness, while the petitioner came to the conclusion that it was a case of "niz cun'arous."—Cor. Ballot.

☞ It will be seen that the Gymnastic Exhibition, and Lecture on Health, &c., are advertised for Monday evening next, at the Temple.

☞ Everybody will to-day manifest a woful lack of faith in everybody, and everybody will be on his guard against everybody for fear everybody is trying to play tricks on everybody.

PRICE OF BUTTER.—Butter sold in Boston last week at 55 cents the pound. The cows would smile at the compliment, if they could appreciate it. Probably the speculators have got their hands mixed up with the butter.—Worcester Palladium.

MESSRS. THWING & COLLINS, the popular and enterprising Boston clothiers, have something to say to the public this morning; but their garments (as the Transcript well says) proclaim even more emphatically the perfect skill and the admirable taste they employ in providing for their customers.—Their very large and rich stock of goods,—selected with care and sagacity—the variety of styles they are able to furnish, and the promptness and precision of their manufacture, are all but separate excellencies, which, combined, entitle them to the foremost rank among cloth merchants and clothiers. They fairly epitomize their peculiarities thus: low prices, fresh goods, the best manufacture, large assortment and cash terms. 1t

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!—The citizen soldier will find a more deadly foe in the brackish, muddy water and damp night air than in the most determined enemy. Holloway's Pills purify the blood and strengthen the stomach and bowels that the soldier can endure these hardships and still be strong and healthy. Only 30 cents per box. 230

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Samburn Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

DEATHS.

☞ The funeral of Mr. Henry T. Curtis will take place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from his late residence, No. 70 Water street.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is always an EVIDENCE OF PRUDENT FORETHOUGHT; no man with a dependent family is FREE FROM REPROACH if not insured."—LORD LYNDHURST, late Lord Chancellor of England.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is the CHEAPEST AND SAFEST mode of making a CERTAIN PROVISION FOR ONE'S FAMILY. Many a widow and orphan have had great reason to be grateful that the advantages of LIFE ASSURANCE was understood and embraced by the husband and father."—BENJ. FRANKLIN, 1769.

Constitution Life Syrup,
COMPOSED OF
IODIDE POTASSIUM,
With the compound concentrated fluid extract of
VALUABLE MEDICINAL
ROOTS AND HERBS,
Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,
Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y.
formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup
HAS PRODUCED
A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as heroic as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the slow and cooperative process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

THE CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight at Stomach, Biliousness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Strumo, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

Arthritis, Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, The Dolourous.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. In most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering females will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelling of the Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves—producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions,

Suffering from Indisposition to Exercise, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Fear of Insanity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Nervous Debility, Muscular System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MUTH PATCHES upon the female face, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is needed in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES. It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enriches the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Blessing!—Buy it, take it, and be cured.—It is Universal in its effects

REPENTANCE.

Lord, I have lain
Barren too long, and 'ain
I would redeem the time, that I may be Fruitful to thee;
Fruitful in knowledge, faith, obedience,
Ere I go hence:
That when I come
At harvest to be reaped, and brought home,
Thine angels may
My soul in thy celestial garner lay,
Where perfect joy and bliss
Eternal is.

O entreat
A crop of purest wheat,
A blessing too transcendent should appear
For me to bear.
Lord, make me what thou will, or thou will take
What thou dost make,
And not disdain
To hoe me, though among thy coarsest grain,
So I may be
Laid with the gleanings gathered by thee
When the full sheaves are spent,
I am content. —Francis Quarles.

VICTOR HUGO.—A London cotemporary gives the following bibliographical anecdote concerning a very popular author, and his most successful work of fiction:

Not very long ago, when M. Victor Hugo thought of disposing of his now famous work, "Les Miserables," he entered into negotiations with an eminent Paris house, to which he offered the copyright for 300,000 francs, or £12,000. The sum was thought exorbitant, which led to the breaking off of the negotiations, not without some secret sneers at the extravagant demands of book-makers. This came to the ears of a young publisher of Brussels, M. Lacroix, who no sooner heard of the matter, than he set out for Guernsey, demanded and obtained an interview with Victor Hugo, was allowed to read a portion of the manuscript of the "Miserables," and, having done so, offered at once to pay the 300,000 francs. "Your business is not a large one," remarked M. Victor Hugo. "No; but I intend making it so——by your book," was the reply. "Then you are rich?" suggested the poet. "No, I am not; but I hope to acquire wealth——by your book. To publish it, I stake my whole fortune." It is unnecessary to say that the stake has proved an exceedingly good one; the sale of the "Miserables" surpassing that of any other book published on the Continent for the last ten years. M. Lacroix, we are told, acted throughout with the greatest liberality, feted the author and all his friends at a most sumptuous banquet, to which were invited celebrities from all parts of the globe, and distributed presents and souvenirs to right, and left. Such liberality proved the best form of publicity and, perhaps, contributed not a little to the success of "Les Miserables."

A country individual who was caught in the water wheel of a saw mill, says he intends to apply for a pension, as he is a survivor of the revolution.

CALENDAR CLOCKS.

These Clocks are reliable Time Keepers and Calendars combined, and require the winding of the time movement only, to secure all the required changes of the Calendar at Midnight, showing the day of the week, the month, and day of the month, including the 29th day of February of leap year, perpetually and with unfailing certainty.

Having taken the Agency for the sale of these Clocks, we would invite the public to call and examine them.

Any person desirous of purchasing a Clock will find it to their advantage to examine these before purchasing elsewhere, as we warrant them as good time-keepers as can be obtained for the same price without the Calendar Attachment and those not in want of a clock will find the Calendar alone worth more than the price of the clock. They will be sent to any part of the city, and regulated without extra charge.

LAST AND BEST.
THE MODEL COOK,
AN AIR-TIGHT STOVE,
WITH TWO OVENS,
And Five Boiling Places!

At the present high prices of fuel it is very desirable to lessen its consumption. This can be best accomplished by using a MODEL COOK STOVE. More cooking can be done in one with a single ton of coal, or cord of wood, than with double the quantity in any common stove or range—and in less time also.

The fire being placed in the centre of the stove, with an oven on either side (which may be thrown into one at pleasure), the heat from the fuel is made available for cooking purposes.

The oven doors are fitted with tin, and jackets are provided for the bottom and back of the stove, thus retaining much heat, ordinarily wasted. A check draft is applied by means of which much fuel is saved, and a continuous fire may be kept as long as desirable.

A Water Tank and Hot Closet can be applied to either side, when needed.

In fact, no pains or expense have been spared to make this a PERFECT Stove, and we think it surpasses all others for Economy, Durability, Capacity, Convenience, Beauty of Design and Perfection of Finish.

It is equally well adapted for Coal or Wood; Summer or Winter use; excellent for a family where help is employed, and invaluable to the housewife who does her own work, lightening it at least one-half.

No family, large or small, where economy, convenience and comfort are desirable, should be without one.

We refer to some parties who have purchased the Model Cook—

A Great Variety of Cheaper Stoves

NO. 46 MARKET STREET.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the exception of there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, which can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as numerous families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about removing or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and elastic, and at the same time the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce asphyxia so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, than may have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious, the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, is thus made to pass off through the flue, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney to be destroyed in a few years.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and keep the fire in the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron Hall, Charles H. Bradley,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

MISTAKEN FOR AN EMBASSADOR.—A correspondent writing from Paris, says:—"I hope it may never fall to the lot of any of your readers to be mistaken for an embassador as happened to a friend of mine yesterday. He arrived at a hotel which, to injure no vested interests, I will call L' Hotel Enormo, and, being half asleep, asked for a bedroom. It was six A. M., and he went to bed and to sleep. When he awoke he found himself lying in state in a crimson satin bed, the room lighted up by many bougies, and a vista of looking glasses reflected and re-reflected his astonished face. He rose and found baths prepared in a dressing-room fitted up like a lady's boudoir, and, finally, breakfast arranged on a small table in the midst of a vast saloon, bright with mirrors, and splendid with gold and crimson. Alarmed, he rang the bell. "Waiter, where am I?" "Hotel Enorme, votre excellence! au premier." "And the price?" asked my friend. "Oh, a bagatelle, as son excellence will see by your tariffe." He looked and found it was two hundred francs. "Why put me here?" "I thought Monsieur was an embassador. We always put them au premier." "Embassador! why?" "Because Monsieur wore a black coat."—London Times.

LOUISIANA—THE UNION.—The recent mission of Messrs. Landonnez and Bertonneau, delegates from the Free Colored population of New Orleans to Washington, seems to be grossly misapprehended. We think even the reported response of the President evinces a misconception of the claim advanced, which we trust has been cleared up. A recent Washington letter mistakenly says:—

"The free colored citizens of Louisiana are before Congress, asking that the elective franchise be conferred upon them. The petitioners are conscious that such a power conferred upon them would be contrary to the provisions of the Constitution of the State, but reason that, as the military authorities in that State have set aside in one or two particulars the provisions of the Constitution, the military officers can go still further, and extend to them the right of suffrage however obnoxious such a course might be to the laws or the people."

Louisiana was ceded to us by France on certain express conditions, among which was a stipulation that the citizens thereof should enjoy all the rights and privileges of citizens of the United States. Now the Constitution and laws then in force of Republican France knew no distinction between free persons on account of their color, but secured equal rights to all. These free colored people of Louisiana—generally children of French fathers by African mothers—were legally Frenchmen and entitled as such to all the legal rights of Frenchmen. That they have for half a century been denied those rights by the Constitution and laws of Louisiana, does not invalidate them; nor can that Constitution, those laws, estop or overrule their claim, which is founded on a treaty which is expressly declared by the Federal Constitution, "the supreme law of the land, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding." Besides, there was no State of Louisiana, and of course she had no State rights, at the time we made the treaty with France whereby we acquired Louisiana; and the rights thereby vested cannot be divested by our subsequent action.

What is the answer to this? Can one be contrived or imagined that will authorize us to hold on to Louisiana, yet repudiate an important condition of the bargain whereby we obtained it? And what have our alleged infractions of the Constitution of Louisiana to do with the matter?—Tribune.

The following copy of a droll letter, written by a soldier to the mayor of a village near Ham, in answer to a note informing him of his father's death, is published in a French provincial paper: "I heartily thank Mr. Mayor for my father's death. It is a little accident which happens in families. As for myself, I am in the hospital minus one leg, with which I have the honor to salute you."

DR. TEBBETTS'
PHYSIOLOGICAL
HAIR REGENERATOR
AND
UNIVERSAL HAIR RESTORER.
ITS MODUS OPERANDI.
Immediately beneath the scalp there are very small Glands, or, more commonly Roots of the Hair. It is from these Glands that every hair of the head is formed and secreted. As long as the scalp is free from disease, these bodies also remain healthy, and the hair keeps its natural appearance and color. But when humors and other diseases have fastened upon these glands become involved in the same disease, and the hair gradually turns gray, dry and brittle. Sooner or later the hair begins to fall off, and in many cases, if not arrested, will produce a complete baldness of the scalp.
The remedy this pathological condition of the glands and create a new and healthy action, the Physiological Hair Regenerator has proved a perfect success—inasmuch as it is the only preparation yet known that can boast of such wonderful results.
Unlike thousands of other articles in the market, containing Silver, Lime, Lead, Litharge, Tannic, Sulphur, &c., and producing only a sort of yellow or flax color, it will, if properly applied restore the hair to its former appearance and beauty.
The Physiological Hair Regenerator is warranted in all cases to produce the following results:
1. It is not a Dye and will not stain a single particle. It contains no coloring matter whatever, and is not the most injurious in its application.
2. It will certainly RESTORE the hair from a gray to a beautiful Black, Brown, Auburn, or whatever might have been its original color.
3. It will effectually prevent the hair from falling off, remove all dead, inflammation and Dandruff from the scalp, keeping the head clean and cool, and the hair soft, glossy and of a silky appearance.
4. It will PROMOTE a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, except in extreme cases of old age and where the glands have become disorganized.
5. It will cure the most inveterate itching and neuralgia of the scalp, and being highly perfumed, it affords a most delightful article for the toilet.
We have a great abundance of testimony to prove beyond a doubt all that we claim for the Regenerator; and it is positively certain that in a very short time it will have a world wide reputation.
HOME TESTIMONY.
BEDFORD, N. H., Dec. 17, 1863.
Messrs. Tebbetts Brothers—The preparation you induced me to try on my hair, about six weeks ago, has a wonderful effect. My hair was then almost white and now it is almost black. My daughter has also tried it on her hair, which was fast falling off on account of a severe attack of the thptheria; it stopped it immediately on its application. My wife has also been trying it for baldness on top of her head, and finds that a new growth of hair is rapidly starting. We have only used one bottle, and I think one more will fix our heads up in good shape. J. C. CUTLER.
MANCHESTER, Dec. 20, 1863.
Gents—Unless I am very much mistaken, your Hair Regenerator is destined, ere long, to work a complete revolution with all Other Hair Preparations. It not only restores the hair to its natural color and keeps the head free from Dandruff, but it is the most beautiful dressing that can be prepared. My hair, without any apparent cause, began to turn gray when about thirteen years of age, and had been gradually increasing for more than ten years, when about two months ago I began the use of your Regenerator, and it has completely astonished all my friends to see my hair brought back to its natural color, which is almost a complete black. It is the only thing, unless it was a regular dye. Dye that I ever knew would produce such effect. It also keeps the head so clean and free from scurf, that it makes a very nice dressing. JACOB J. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

The statement that McClellan is to command the defences of Washington is denied on high authority.

162 Colonels are at present commanding brigades, without including those temporarily commanding in the absence of the proper brigade commanders.

The Union prisoners lately sent to us and rebel prisoners lately returned to Richmond are not exchanged, but paroled.

It is said that Maj. Gen. Smith has been assigned to duty at Fortress Monroe.

The rebel iron-clad Merrimac No. 2 is reported to be ready to make a raid on our iron-clads at Newport News and Hampton Roads. It is also reported that the rebel iron-clads in North Carolina will also make a simultaneous appearance. The double-turreted Monitor Onondaga has gone to Fortress Monroe to meet the former.

Reinforcements have been sent to Florida, and it is rumored that our troops will soon advance from Jacksonville, under command of Gen. Gilmore in person. A letter states that a night attack was made by a small rebel force, on the 22d ult., upon Pilatki, but our forces drove them off.—Beauregard is reported to have erected large earthworks ten miles from Pilatki.

A reconoissance by Gen. Mower, 75 miles above Alexandria, La., brought on a fight with the enemy, in which we captured four pieces of artillery and 200 prisoners.

Franklin, La., has been evacuated, and the government stores there removed to Brashear City.

It is said that no more apprehension of Forrest's force is felt in Kentucky. 200 or 300 mounted rebels have appeared in Kentucky from Pound Gap, supposed to be covering the advance of Longstreet's forces.

Longstreet has retreated to Watauga, over 100 miles east of Knoxville.

Deserters report that Johnston is reinforcing Lee.

The entire Navajo Nation, 6000 Indians, have surrendered to Gen. Carlton. The troops have been put on half rations, to feed them.

Gen. Curtis has 16,000 Union soldiers in Kansas and the Indian Territory.

☞ Our thanks are due Mr. G. W. Hodgkins, at present residing in California, who has sent us by mail some fine specimens of copper ore from Plumas county; gold-bearing quartz from the "Horse Shoe," Plumas county; and copper ore from Mountain Meadow. The specimens of the first are especially beautiful, and from their bright tints and brilliant colors rather "take the shine out" of the yellow little pieces marked with minute gold stars.

— Extensive fortifications are to be erected at Point Lookout.

— The New Jersey Legislature has before it a bill to "prevent the admixture of races" in that State.

— Fifty-eight English life assurance offices are winding up their business, it is said.

— Commander Pickering has been ordered to the command of the gunboat Fort Donelson, now at Boston.

— Gen. Fremont's friends are urging those of President Lincoln to request the postponement of the National Convention.

— The President will soon lay before Congress the telegraphic correspondence between himself and General McClellan, suppressed in the report of the latter.

— It is stated that the Marine Corps is to be increased to 3000 men. A bill is before Congress to make the present commandant a brigadier-general.

— Timothy Titcomb (Dr. Holland) in a lecture called "The National Heart," defines "a conservative" as one who is not on the humane side of anything.

— A Southern lady has crocheted a pair of "O, no we never mention 'em" for her husband, which are represented to be handsome in appearance and good for three years or the war.

— A Londoner has contrived an ingenious pocket map, made of two pieces of paper, 13 inches by 5, which by being folded in a certain way, give at pleasure a complete map of the world or of the heavens.

— A married couple in Detroit had a quarrel, and the wife declared that she would not speak to her husband until he apologized. For five years she kept her ill-natured vow. A few days since a reconciliation was effected.

— It is now stated that Hon. Leonard Swett cannot be Mr. Lovejoy's successor because he does not live in the same district. Mr. E. C. Ingersoll, candidate at large at the last Congressional election, is mentioned as the probable man for the place.

— Messrs. T. W. Park and Seth B. Hunt of Bennington, Vt., have purchased a building in that town in which they propose to place a library, and then convey the establishment to the town as a free gift. It will cost $10,000.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By Uncle Tony.

Whitefield and Pepperell in 1745.—Favorable Providences.—Before Pepperell accepted the command, he asked the opinion of the famous George Whitefield who was then itinerating and preaching in New England. Whitefield told him that he did not think the scheme very promising; that the eyes of all would be on him; and if it should not succeed, the widows and orphans of the slain would reproach him; and if it should succeed, many would regard him with envy, and endeavor to eclipse his glory; that he ought therefore to go with 'a single eye,' and then he would find his strength proportioned to his necessity.—Henry Sherburne, the commissary of New Hampshire, another of Whitefield's friends, pressed him to favor the expedition and give a motto for the flag; to which, after some hesitation, he consented. The motto was, 'Nil desperandum Christo duce.' (Never despair, Christ is our leader.) This gave the expedition the air of a crusade, and many of his followers enlisted. One of them, a chaplain, carried on his shoulder a hatchet, with which he intended to destroy the images in the French churches.

There are certain latent sparks in human nature, which, by a collision of causes, are sometimes brought to light; and when once excited, their operations are not easily controlled. In undertaking any thing hazardous, there is a necessity for extraordinary vigor of mind, and a degree of confidence and fortitude, which shall raise us above the dread of danger, and dispose us to run a risk which the cold maxims of prudence would forbid. The people of New England have at various times shown such an enthusiastic ardor, which has been excited by the example of their ancestors and their own exposed situation. It was never more apparent, and perhaps never more necessary, than on the occasion of this expedition. Nor ought it to be forgotten, that several circumstances, which did not depend on human foresight, greatly favored this undertaking.

The winters in this country are often severe, but the winter in which this expedition was planned, and particularly the month of February, was very mild. The harbors and rivers were open, and the weather was in general so pleasant, that every kind of labor could be done abroad. The fruitfulness of the preceding season had made provisions plenty. The Indians had not yet molested the frontiers; and though some of them had heard that an expedition against Cape Breton was in hand, and carried the news of it to Canada, such an attempt was so improbable that the French gave no credit to the report, and those in Nova Scotia did not receive the least intelligence of the preparations.—Douglass observes that "some guardian angel preserved the troops from taking the small pox," which appeared in Boston about the time of their embarkation, and was actually imported in one of the ships which was taken into their service. A concurrence of happy incidents brought together every British ship of war from the ports of the American continent and islands, till they made a formidable naval force, consisting of four ships of the line and six frigates, under command of an active, judicious and experienced officer. On the other hand the garrison of Louisburg was discontented and mutinous; they were in want of provisions and stores; they had no knowledge of the design formed against them; their shores were so environed with ice that no supplies could arrive early from France, and those which came afterwards were intercepted and taken by our cruisers. In short, "if any one circumstance had taken a wrong turn on our side, and if any one circumstance had not taken a wrong turn on the French side, the expedition must have miscarried."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The 7th regiment of re-enlisted veterans arrived at Concord from Jacksonville, Fla., on Friday morning. They will have a furlough of thirty days.

—— Herman W. Green, a lawyer, has been bound over for trial in the sum of $2000, for perjury in swearing himself from the draft. He was enrolled in Hopkinton, and drafted at Concord in August last, being himself called, as a citizen of that town, to witness the fairness of the draft. He subsequently made oath before a justice that he had resided in Boston, Mass., for nine years, and had never been in Hopkinton except on a visit during that time.—On this affidavit he obtained an exemption from the draft. But in December, he voted at a town meeting in Hopkinton, was chosen a member of a town committee and acted as such. At the last election he claimed the right to vote there; objection was made, the affidavit alluded to above was shown to him and to the selectmen, but he then swore before the selectmen that Hopkinton was his residence, and had been for nine months, and that he had a right to vote there. His name was put upon the list, and he was elected Moderator of the meeting.

☞ The Portland Courier expresses, in terms hardly polite, its doubt of the statement which the Bath Times made, that citizens of Augusta were forced from the sidewalks into banks of snow by passing sleighs during the past winter, yet in the same number of the Courier we find the following strange story:—

A correspondent from Augusta writes that the streets of that city are crowded with soldiers, and they act so badly that the ladies have been compelled to arm themselves with pepper boxes in self defence.—One woman, a dressmaker, who is obliged to be out in the evening, having been insulted several times, armed herself with cayenne pepper, which she sprinkles in the faces of the graceless scoundrels, so that they have learned to let her alone. One of them was heard to say, as she passed a squad, "don't touch her—she is the pepper woman." They frightened one young lady almost out of her senses by chasing her.—We should think that between the military and civil authorities at Augusta, a stop might be put to such disgraceful outrages.

"Whew! That will be news to our Augusta friends"—we hope.

☞ There is a strange account, for which a Belgian paper is responsible, of some experiments to show the effect produced by music on petroleum oil lamps.—They are at once extinguished by a certain note sounded on a brass instrument. It states that during a quatuor, three or four lamps placed in different parts of the room went out stimultaneously, and M. Duhem, professor at the Brussels Conservatoire of Music, extinguished eight lamps successively by the sound of a trumpet.

— The Ohio Senate passed a bill on Friday prohibiting the marriage of first cousins.

— The bill authorizing the soldiers to vote at the spring election has passed the Ohio Legislature.

— The gold fields of Australia are less productive than formerly; last year's yield shows a decrease of £700,000.

— The Hartford copperheads have added $10.25 to their Vallandigham fund, making the very handsome total of $21.25.

— There are 30,000 working women in New York city, and their wages average less than 50 cents a day.

— An exchange states that Prof. Gamgee, a celebrated vejerinarian, has become confirmed in the opinion that the flesh of cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia, when eaten by man, induces boils and carbuncles to an incredible extent.

— An Ohio woman corrected her only son, a lad of 12, about a year ago, and he ran away. Since then she has been engaged in searching for him, traveling continually upon the Ohio railroads and peering anxiously into every boyish face she sees, hoping to find her lost son. Grief and anxiety caused her to become insane, and she was lately run over by the cars while sitting upon the track, and was instantly killed.

THE IMMENSE POPULARITY OF THE

California Wines

Introduced by us, is a flattering tribute to their purity and delicacy, and a cheering indication of a desire among the people to encourage American Industry.

The Surgeon General of the United States, after an analysis of our Wines, reports them to be PURE.

Dr. Charles T. Jackson, State Assayer, who is the most undoubted authority, after an analysis of our Port Wine, says:—"The fluid ounce leaves fifty-four grains of solid matter, consisting WHOLLY of the fixed principles of grapes. I find no adulterating ingredients, and consider it suitable for medicinal and general use."

The Boston Traveller says:—"The California White or Hock Wine rivals in flavor the best of Hock Wines, and costs much less."

The Saturday Evening Gazette says:—"The White Wine is equal to the Stein or light wines which we import, with a fine and rich flavor, and we believe its purity unquestionable."

Hon. John G. Downey, late Governor of California, says:—"I most cheerfully recommend your Wines to all who desire a pure juice of the grape."

The New York Commercial Advertiser says:—"The wines have a fine flavor, and need only to be tasted to be approved."

The New York Tribune says:—"The 'Angelica' has a rich and delicious flavor, unsurpassed by any Wine in the market."

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies oft act speedily when taken in the early stage of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cough, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. ☞ The storm put our streets in a "horrid" condition, especially on Thursday and Friday. The "walking" was rather wading, till at last it was a positive pleasure to see men employed by the city to drain off some of the superabundant water from the sidewalks and crossings. It was rather late in the season to inaugurate that desirable custom, but it was appreciated yesterday. By the way we think somebody, legally empowered so to do, sometime since instructed somebody else to see that the Snow Ordinance was enforced. Has it been done during the past two days?

OLD YORK THIEVES.—We understand that David M. Webber, of York, Me., (known there as Melt Webber) has been in the employ of Sylvester and James W. Bartlett, butchers, of Eliot, Me., for the most of the time for a year past, until Jan. 9, 1864, when he left without cause. About two weeks ago Mr. Bartlett had occasion to count up his wool skins, and found between 30 and 40 of them missing. Having lost some trifling things during the past summer, and knowing very well where they went, he proceeded to hunt up the skins and found them at Great Falls. On the morning of the 14th of January, two men, answering the description of the aforesaid David M. Webber and his brother, were there before daylight and sold two neats hides and fifteen wool skins (giving their names as Goodwin, of York). Having obtained this information, Mr. Bartlett procured a warrant for three of the brothers—Andrew, Nathaniel, and David M. Webber, as these brothers were back and forward after David, while he was at work for Mr. B. He succeeded in arresting two of them, Andrew and Nathaniel,—but David, seeing Mr. Bartlett's horse coming, with an officer, took the hint to leave, and ran into the woods. Having a search warrant, the officer proceeded to search the house and outbuildings, and found four meal bags and three hay caps, which Mr. Bartlett identified as his property, but no one knew how they came there. The family all said they belonged to David. The next day the two arrested were taken to South Berwick, Me., before H. H. Hobbs, Esq. They pleaded "not guilty," and the proof against them was not such as to convict them; but Mr. Bartlett received from them $100 towards the stolen property, although he thinks $150 worth of goods have been stolen from him. He has lost about 35 wool skins, 10 salted calf skins, 2 ox hides, 15 meal bags, full of meal, a number of sheep, besides hay caps and other small articles, to the amount of the above sum. We would now advise these Webber chaps to keep their side of Old York River, as a warrant is open against them if they turn up in these localities. COR.

CROPS IN AROOSTOOK.—Messrs. Winslow & G. C. Hall raised last year, on their farm in Lyndon, on 20 acres of burned land, 332 bushels of wheat, worth enough to pay all expense of felling the trees, clearing the land, seed, sowing and harvesting the crop, and $50 over. The land will yield for years a net profit of $6 per year per acre. This crop is but an ordinary one for Aroostook. Usually the crop would have been much larger. Last year was a poor one for wheat.—Loyal Sunrise.

An Irish woman went into a West India goods store in Lowell, a day or two since and called for half a pound of butter. The proprietor, suggested that the amount was rather small, and she had better purchase a quantity sufficient to last her a greater length of time. "O," she answered "it isn't to ate that I want it, but just to put on the table to look at."

The following letter was received by a gentleman of Poughkeepsie through the Sanitary Fair Post Office in that place: "Sanithara Post Office—Dere Sur—Enklosed piece find ten dollars—if you can. Very respectably yours, Josh Billings."

The Turkey Hollow Debating Club are discussing the question whether, since "Marriage is a lottery," the New York clergyman who are conscientiously opposed to "raffling at Fairs" can consistently aid in a marriage ceremony.

Morning Chronicle.

A WITTY ARCHBISHOP.—"Young Yorick" contributes to Notes and Queries some of the witty sayings for which Archbishop Whately was famous in Dublin: "What is the difference," he asked of a young clergyman he was examining, "between a form and a ceremony? The meaning seems nearly the same; yet there is a very nice distinction." Various answers were given. "Well," he said, "it lies in this: you sit upon a form, but you stand upon ceremony." "Morrow's Library" is the Mudie of Dublin; and the Rev. Mr. Day, popular preacher. "How inconsistent," said the Archbishop, "is the piety of certain ladies here. They go to Day for a sermon and to Morrow for a novel."

On Doctor K——'s promotion to the Bishopric of Down, "The Irish Government will not be able to stand many more such Knocks Down as this!" At a Lord Lieutenant's banquet a grace was given of unusual length. "My lord," said the Archbishop, "did you ever hear the story of Lord Mulgrave's chaplain?" "No," said the Lord Lieutenant. "A young chaplain had preached a sermon of great length. 'Sir,' said Lord Mulgrave, bowing to him, 'there were some things in your sermon of to day I never heard before.' 'O, my lord,' said the flattered chaplain, 'it is a common text, and I could not have hoped to have said anything new on the subject.' 'I heard the clock strike twice,' said Lord Mulgrave." At some religious ceremony at which he was to officiate in the country, a young curate who attend him grew very nervous as to their being late. "My good young friend," said the Archbishop, "I can only say to you what the criminal going to be hanged said to those around, who were hurrying him, 'Let us take our time; they can't begin without us.'"

Gray's Patent Molded Collars

Have now been before the public for nearly a year. They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant.

The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars.

The crystal causes no pockets on the inside of the neck-band, and gives the wearer an SMOOTH INSIDE AS OUTSIDE—and therefore perfectly free and easy to the neck.

The Gutta Percha Collar has a smooth and evenly finished edge on both sides.

These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO FIT THE NECK.

They are made in "Novelty" (or turn-down) style, in every half size from 12 to 17 inches, and in "Eureka" (Gardner's) from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "solid sizes" in neat blue cartons, containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of 10 each, the latter a very handy package for Travellers, Army and Navy Officers.

Constitution Life Syrup,

COMPOSED OF

IODIDE POTASSIUM,

With the compound concentrated fluid extract of

VALUABLE MEDICINAL

ROOTS AND HERBS,

Prepared by WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,

Graduate College Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y., formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

Constitution Life Syrup

HAS PRODUCED

A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal minded and scientific to cases which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored. Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition no less than as ever encountered by any Reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the slow and unsuccessful process of Nature." This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the proper balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis.

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weight or Stone's, Dizziness, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Bad Breath.

Scrofula.

Strumous, Glandular Swellings, Ulcerations, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum.

This taint (hereditary or acquired) filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

(Arthritic), Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, The Dolorous.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a specific, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. Its wonderful results are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicerious, of 20 or 30 years standing have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day we introduced to their notice. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexions, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of Mercury, removing the fetid Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Miserable Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to induce, and hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth as firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases, such as

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing the disfiguring and suffering-producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharging Glandular Sores, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These sores soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All sexes and persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without recourse to the knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart (as Palpitation, Disease of Valves producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart, and all Diseases of the Heart of important organs, or persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by taking Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indigestion, Costiveness, Pain in the Back, Loss of Memory, Forebodings, Horror of Darkness, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin, Nervous Irritation, Confusion of Ideas, Restlessness, Pale Haggard Countenance and Languid Eye, Constitution System, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Generative Diseases, either of the Nose Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Neck, the Life Syrup has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES are the result of a debilitated condition of the Liver, depending upon a diseased action of the Liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

The Liver is the great detoxicator, giving rise to languor, dizziness, indigestion, weak stomach, or an aggregated or impaired condition of that organ, and consequent burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases and Lameness, Life Syrup cures these diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pale countenance, strengthen their weak back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

THE RICH AND POOR are liable to the same diseases. Nature and science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, premature early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES

It is the safest and most efficient medicine ever discovered for purifying the system and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and improves the food—those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly valued both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

Constitution Life Syrup

Is the Poor Man's friend and the Rich Man's Blessing! Buy it, take it, and be cured. It is Universal in its effects

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as inconvenience of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Whites or Whites, from which other all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an aid or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at meals, in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and drying, removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unbearable pain that is experienced with nearly all the Injections now used.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, and the drying up of the stove is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about renovating or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, sufficiently agreeable—and as pure of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while others have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to burn the same the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus complicating, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the same may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

THE CAT.—There is a prevalent idea that the cat is incapable of personal affection, being simply attached to places.—Doubtless cats are less sagacious, and less devoted to persons than are dogs. We think, however, that our much traduced feline friend has more in her, so to speak, than is generally admitted by persons who have not studied her character. The phrenologist would tell us that puss has the organ of locality highly developed; she certainly dislikes a change of residence, and evinces great uneasiness when obliged to alter her locale. We are personally acquainted with a magnificent tom, which for eight years has constantly occupied the same room as his master, who has been an invalid for the greater part of that period. It happens sometimes that Boodle's master has to be moved to a room in a distant part of the house. The cat invariably follows, showing, however, at the same time, unmistakable signs of disturbed temper at the change. Boodle's master has been ordered change of air; and, on one occasion, during his absence, the cat wandered away from the house, not reappearing until his friend was safely re-established in the old quarters, where meat, milk, and a comfortable bed had failed to attract the faithful animal during his friend's absence. This cat, like others we have heard of, is much terrified by the sound of wind; and during the rough northwest gales to which his favorite room is exposed, will take up his abode in a distant part of the house, and facing the east, thus proving that he is by no means blindly attached to places. Were we to bestow equal trouble upon the cat's education to that devoted to the dog, it may be the former animal would reward our pains by a display of well nigh as much affection and intelligence as does our canine favorites. It is not generally known how tractable the cat really is. We know of one of these animals which, despite its natural aversion to damp and cold, would follow her master during his shooting excursions through wet grass and exposed to cold winds, never leaving his side as long as he carried the gun. The report of the fowling piece was ever a signal for this cat to forsake her snug bed on the hearth for the more attractive pleasures of the field. It is true, her master occasionally rewarded his eccentric companion with a taste of the contents of the game bag.

When well trained, the cat is very orderly in her habits. Boodle, whose fidelity to his master we have described, has been taught to save the carpet by taking his food on a paper dish, prepared for him at every meal. From good training, and, it may be, the force of habit, this cat will bring home rats, mice and birds, which he places on the paper, evidently preferring to eat his prey in this civilized manner, to a more natural way of devouring it. The cat may be trained to great regularity and cleanliness in her habits. Every evening, summer and winter, our Boodle leaves the house at about 8 o'clock, and after a ramble in the grounds climbs up the veranda and scratches at his master's window for re-admittance for the night, which he passes at his friend's feet, never but once, and that before the completion of his education, having transgressed the rules of propriety.

WHAT HE THOUGHT OF IT.—Tom is a bright little boy, and very much attached to his mother. The other day his father came home in a bad humor, and was scolding and finding fault with things generally. Little Tom sat and listened until he thought it necessary to interfere in behalf of his mother, when, looking up to his father, he said in a very decided tone,

"If you did not like her ways, what did you marry her for?"

The weather cleared up at once, and the storm was over.

"FATHER," said a blue eyed patter of fifteen summers, "ain't sister and I your resources?"

"Yes, my child," replied the indulgent parent.

"Well philosophers say man should husband his resources!"

No man is a hypocrite in his pleasures.—What a man laugns at shows his real character.

DR. TEBBETTS'
PHYSIOLOGICAL
HAIR REGENERATOR
—AND—
UNIVERSAL HAIR RESTORER.
ITS MODUS OPERANDI.
Immediately beneath the scalp there are very small glands, or, more commonly Roots of the Hair. It is from these Glands that every hair of the head is formed and secreted. As long as the scalp is in tone these glands or bodies also remain healthy, and the hair keeps its natural appearance and color. But when humors and other diseases affect the scalp, these glands become involved in the same disease, and the hair gradually turns gray, dry and brittle. Sooner or later the hair begins to fall off, and in many cases, if not arrested, will produce a complete baldness of the scalp.
To remedy this pathological condition of the glands and create a new and healthy action, the Physiological Hair Regenerator has proved a perfect success—inasmuch as it is the only preparation yet known that can speak of such wonderful results.
Unlike thousands of other articles in the market, containing Silver, Lime, Lead, Litharge, Tannin, Sulphur, &c., and producing only a sort of yellow or flax color, it will, if properly applied restore the hair to its former appearance and beauty.
The Physiological Hair Regenerator is warranted in all cases to produce the following results:
1. It is not a Dye and will not stain a single particle. It contains no coloring matter whatever, and is not the least injurious in its application.
2. It will certainly & SURE the hair from a gray to a beautiful Black, Brown, Auburn, or whatever might have been its original color.
3. It will effectually prevent the hair from falling off, remove all Heat, Inflammation and Dandruff from the scalp, keeping the head clean and cool, and the hair soft, glossy and of a silky appearance.
4. It will PROMOTE a luxuriant growth of new hair on bald heads, except in extreme cases of old age and where the glands have become disorganized.
5. It will cure the most inveterate itching and neuralgia of the scalp, and being highly perfumed, it affords a most delightful article for the toilet.
We have in great abundance of testimony to prove beyond a doubt all that we claim for the Regenerator, and it is positively certain that in a very short time it will have a world wide reputation.
HOME TESTIMONY.
BEDFORD, N. H., Dec. 17, 1863.
Messrs. Tebbetts Brothers—The preparation you induced me to try on my hair, about six weeks ago, has had a wonderful effect. My hair was then almost white and now it is almost black. My daughter has also tried it on her hair, which was fast falling off on account of a severe attack of the diptheria; it stopped it immediately on its application. My wife has also been trying it for baldness on top of her head, and finds that a new growth of hair is rapidly starting. We have only used one bottle, and I think one more will fix our heads up in good shape. J. C. CUTLER.
MANCHESTER, Dec. 20, 1863.
Gents—Unless I am very much mistaken, your Hair Regenerator is destined, ere long, to work a complete revolution with all other Hair Preparations. It not only restores the hair to its natural color and keeps the head free from Dandruff, but it is the most beautiful dressing that can be prepared. My hair, without any apparent cause, began to turn gray, when about thirteen years of age, and had been gradually increasing for more than ten years, when at out two months ago I began the use of your Regenerator, and it has completely astonished all my friends to see my hair brought back to its natural color, which is almost a compact weight. It is the only thing, unless it was a regular Hair Dye, that I ever knew would produce such effect. It also keeps the head so clean and free from scurf, that it makes a very nice dressing. JACOB J. Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, APRIL 4, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

The rebels are digging rifle-pits on the south side of the Rapidan, near Raccoon Ford, and tearing up the railroad between Fredericksburg and Hanover Junction.

Gen. Banks started for the front Mar. 22. Adm. Farragut, who has been at Pensacola, would leave for the Texas coast on the 26th. Operations at Fort Powell, near Mobile, are suspended for the present.

Reports from Magador, Morocco, Mar. 4, report that an armed steamer, supposed to be the Florida, had been hovering for two weeks near Agadir or Santa Cruz. The Moors describe her as full of men and with plenty of guns. She showed no flag.

Generals Buell, Negley, McCook, Crittenden, Newton and Syke and ten Brigadiers have been ordered to report for duty in Sherman's division. Gen. Buell will most likely succeed Gen. Schofield in command of the Department of the Ohio.

The rebel Colonel Ould has given assurance to Gen. Butler that the body of Col. Dahlgren will be soon given up to his father. So says the N. Y. Tribune's dispatch which also states that Gen. Ord is to command our forces in Western Virginia,—Gen. Sigel to command that department, but not to conduct military operations.

Advices from Newbern, N. C., represent the enemy in our front to be guarding their lines with unusual care in order to prevent our knowing anything regarding their strength. A most bitter and exciting political contest is ranging in the interior between the friends of Gov. Vance and Mr. W. H. Holden, the candidates for governor.

McCullough is said to be marching, with 2500 rebels, to reinforce Forrest.

☞ Foreign advices show hard fighting in Denmark. On Thursday, Mar. 17, there was heavy cannonading and fighting all along the line of Duppel Village, and the Tonjeberg position was taken by the Prussians after a heroic resistance by the Danes. The position of Duppel was still unharmed. The numbers of the Prussians are represented to be always four to one. A Danish Colonel was killed on the 17th and seventy wounded were brought in.

On the 18th three Prussian men-of-war attacked the Danish blockading squadron off Griefwold Pomerania. After an engagement of two hours the Prussian vessel returned to the harbor. Artillery firing was renewed on the same day at Duppel.

The Commander-in-Chief of the Prussian Navy had received a report stating that on the 19th the Arcona, with three gunboats, was again put to sea in search of hostile shipping. The cruise had no result known, all the Danish ships having left the Prussian waters. The report concludes: "Therefore there can be no question of an existing blockade of the Prussian coast." The Danish Government has decreed to release the Hanoverian ships under embargo in Danish ports.

— Connecticut election,—to day, Monday. Rhode Island, Wednesday.

— Adm. Dahlgren returns to the fleet off Charleston, to day, Monday.

— The 10-40 bonds are being snapped up by the capitalists.

— The dry weather in California is becoming a cause of serious anxiety.

— The Irish National Fair, under the auspices of the Fenian Brotherhood, opened in Chicago on Monday last. The rain prevented any extensive out-door display.

— Gen. Grant left Washington on Thursday afternoon for Fortress Monroe. The Washington Republican says it is not proper to discuss the object of this visit.

— Mr. Mason Jones, in a speech at Liverpool, designated the New York correspondent of the London Times (Mackay) as "the most perfect and scientific liar of the nineteenth century."

— Gen. Meade was before the Committee on the Conduct of the War on Thursday, giving evidence in reference to the battle of Gettysburg. His testimony was clear, and left a good impression on the Committee.

— Count Schewale, who attracted public attention two years ago by numerous benefactions to our soldiers, has just made a donation of 8,000 pairs of boots and shoes, and $100 in money, to be expended in corn and meal to feed the hungry, to the suffering East Tennesseans.

— The Herald of Progress has late intelligence from the spirit world, to the effect that Stonewall Jackson is positive that after six more battles, two of them to be hand-to-hand encounters, the war will be over and peace declared under the stars and stripes. Gold will take the downward track in May and July. France will be the first to receive punishment from America. 'Butler and Bombshelle' is a better cry for abolitionism than 'Fremont and Freedom.' Gen. Butler and Jeff. Davis are the best practical abolitionists. Others are talkers and hangers on, and so forth, and so forth.

BUDGET OF BLUNDERS.—The respectable portion of our people were greatly excited for a number of days, by some scandalous libels on the good women who went out to Port Royal to teach the negroes.—The said scandalous libels were lately shown up as gross lies, by the Port Royal correspondent of the New York World; and they were not believed at all by most intelligent people.

In the meantime, a hot dispute grew up as to who made the lies; and this dispute has not yet ended. We have seen two versions of them; the first in a Portland paper, (we think the Advertiser) without credit, and apparently original. Another version, in many papers, credited to the Concord Patriot or N. H. Patriot, and containing a partial endorsement alleged to come from Rev. Liberty Billings. Papers, friendly and otherwise, copied it with this credit, and praised or blamed, as their views were.

But lo! in the Patriot of March 30, we find this distinct, emphatic denial:—

As to the alleged "libel" upon the negro-teachers in South Carolina, we have but a word to say. It did not originate in the Patriot; it was never published in the Patriot, nor alluded to in any form in its columns!

Seeing this, and thinking there might be some evasion, we carefully looked over a file of the Patriot for March, and part of February, to see what we supposed we had seen there, and to our surprise found no mention of it! The editor, like ourselves, had avoided it, doubtless supposing, as we did, that it was false, and would presently be contradicted and exposed.

This is not the only blunder. Friends and foes, as the New York Tribune and Boston Courier, both call on Mr. Billings to explain. He did so, most thoroughly, by denying any endorsement of his, contradicting the story, and charging the lie about himself to the N. H. Patriot.

But says the Patriot:—

Rev. Col. Liberty Billings, in a letter to the N. Y. Tribune, says the Patriot asserted that he confirmed the "miscegenation" report about the Port Royal negro teachers. To use his own words, "this is maliciously false."

An impartial observer does not see the malice,—though the falsehood is apparent, and the blunders, together, ludicrous enough. A word of explanation may show the reader how the principal blunder occurred. Some of the Boston daily papers copied the offensive item from the New York Express, where it was erroneously credited to the N. H. Patriot,—and thence it went over New England as belonging to the latter paper;—and Mr. Billings' reply was made in that light. It really was a malicious lie, as he says—but he did not get at the "liar and the father of it," but was misled by the wrong credit of the Express, as were the New England editors generally.

It is amusing to see how the base report, floating round for a year, as the Patriot says, was treated with neglect, as a mere copperhead hiss—but was invested with importance in a moment, when somebody forged the name of Liberty Billings as endorser.

Some good comes out of the blunders, after all: the good women out at Port Royal are thoroughly vindicated; the leading opposition papers wash their hands of the dirty libel; and the real authors keep dark.

U. T.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Gen. Isaac Eastman, of East Concord, now in his 85th year, is so ill that his recovery is not expected.

—— The ladies of the Episcopal Society in Keene have contributed $1200 toward an organ for their new church.

—— The Statesman says there are perhaps even more than the usual number of real estate changes in Concord this Spring. Great difficulty is experienced in procuring rented houses.

—— Mr. Adna Tenney, a successful portrait painter, having impaired eyesight, has removed with his family from Concord to Vineland, N. J., where he has purchased real estate.

—— The Manchester Mirror of April 1 tells a big story about a live cat, pressed flat under clothing, &c., in a box, weighing 600 or 700 pounds, remained five days nailed up, &c., &c., and came out all right.

—— Joseph W. Robinson, Esq., Representative elect of Laconia, died at his residence on Tuesday night last. He had been suffering several weeks with lung fever, heart disease and dropsy, the latter disease causing his death.

— A house and lot at St. Paul, Minn., mortgaged to J. Newland Maffitt, Captain of the Florida, was confiscated a few days ago.

— "Cabbage," says the Edinburg Review, "contains more muscle-sustaining nutriment than any other vegetable." That must be the reason some tailors are so fond of it.

Coughs and Colds.

The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies oft n act speedily when taken in the early stage s of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them efficacious for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. mh21—1udaw

Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

☞ Wind and weather permitting, Miss Haskell's Gymnastic Exhibition comes off at the Temple to night. The evolutions of the young ladies which are truly the poetry of motion; Dr. Lewis' Lecture; or the cause, are either f them sufficient to merit a full house.

P. S.—We are glad to learn, as all our readers interested will also be—that the full Portsmouth Cornet Band have generously volunteered to play on this occasion. So be sure of your tickets early to day, and go in good season.

☞ On and after to-day, the afternoon train for Concord will leave this city at 4:40, instead of 4:10, as heretofore. The advertisement on the outside of this Chronicle, which was printed before the change was known, is incorrect.

☞ By request of the Society, the sermon, entitled "the Bible the Source of Light," which was delivered in this city by Rev. A. P. Peabody, D. D., at the anniversary of the Rockingham County Bible Society in January last, has been published, and is for sale in Portsmouth by Messrs. J. H. Foster and J. F. Shores, Jr.

☞ A London letter says: "At the Thackeray sale the prices realized were enormous, particularly for the plate and china. Thackeray had a strong taste for such brick a brac, and had a habit of dropping in at certain favorite shops and resisting, or oftener yielding, to the temptation of some quaint set of apostle spoons, some good bit of Rococo silver, or some tempting little 'piece' of Marcolini, Dresden, or old Sevres; and now the bargains he thought so reckless often have turned out wonderfully profitable—thanks to the eager rivalry of personal friends anxious to possess some relic for which they knew his love or value, or which was associated with some recollections of his own comically rueful reflections on his own extravagance. In this way his inkstand, a fine presentation silver bowl, and a pretty old Queen Anne silver salver were run up to amounts varying between 40s. and 50s. per ounce. And even dealers might be seen buying at double the prices which Thackeray had given for the things sold within a very short time, and to persons actually in the room."

☞ A barn in Newburyport, owned and occupied by Mr. Horace N. Jackman as a stable and storehouse, was burnt on Thursday morning. The Herald states the loss at about $300; insured for $200 in the Home Insurance Company, at New York, that has about a million dollars risks in that city and vicinity and has never before met with a loss exceeding ten dollars. Mr Jackman is confident that this was the work of an incendiary, as no fire had been used in the premises. Two firemen, Messrs. Joseph Kimball and Joseph Hoskins, were in the chamber of the building, when the floor gave way and let them down, top ther with some bricks and parts of stoves that were stored there. Mr. Kimball was stunned, but not much injured. Mr. Hoskins was caught and for a time held by fragments of the floor, and received several severe wounds about the head.

☞ At San Francisco, March 23, the following report is made of "domestic produce." The first field strawberries of the season were received at the Pacific Fruit Market three days since, and sold at $1.50 per lb. These were grown at the Mission Dolores in the open air, though the market has been regularly supplied with hot house strawberries all through the winter at about $2 per lb. Green peas have been in the market for some days; the opening price of the season was 50c; to day they are down to 18c. Asparagus is arriving freely, the first of the season commanding $1; now 50c. per lb.

☞ A few days ago the steamer Missionary, on the Cumberland river, had her flues blown out, and suspicions led to the examination of the wood, which resulted in the discovery of several pieces containing infernal machines. Further investigations led to the belief that there is a regularly organized band of amnesty Federal oath-takers and rebel sympathisers, whose object is the destruction of boats and engines.

— An unpleasant development was made in Cincinnati the other day concerning Catawba brandy—responsible vinters, declaring that the pure article would cost from five to eight dollars a gallon, adding that there was no genuine article of the kind in the market—the quality generally sold consisting of pomace, whiskey and fusil oil.

— It is said that as Gen. Grant was going down to Washington one day last week, when the train, having attached to it the special car, stopped at Brandy Station, some soldiers who were waiting to go down asked if they could not get in the car. 'No,' was the answer of an officer; 'this is Gen. Grant's special car' Whereupon Grant, who was sitting by the window, said, 'Gen. Grant occupies only one seat; the soldiers can ride.'

— A Fortress Monroe letter states that there is quite an excitement there consequent on the arrival of the rebel Commissioner Ould on a visit to Gen. Butler relative to the exchange of prisoners. Ould has brought an immense quantity of books, papers, &c., and it is expected that his stay will last a week.

— Gen. Sanford of New York has issued orders for the parade of the whole First Division of National Guards, in connection with the United States troops at that station under Gen. Dix, to-day—Monday. The muster of National Guards will probably be not less than 6000. The police of New York city have contributed $4000 to the Fair.

The Schooner Minstrel laden with flour and grain for H. Kingsbury arrived at Salisbury Point on Friday March 18th. This is unusually early for the freshet to be so far abated and the river so free from ice as to be navigable. In going out of the river on Sunday last the Minstrel went ashore on the North Breaker, and, we learn, went to pieces.—Amesbury Villager.

Some of Vallandigham's friends have recently visited him in Canada and presented him a purse of two thousand dollars. Don't care what they give him, if he will only keep out of the country. We are not now in a condition to hear him or his politics. This war must be put through. Our salvation is in that, or we have no salvation. Newburyport Herald.

Gen. Joe Johnston in his official report of the Mississippi campaign says that Pemberton lost his army of 8,000 men in Vicksburg, by refusing to obey orders and evacuate the town. What does he mean by 8,000 men? Did we not capture 33,000?—Newburyport Herald.

Mrs. White of Salem, Ala., sister of Mrs. Lincoln, has arrived from Washington, having smuggled through a rebel uniform, the buttons of which were of gold, worth forty thousand dollars.—Atlanta Rebel.

The buttons of this smuggled coat would weigh more than 250 pounds and one should think it would be rather heavy for every day use in the climate of Georgia.

Ben Wade, of Ohio, lately excused himself for carrying an umbrella on a sunny day, saying he had heard the army of the Potomac was in motion, and it always rained within twelve hours after that army made a move.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!—The citizen soldier will find a more deadly foe in the brackish, muddy water and damp night air than in the most determined enemy. Holloway's Pills so purify the blood and strengthen the stomach and bowels that the soldier can endure these hardships and still be strong and healthy. Only 30 cents per box 230

☞ Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is manufactured entirely different from any other. Its chemical purity renders it as harmless as the purest flour, and its use will strengthen weak stomachs and cure dyspeptic persons. Use it with cream tartar instead of soda.—It is much better. Try it. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is always an EVIDENCE OF PRUDENT FORETHOUGHT; no man with a dependent family is FREE FROM REPROACH if not insured."—LORD LYNDHURST, late Lord Chancellor of England.

"A POLICY OF LIFE ASSURANCE is the CHEAPEST AND SAFEST mode of making a CERTAIN PROVISION FOR ONE'S FAMILY. Many a widow and orphan have had great reason to be grateful that the advantage of LIFE ASSURANCE was understood and embraced by the husband and father."—BENJ. FRANKLIN, 1789.

UNITED STATES LOTTERY.—Some facetious gentleman has perpetrated the following. The points need no explanation:

United States Lottery! Great Inducements!! Brilliant Schemes!!! All prizes and no blanks!!!! Tickets for this Lottery for either Classes 1 or 2 distributed gratis.

No internal Revenue Stamps required.

The drawing of a prize number will entitle the fortunate individual to:

1 new, highly finished musket;
1 bran new suit of clothes;
1 pair of shoes and stockings;
1 elegant blanket;
1 nice haversack and knapsack;
1 nice cartridge box, with 60 rounds of ammunition;
1 nice tin plate, tin cup, knife, fork and spoon.

In addition to this, the holder of the lucky number will have a regular income of $13 per month, and when this cruel war is over, will receive a capital prize of $100.

With such inducements, the manager hopes to be largely patronized by an appreciating public. This is no humbug, catch-penny institution, but a genuine lottery, in which the managers will fulfill as they promise.

Legalized by an act of Congress approved March 3, 1863.

All prizes cashed by the Provost Marshals of the different districts.

Time of drawing will be duly announced, and any one drawing a prize will be immediately notified of the fact.

Constitution Life Syrup

HAS PRODUCED

A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we confidently invite the investigation of the intelligent minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar, by it the seat of disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored; those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases, those who have vainly sought relief, those who have spent their money, those who cannot be cured by other physicians—are

Invited to use Constitution Life Syrup.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as heroic as ever encountered by any reformers.

Rapidity of Cure.

"Some say, 'Your parts are too quick;' while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can not be cured by the 'recuperative process of Nature.' This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

Paralysis,

Hemiplegia, Paresis, Paraplegia, Paralysis Agitans.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need only referred to it in emphatically the Great Life-Giving Power.

Dyspepsia.

Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Weighing Stomach, Rheumatism, Want of Appetite, Flatulence, Sick Headache.

Scrofula.

Struma, Glandular Swellings, Ulceration, King's Evil, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum.

This most fearful malady, or acquired, filling life with untold misery, is by all medical medicinal remedies incurable.

Rheumatism.

(Arthritic), Sciatica, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Tic Doloureux.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism of the most fearful description. The most severe pains are almost instantaneously relieved, and in a few days are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years standing, have been cured by us.

Nervousness.

Nervous Debility, Cerebral Irritation, Sleeplessness, Epilepsy, Loss of Power, Shattered Nerves, St Vitus' Dance.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Parents, whose sons are wasting away, will find medicine proved an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than it promises.

Mercurial Diseases.

Salivation, Feeling of Weariness, Rotting of Bones, Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones, Depressed Spirits.

Constitution Life Syrup purges the system entirely from all the effects of Mercury, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Sore Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the teeth firmly as ever.

Constitution Life Syrup

Eradicates, root and branch, all Erepitive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES.

And all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Cures all Swellings of the Glands,

Either of the Face, Neck or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking and producing troublesome Ulcers, which are much more dangerous to many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few bottles of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia; Dropsy, of the limbs or abdomen, and in the female Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and ulceration of the uterus; are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Bronchocele, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort. Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body will be completely reduced without resorting to the Knife or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart, Palpitation, Disease of Valves (producing a grating or filing sound), Dropsy of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ, which are generally fatal, and which Medical Men in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

Broken Down and Delicate Constitutions, Suffering from Indisposition to Exercise, Pain in the Back, Loss of Appetite, Nervous Irritation, Nervous Insanity, Fear of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Dry Hot Skin and Extremities, Want of Sleep, Restlessness, Pale Bloated Countenance, Dullness of the Mind, Irregular Spirits, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

For all forms of Ulcerative Diseases, such as Ulcers of the Throat, Tongue, Spine, or Cerebral Marrow, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTHER PATIENTS upon the female race, depending upon a healthy action of the system are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of Constitution Life Syrup will correct the disordered menses and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

The Diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Jaundice, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, and an indurated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, relief may be obtained by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

Diseases of the Spine, as usually developed in the young, Hip Disease, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases, and Ladies who are suffering from diseases for which they are at a loss to know what to do, we would advise the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP. It will restore their pallid countenances, take the pain from the back and side, give them new energy, new life and happiness.

FAT, RICH AND FOOD are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science have made the Constitution Life Syrup for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death are the results. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES

It is the safest and most effectual medicine ever discovered for purifying the system, and relieving the suffering attendant upon childbirth. It strengthens both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, and increases and enlarges the food—Those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents disease attendant upon childbirth.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is specially recommended in these cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites) in females, for which all other remedies have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with it at medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to each address, a printed copy.

Price—CHEROKEE REMEDY, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of burning meats are prevented from occupying the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large iron warming closet, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, so that there can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, most and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce mouldiness so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating furnaces have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over ordinary Air Tight Stoves, they have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, heating the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

GLACIERS AND BOULDERS.

Every branch of true science may receive light from other branches, and give light in return. Thus we observe that in the lectures on Zoology, by Agassiz, he gets in some pertinent items about Glaciers and Boulders, which we copy from sketches by a writer in the Concord Statesman:—

It is evident that before the cold wave it must have been warm enough for tropical animals to subsist around the poles. Three continents here converge, and these animals are found on each. The cause which killed also preserved them. It must have been cold, followed by consecutive cold. Assuming that for years and years in succession snow accumulated in such quantities as to be almost beyond conception, these animals must have been preserved—in it during all this time.

Suppose that indications are unmistakable; suppose that by scratches, by polishing, by accumulation of loose materials, we find indications of glacial action over the whole northern portions of the globe—also of the southern—we must yield our belief to these facts. The boundaries of these may be determined. The snow passed over and buried all the hills of our country except the highest points of mountains. The summit of Mount Washington has no traces or marks, but we find them nearly to the top, showing that the snow attained a depth of nearly 6000 feet. The Green Mountains, the hills of Massachusetts, of New York, of Pennsylvania—in fact, all the hills of North America, down to 32 deg. of latitude, were completely buried.

The mountains of Scotland, and some other mountains of Europe, show glacial action, and indicate a depth of snow to the height of 4000 feet—the diff-rence in height being the result of the warmer temperature of Europe. In the tropics snow marks are found down the sides of the mountains, at five to six thousand feet above the level of the sea; now days the termination of the snow is at 14,000 feet above the sea. The temperature of the tropics must have been that of the temperate zones, and the temperature of the temperate zones must have been that of Greenland. The snow left a zone of 64 or 65 degrees uncovered, around the center of the earth.

Variations of temperature cause glacial appearances. In warm days it undergoes partial thawing—then freezing again. In consequence of this action, motion must be introduced into the whole mass, and the action must be from the South to the North. The melting action must be from the south, while in the arctic regions snow was still falling, and the mass was to be moving southward from the pole in every direction—every where southward!—said this snow accumulation must have been for a very long period.

If these masses of snow ice moved southward the loose material of the earth must have moved with the ice, as a glacier of the Alps carries with it the stones, sand and boulders. The great mass moved on, like a gigantic rasp, scratching, grooving, polishing and powdering as far south as Carolina. The northern slopes of the hills are rubbed, the southern un touched. But if seen was ice it would not have been so. There are out of relevations from the rock, and these are caused by the fly of the ice. A pebble moved by water would not and go, not perhaps in a continuous line. Pebbles touching above make curious marks, because carried by water, but on the rocks of the northern hemisphere the lines are straight and intersecting. The less hard materials are ground to powder: large boulders; pebbles and powder, paste, coarse sand, mud, every thing mixed together by the glacier moving, pressing unequally on.

All drift is from the Arctic to the South. Sometimes boulders at the top, sand at the bottom. We never there is drift there are polished rocks at the bottom. On hills the polishing and scratching may be worn away, by exposure, but by removing a few feet of the drift it is fresh. Boulders and loose materials move undisturbed on the top of the ice, remain angular and unpolished, but underneath the polishing is found. When the ice melts away, the angular materials settle on the top of the polished stones. Boulders found on the top are not scratched. Boulders resting on hills were settled there when the ice melted away, which melting first took place on the hills, where the warmth of the earth, assisting the warmth of the sun, formed a hole in the ice above the hills, into which the boulders were precipitated, and that accounts for the appearance of large boulders on the top of high hills.

In the State of Ohio the surface is limestone, but the boulders are granite—carried from the northern shore of Lake Superior. There are here in Cambridge pebbles of granite shaded with beautiful rose-colored feldspar and greenish hornblende, such as is found in quantities nowhere but on the shores of Lake Superior, and must have come from there, and have come underneath the ice, for they present the scratched, polished surface of glacial stones. It must have taken uncounted ages to bring them here. We have no measure for the time, when he consider there must have been duration for the snow fall, and for the moving. Such masses of ice explain all the phenomena of the earth, and they can be explained in no other way.

Some geologists have maintained that an impetus wave from the ocean passed over, but if so, the heavier boulders could not have been carried farthest. They would have stopped when the heavy force of the wave ceased, and light materials only would have gone to the extremity, but the materials are not so arranged. If it was currents of water, the materials must have been stratified, but it is not so. Also, water of such extent must have been inhabited; if an ocean wave, by marine animals; if fresh water, by fresh water animals. Some remains of these animals would be found, some parts of them are hard, and would become fossilized, but no traces of such animals are anywhere found. It could not have been water; must have been ice. What cause produced the change, we can not tell, but the facts show it.

E. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street, Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Claims, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research into American or Foreign Patents to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent issued by reflicting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages in procuring Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove the truth of the MORE SUCCESS IN ALL THE PATENT OFFICE THAN THE SUBSCRIBER; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANCED AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. During the last twenty years, the enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in Europe and the United States, enable him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All inventors desirous of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can obtain a patent more complete and satisfactory in form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent office, than any other solicitor."
JOHN TAGGART,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. E. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors who apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
